INTRODUCTION

This Sunan is one of the six famous compositions of the Prophetic tradition, the second source of legislation in Islam. Its composer is Abu Abdullah: Muhammad Ibn Yazid Al-Qazwini Ar-Rib'i, known as Ibn Majah (209-273H).

He learnt Hadith at the hands of many grand masters, and a mention may be made here of: Abu Bakr Ibn Shaibah; Yazid Ibn Abdullah Al-Yamani; Ali Ibn Muhammad At-Tanafisi; Mus'ab Ibn Abdullah Az-Zubairi; Suwaid Ibn Ma'bad; Abdullah Ibn Mu'awiyah Al-Jumahi; Muhammad Ibn Rumh; Ibrahim Ibn Al-Mundhir Al-Hizami; Muhammad Ibn Abdullah Ibn Numair; Hisham Ibn Ammar; Abu Mus'ab Az-Zuhri; Abu Bishr Ibn Mu'adh Al-Aqdi; Humaid Ibn Mas'adah; Abu Hudhafah As-Sahmi; Dawud Ibn Rashid; Abu Khaithamah; Abdullah Ibn Dhakwan; Abdullah Ibn Amir Ibn Barrad; Abu Sa'id Al-Ashajj; Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Duhaim; and Uthman Ibn Shaibah.

From amongst his disciples who undertook the task of transmitting his knowledge all over the world, a mention may be made here of: Ali Ibn Sa'id Ibn Abdullah Al-Ghadani; Ibrahim Ibn Dinar Al-Jarshi Al-Hamadani; Ahmad Ibn Ibrahim Al-Qazwini; Ishaq Ibn Muhammad Al-Qazwini; Ja'far Ibn Idris; Sulaiman Ibn Yazid Al-Qazwini; Muhammad Ibn Isa As-Saffar; Abu Al-Hasan: Ali Ibn Ibrahim Ibn Salamah Al-Qattan Al-Qazwini; Abu Amr: Ahmad Ibn Muhammad Ibn Hakim Al-Madani Al-Asbahani; Ibn Sibawaih; and Muhammad Ibn Isa Al-Abhari.

Ibn Majah has a good position among the religious scholars and the transmitters of Hadith. It is unanimously agreed, according to the description of Al-Khalili, that he is reliable and trustworthy, and one of such as are well-acquainted with Hadith and its related disciplines. He is reported to have made many journeys to different regions such as Mecca, Kufah, Damascus, Hims and Egypt, in search for the narration of Hadith; and at that time, those regions acted as the metropolitans of religious knowledge and Islamic civilization. Those different journeys reflect the variety of his masters from whom he heard, learnt and transmitted as shown in the chains of transmitters of his Sunan.

Ibn Majah did not compose but a very few works, and his Sunan is the most important of them all. Although it contains a lot of Prophetic traditions, under so many categories and chapters, it has, at the same time, not only many strange traditions, but also a very weak narrations, which are not shared with the remaining five compositions of Hadith; and this is seemingly why it does not have the same celebrity the other compositions of Hadith have among the religious scholars and jurists. But, one of its important characteristics is almost its freedom of narration repetition; and this explains the large number of narrations (4341) it contains, and the variety of the categories and chapters (nearly 1500) it implies.

As to the constitution of Sunan Ibn Majah, it contains 4341 narrations, in 32 books, having nearly 1500 chapters: 3002 of them are shared with the other five compositions of Hadith, and the remaining 1339 are transmitted by it solely. From amongst those sole narrations, 428 are of reliable and authentic chains of transmission, 199 are good, 613 are weak, and 99 are rejected as far as chains of transmission is concerned.

Although there are nearly 13 commentaries on the narrations of Sunan Ibn Majah, only two of them are the most important: Misbah Az-Zujajah of As-Suyuti; and Kifayat Al-Hajah of As-Sindi; and it is upon both, Allah Willing, that we are going to rely in our translation of the text.

CONCERNING FAITH, COMPANIONS' MERITS AND KNOWLEDGE

[1] Following The Sunnah Of The Messenger Of Allah

1- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Stick to whatever I command you to do, and desist from whatever I forbid you to do!"

Comment: (It seems that this statement acts as explanatory to Allah's saying: "So take what the Messenger assigns to you, and deny yourselves. that which he withholds from you. And fear Allah; for Allah is strict in Punishment." (Al-Hashr 7))

2- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Leave me (i.e. do not ask me about restrictions pertaining to what is not restricted) as long as I leave you (without enjoining anything upon you); for indeed, what destroyed the ancient generations before you was their asking their Prophets (so much pressingly with no necessity), with whom they disputed. For this reason, if I command you to do anything, stick to it as much as is within your capacity; and if I forbid you to do anything, desist from it."

3- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who obeys me (in whatever I've conveyed from Allah) has, indeed, obeyed Allah; and he who disobeys me (and refrains from what I have brought from Allah) has, indeed, disobeyed Allah."

4- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ja'far: Whenever Ibn Umar "Allah be pleased with both" heard a Hadith from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he would act justly (upon its content with) neither addition (which leads to blameworthy rigidity) nor reduction (which leads to disapproved indulgence)."

5- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ad-Darda': While we were engaged in discussing poverty, of which we seemed afraid (it might afflict us in the future), the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to us and then said: "Do you fear poverty (to strike you)? By Him, in Whose Hand is my soul! The (luxuries and delights of this) world would be poured on you (in great abundance) so much that the heart of anyone of you would have no way to be misled (from the truth) but

2 ـ حدّثنا أَبُو عَبْدِ اللَّهِ؛ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ الصَّبَّاحِ، قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا جَرِيرٌ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ أَبِي صَالِحٍ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ، قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «ذَرُونِي مَا تَرَكْتُكُمْ، فَإِنَّمَا هَلَكَ مَنْ كَانَ قَبْلَكُمْ بِسُؤَالِهِمْ وَاخْتِلَافِهِمْ عَلَى أَنْبِيَائِهِمْ. فَإِذَا أَمَرْتُكُمْ بِشَيْءٍ فَخُذُوا مِنْهُ مَا اسْتَطَعْتُمْ، وَإِذَا نَهَيْتُكُمْ عَنْ شَيْءٍ فَانْتَهُوا».

4 ـ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ نُمَيْرٍ، حَدَّثَنَا زَكَرِيَّا بْنُ عَدِيٍّ، عَنِ ابْنِ الْمُبَارَكِ، عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ سُوقَةَ، عَنْ أَبِي جَعْفَرٍ، قَالَ: كَانَ ابْنُ عُمَرَ إِذَا سَمِعَ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ حَدِيثاً لَمْ يَعْدُهُ وَلَمْ يُقَصِّرْ دُونَهُ.

5 ـ حدّثنا هِشَامُ بْنُ عَمَّارٍ الدِّمَشْقِيُّ، حَدَّثَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عِيسَى بْنِ سُمَيْعٍ، حَدَّثَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ سُلَيْمَانَ الأَفْطَسُ، عَنِ الْوَلِيدِ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الْجُرَشِيِّ، عَنْ جُبَيْرِ بْنِ نُفَيْرٍ، عَنْ أَبِي الدَّرْدَاءِ، قَالَ: خَرَجَ عَلَيْنَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَنَحْنُ نَذْكُرُ الْفَقْرَ

That (world with its pleasures and delights). By Allah! I am going to depart from you (and leave to you Allah's Book and my sunnah, with which your hearts are as pure, which nothing could make swerve from Allah to falsehood at the times of prosperity and adversity) as white (ground) whose night is (as bright and shining as) its day."

Abu Ad-Darda' commented: No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has told the truth: He left us (by death with our hearts as pure) as white (ground) whose night is (as bright and shining as) its day.

6- it is narrated on the authority of Mu'awiyah Ibn Qurrah from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A group of my (Muslim) nation would remain prevailing (over all the people by virtue of their true arguments and proofs); and whoever disappoints them would cause no harm to them, (and they would keep so) until the Hour (of Judgement) is established."

7- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A group of my (Muslim) nation would keep standing on the (right principles and judgements of) Allah's Order (of religion); and such as differs from them would cause no harm to them."

8- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Inabah Al-Khawlani, who attended the prayer with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to both Qiblahs (of Jerusalem and the Ka'bah of Mecca): I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Allah ever plants in this religion (of Islam) such (men) as He employs in His obedience (by following His Commands and Orders, and giving life to the sunnah of His Messenger)."

9- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father: Mu'awiyah (Ibn Abu Sufyan) stood and delivered a speech, in which he said: "Where are your religious scholars? Where are your religious scholars (to confirm what I'm going to tell you)? I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The Hour (of Judgement) would not be established but there would be a group of my nation prevailing over (all the) people, (so much strong that) they would have no care for such as (try to) frustrate them, or for such as help them."

10- It is narrated on the authority of Thawban: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A group of my people

قَالَ أَبُو الدَّرْدَاءِ: صَدَقَ، وَاللَّهِ، رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ تَرَكَنَا، وَاللَّهِ، عَلَى مِثْلِ الْبَيْضَاءِ، لَيْلُهَا وَنَهَارُهَا سَوَاءٌ.

9 ـ حدّثنا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ حُمَيْدِ بْنِ كَاسِبٍ، حَدَّثَنَا الْقَاسِمُ بْنُ نَافِعٍ، حَدَّثَنَا الْحَجَّاجُ بْنُ أَرْطَاةَ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ؛ قَالَ: قَامَ مُعَاوِيَةُ خَطِيباً فَقَالَ: أَيْنَ عُلَمَاؤُكُمْ؟ أَيْنَ عُلَمَاؤُكُمْ؟ سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «لاَ تَقُومُ السَّاعَةُ إِلاَّ وَطَائِفَةٌ مِنْ أُمَّتِي ظَاهِرُونَ عَلَى النَّاسِ، لاَ يُبَالُونَ مَنْ خَذَلَهُمْ وَلاَ مَنْ نَصَرَهُمْ».

Would keep sticking to the truth, with which they would prevail (over the people), with no harm they would receive from such as dispute with them until the coming of Allah's Command (of the day of Judgement to be established)."

11- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: We were sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he drew a line, two lines on its right, and two others on its left. Then, he placed his hand in the middle line and said: "This (line alone) is (representing) the path (which leads straight) to Allah Almighty. He recited the following Statement: "Verily, this is My Way leading straight: follow it; follow not (other) paths: they will scatter you about from His (great) Path; thus does He command you, that you may be righteous." (Al-An'am 153)

Comment: (This means that Allah's Way manifested in the middle line is only one, and anything else is falsehood)

[2] Showing Respect For The Traditions Of The Messenger Of Allah And The Severe Punishment Of Such As Objects To Them

12- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Miqdam Ibn Ma'di-Karib that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A time is about to come, that a man is told of a Hadith of mine, while reclining on his sofa (out of luxury in which he lives), thereupon he says (by way of rejecting it, out of foolishness and faithlessness): "There is only Allah's Book to stand (as judge) between you and us: we make lawful whatever we find lawful in it; and we forbid whatever we find unlawful in it." Behold! What the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has forbidden is the same as is forbidden by Allah Almighty (in the Qur'an, by which we are required to abide)!"

13- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abu Rafi' from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I do not (like to) see anyone of you sitting on his bed, while being informed of that which I've commanded (you to do) or that which I've forbidden (you to do), thereupon he would say (by way of denial): "I do not know! We only follow that which we find in Allah's Book.""

14- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever makes any change in this matter of ours (i.e. the religion) which is not in it (i.e. has no reference or cause in Allah's Book and the Sunnah of His Messenger), it should be abrogated."

2 ـ بابُ تَعْظِيمِ حَدِيثِ رَسُولِ الله ﷺ والتَّغْلِيظِ على مَنْ عَارَضَهُ

12 ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ، حَدَّثَنَا زَيْدُ بْنُ الْحُبَابِ، عَنْ مُعَاوِيَةَ بْنِ صَالِحٍ، حَدَّثَنِي الْحَسَنُ بْنُ جَابِرٍ، عَنِ الْمِقْدَامِ بْنِ مَعْدِيكَرِبَ الْكِنْدِيِّ أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «يُوشِكُ الرَّجُلُ مُتَّكِئاً عَلَى أَرِيكَتِهِ يُحَدِّثُ بِحَدِيثٍ مِنْ حَدِيثِي فَيَقُولُ: بَيْنَنَا وَبَيْنَكُمْ كِتَابُ اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ. فَمَا وَجَدْنَا فِيهِ مِنْ حَلاَلٍ اسْتَحْلَلْنَاهُ. وَمَا وَجَدْنَا فِيهِ مِنْ حَرَامٍ حَرَّمْنَاهُ. أَلاَ وَإِنَّ مَا حَرَّمَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ مِثْلُ مَا حَرَّمَ اللَّهُ».

15- It is narrated on the authority of Urwah Ibn Az-Zubair: An Ansari man quarrelled with Az-Zubair in the presence of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the Harrah Canals which were used for irrigating the date-palms. So, the case was brought before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to Az-Zubair: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then let the water pass to your neighbour. " On that the Ansari got angry and said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Is it for he (Zubair) is your aunt's son?" On that the colour of the face of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed (because of anger) and he said: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then withhold the water till it reaches the walls between the pits round the trees, and then let the water pass to your neighbor." Az-Zubair said: By Allah, I think that the following verse was revealed on this occasion: "But no, by your Lord they can have No faith until they make you judge in all disputes between them." (An-Nisa 65)

16- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from Ibn Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not forbid Allah's servant-women to offer the (obligatory) prayers in the mosques." On that one of his (Ibn Umar's) sons (called Bilal) said: "No doubt, we prevent them (to go)." He (Salim) got angry and said: "Do I narrate to you a Hadith from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in which he urges you to leave the women offer the prayers in the mosques), and you tell me that you forbid them (to go)?"

17- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that once, a nephew of Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal was sitting with him, when he threw a pebble, thereupon Abdullah forbade him to do so, on the basis that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had forbidden it saying: "No doubt, it neither (helps) catch a game, nor does it wound an enemy (severely so that it might be of significance): but it just breaks the tooth and gouges the eye." But he (Abdullah's nephew) did it once again, thereupon his uncle said to him: "Do I tell you that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that, and (in spite of that) you come to throw pebbles once again? Indeed! I would never talk to you!"

18- It is narrated on the authority of Ishaq Ibn Qabisah from his father that when Ubadah Ibn As-Samit, one of the twelve heads of the Ansar on the Day of Al-Aqabah, and he was one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peacc be upon him", took part with Mu'awiyah in the fight in the Roman territories, he saw that the people

Exchanged fragments of gold for Dinars, and those of silver for Dirhams. He said: "O people! No doubt, you devour usury (by your doing so)! Verily, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Do not sell gold by gold unless it is (on the spot), like by like, with no increase in any of them; nor should it be on credit." Mu'awiyah said to him: "O Abu Al-Walid! I do not think this (selling fragments of gold or silver by Dinars or Dirhams) is a kind of usury, unless it is done on credit." Ubadah said to him: "Do I relate to you from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (his command in this respect), and you tell me about your opinion? By Allah! If Allah Almighty enables me to get out (of this land), I would never live in a place, in which you are ruler over me."

When he departed (from the Roman territories), he went to Medina, where Umar Ibn Al-Khattab asked him: "What led you to come O Abu Al-Walid?" he told him the story, and how he swore not to live in a land (in which Mu'awiyah becomes ruler over him). Umar said to him: "Go back, O Abu Al-Walid, to your land (from where you've come)! Indeed, despised be a (piece of) land, in which you and your matches (endued with the religious knowledge and understanding) are not living! Then, he sent to Mu'awiyah that his ruling over him would be of no effect (particularly in the religious matters); and he ordered him to get the people comply with His (Ubadah's) saying, for this is the opinion (which should be adopted).

19- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that he said: "If I relate you something from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", you should think of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" according to what is most fitting for him, most convenient to his perfect righteousness and most consonant with his complete piety." (I.e. you should think that he always tells the truth in what he says, which should be adopted, for it is brought from Allah.)

20- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib that he said: "If I relate you something from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", you should think of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" according to what is most fitting for him, most convenient to his perfect righteousness and most consonant with his complete piety." (I.e. you should think that he always tells the truth in what he says, which should be adopted, for it is brought from Allah.)."

21- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I do not (like to) know anyone of you sitting on his bed, while receiving a narration from me, thereupon he would say (out of his rejection of it): "Recite (what it confirms it from) the Qur'an!" no doubt, whatever good is said (it should be known that) I have said it."

22- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said to a man (thought to be Ibn Abbas, when he heard from him the Hadith which makes it obligatory to perform ablution because of eating anything cooked by fire): "O son of my brother! If I relate to you a narration from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", do not make comparisons for it (out of objection to it)!"

Comment: (This seems to be in reply to what Ibn Abbas said in comment on the narration of ablution when he said: "Should we then perform ablution (once again) because of (offering ablution with) the fetid water?" i.e. if one performs ablution with the hot water, should then it be obligatory for him to perform ablution once again with the cold water? Abu Hurairah meant by his statement that such narration as related from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should not be opposed by the like of these objections which might be refuted)

[3] One Should Be Careful Of What He Relates From The Prophet

23- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Maimun: I never missed (or Ibn Mas'ud never missed) a Thursday evening, but that I came to him (or he came to me) on it. I've never heard him saying about anything (about which he was talking) that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said such and such. But one evening, he said (forgetfully) that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said such and such. Then, he lowered his head; and when I looked at him, behold! He was standing, with the buttons (of his shirt) unloosed, his eyes were overflowing with tears, and his cheeks got swollen. He said (immediately as if he felt he committed a mistake): "Or something lesser or more than that, or close or even similar to that."

24- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Sirin: Whenever Anas related a narration from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he would say (immediately): "Or something similar to what the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said."

Comment: (This is to confirm that it is the meaning of the narration that he relates from the Prophet; and as regards the wording, he might or might not succeed to transmit it just as it is.)

25- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila: We said to Zaid Ibn Arqam: "Relate to us something from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" on that he said: "We have grown very old, and thus we have been given to forgetfulness; and (this is not fitting for relating anything from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", for) the narration of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is a very serious (matter which requires one to be at full strength of memory)."

26- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu As-Safar: I heard Ash-Sha'bi saying: I kept sitting in the company of Ibn Umar for a whole year, during which I had not heard him relating anything (by wording) from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

27- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Tawus from his father: I heard Ibn Abbas saying: "Verily, we used to (get and) keep by heart the Prophetic Traditions from (the companions who are worthy of all trust in their narration); and of a surety, the tradition of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is worthy of being kept by heart. But now if you do not put a distinction between what is difficult and what is easy (i.e. if you stick to indulgence and carelessness in accepting all the narrations from the transmitters, no matter true or false they might be), then how far it is (to trust them)!"

28- It is narrated on the authority of Qaradah Ibn Ka'b: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab sent us (in a delegate) to Kufah, and he walked with us until Sirar (a place near Medina), thereupon he said: "Do you know why I walked with you?" we said: "It may be because of the right of the companionship of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the right of the Ansar (upon you)." He said: "But I walked with you for something I intended to tell you, and I would like you to learn it from me during my walk with you: You are going to come to a people, who (cherish) the Holy Qur'an (so much that its recitation) has in their breasts sounding like that of the boiling vessel (or like the sounding of bees). When they would see you (coming to them) they would stretch their necks towards you (out of respect and honour) saying: "Those are the companions of Muhammad (from whom we should learn, and to whom we should put our trust in all the religious matters)." So, do not (let their longing for the Prophetic narrations lead you to) relate much narrations from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for it is very serious); and I'm your partner" (in the reward for he guided them to do good in this respect).

29- It is narrated on the authority of As-Sa'ib Ibn Yazid that he said: I was in the company of Sa'd Ibn Malik from Medina to Mecca and (during this time) I did not hear him relating even a single Hadith from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

Comment: (This might show how grave the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt it upon themselves to relate anything from him, for fear that they might fall into mistakes though unintentionally. But this does not mean they did not relate from him at all, otherwise, how have his narrations become in circulation among the people? It is just that the majority of the companions felt it difficult upon themselves to be engaged in this matter, unless it is necessary for them to do.)

[4] The Severe Punishment Of Such As Attributes Lies To Allah's Apostle Intentionally

30- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who attributes lies to me intentionally, let him then occupy his seat in the fire (of Hell)!"

31- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not tell lies about me, for indeed, telling lies about me admits such (as does it) to the Fire."

32- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who attributes lies to me (I (the narrator) think that he (the Prophet) said: "intentionally"), let him then occupy his seat in the fire (of Hell)!"

33- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who attributes lies to me intentionally, let him then occupy his seat in the fire (of Hell)!"

34- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who relates from me that which I did not say, let him then take his seat in the fire (of Hell)!"

35- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Qatadah: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said while being on this pulpit: "Beware of relating so much (narrations) from me; and whoever attributes anything to me, let him tell the truth; and such as tells lies against me, let him then occupy his seat in the fire (of Hell)!"

36- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair from his father: I asked Az-Zubair Ibn Al-Awwam: "What is the reason for the fact that I do not hear you relating anything from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as I hear Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, and so and so, and so and so?" on that he said: "No doubt, I did not leave his (company) from the very moment I've embraced Islam. But I heard a statement from him (which makes me abstain from relating anything from him) he said: "He, who intentionally tells lies against me, let him occupy his seat in the fire (of Hell)!""

38- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who relates from me such as thought to be a lie: he is then one of the two liars" (i.e. the inventor and the transmitter of the false narration).

39- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah Ibn Jundub that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who attributes to me a statement which is thought to be a lie, he is then one of the two liars" (i.e. the inventor and the transmitter of the false narration).

40- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who relates from me such as believed to be a lie: he is then one of the two liars" (i.e. the inventor and the transmitter of the false narration).

41- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who attributes to me a narration which is believed to be a lie, he is then one of the two liars" (i.e. the inventor and the transmitter of the false narration).

[6] Following The Tradition Of The Rightly-Guided Successors

42- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Irbad Ibn Sariyah that he said: One day, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood and addressed us (with a good sermon, in which he) gave us a perfect instruction because of which the hearts became in awe, and the eyes shed tears. Then, it was said: "O Messenger of Allah! Verily, you've given us the instruction of such as is going to leave us. So, entrust us to a covenant (from you by which we would hold fast)!" on that he said: "I advise you to (ward off evil and) safeguard yourselves against (the punishment of) Allah; and to listen and obey (your ruler) even though he is an Abyssinian slave. No doubt, you will see after my (death) a great dispute (among the people which leads to their division and swerving from the right path): so, I advise you to follow my sunnah, and the tradition of the rightly-guided well-directed successors (of me), to which you should stick firmly (and on which you should show constant patience); and I further warn you of the innovations (of heresies pertaining to the religion, which have no reference in Allah's Book and the sunnah of His Messenger), for indeed, every innovation is an error."

36 ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ قَالاَ: حَدَّثَنَا غُنْدَرٌ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ جَعْفَرٍ، حَدَّثَنَا شُعْبَةُ، عَنْ جَامِعِ بْنِ شَدَّادٍ أَبِي صَخْرَةَ، عَنْ عَامِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ قَالَ: قُلْتُ لِلزُّبَيْرِ بْنِ الْعَوَّامِ: مَا لِيَ لاَ أَسْمَعُكَ تُحَدِّثُ عَنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَمَا أَسْمَعُ ابْنَ مَسْعُودٍ وَفُلاَناً وَفُلاَناً؟ قَالَ: أَمَا إِنِّي لَمْ أُفَارِقْهُ مُنْذُ أَسْلَمْتُ. وَلٰكِنِّي سَمِعْتُ مِنْهُ كَلِمَةً، يَقُولُ: «مَنْ كَذَبَ عَلَيَّ مُتَعَمِّداً فَلْيَتَبَوَّأْ مَقْعَدَهُ مِنَ النَّارِ».

43- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Irbad Ibn Sariyah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us with a sermon, (so much impressive that) because of which the eyes shed tears, and the hearts became in awe. We said: "O Messenger of Allah! Verily, this sermon is of such as is going to leave (us): what do you command us to do?" on that he said: "No doubt, I've left you on (a state of faith that is as clear and pure as) the white (ground), whose night is (as shining) as day; and no one deviates from it after me but that he will be ruined. No doubt, you will see after my (death) a great dispute (among the people which leads to their division and swerving from the right path): so, I advise you to follow my Sunnah, and the tradition of the rightly-guided well-directed successors (of me), to which you should stick firmly (and on which you should show constant patience). I further advise you to obey (your ruler) even though he is an Abyssinian slave; for verily the faithful believer is (as submissive) as a camel having the string in its nose: wherever it is led, it would surrender.

44- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Irbad Ibn Sariyah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the Morning Prayer, and then (after he had finished from the prayer), he turned towards us, and addressed us with a perfect sermon...and the rest is the same.

[7] Avoiding Innovations (Of Heresies) And (Useless) Arguments

45- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" delivered a sermon, his eyes would become red, his voice would rise, and he would grow so much angry, really as if he were a warner of an enemy, saying:

الْوَلِيدُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ، حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْعَلاَءِ (يَعْنِي ابْنَ زَبْرٍ)، حَدَّثَنِي يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ أَبِي الْمُطَاعِ، قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ الْعِرْبَاضَ بْنَ سَارِيَةَ يَقُولُ: قَامَ فِينَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، ذَاتَ يَوْمٍ، فَوَعَظَنَا مَوْعِظَةً بَلِيغَةً وَجِلَتْ مِنْهَا الْقُلُوبُ وَذَرَفَتْ مِنْهَا الْعُيُونُ. فَقِيلَ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ، وَعَظْتَنَا مَوْعِظَةَ مُوَدِّعٍ. فَاعْهَدْ إِلَيْنَا بِعَهْدٍ. فَقَالَ: «عَلَيْكُمْ بِتَقْوَى اللَّهِ وَالسَّمْعِ وَالطَّاعَةِ، وإِنْ عَبْداً حَبَشِيًا. وَسَتَرَوْنَ مِنْ بَعْدِي اخْتِلافاً شَدِيداً. فَعَلَيْكُمْ بِسُنَّتِي وَسُنَّةِ الْخُلَفَاءِ الرَّاشِدِينَ الْمَهْدِيِّينَ. عَضُّوا عَلَيْهَا بِالنَّوَاجِذِ. وَإِيَّاكُمْ والأُمُورَ الْمُحْدَثَاتِ. فَإِنَّ كُلَّ بِدْعَةٍ ضَلاَلَةٌ».

45 ـ حدّثنا سُوَيْدُ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ، وَأَحْمَدُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ الْجَحْدَرِيُّ. قَالاَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الْوَهَّابِ الثَّقَفِيُّ، عَنْ جَعْفَرِ بْنِ مُحَمَّدٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ. قَالَ:

"The enemy is going to attack you in the morning and in the evening." He also would say: "(The time at which) I have been sent, and the Hour (of doom) are (as close to one another) as those two", joining his index finger and middle finger. He also would say: "Now and then: The best speech is The Book of Allah, and the best guidance is that of Muhammad; the worst of affairs is its innovations (of heresies), and every innovation (of heresy) is an error." He used to say: "Whoever left wealth (to be inherited) then it would go to his family, and whoever left debts (to be fulfilled) or (helpless) children, then, I'm responsible to fulfill (his debts) and take care (of his children)."

46- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They (both Allah's Book and the Sunnah of His Prophet) consist of two (things, and no more): the Speech (of Allah taken from the Holy Qur'an), and the guidance (of His Messenger). The best speech is that of Allah, and the best guidance is that of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Behold! I warn you of the new changes pertaining to the matter (of religion, which has no reference in the Qur'an and Sunnah), for indeed, every new change as such is an innovation (of heresies), and every innovation (of heresies in the religion) is an error. Behold! Let not the long life (which you live) make your hearts harden! Behold! That (death which your longevity lets you think it is too far to come) is nigh to come; and what is really far is that which comes not. Behold! The wretched one (in the hereafter) is (him, who is doomed to be) so (as of the very moment he is created) in the womb of his mother; and the blessed one is him, who is helped to receive admonition from others!

Behold! Fighting a faithful believer is (a kind of) infidelity; and insulting him is wickedness; and it is unlawful for a Muslim to show desertion towards his (Muslim) brother for more than three (days)! Behold! I warn you of telling lies, for indeed, telling lies is not fitting whether seriously or even jokingly! Let not a man make a promise to his boy which he is going to break, for verily (it is a sort of telling a lie; and) telling a lie leads to impiety, and impiety, in turn, leads to the fire (of Hell). Therefore, telling the truth leads to piety, and piety, in turn, leads to the Garden; and such as tells the truth is described as a pious truthful; and such as tells a lie is described as a wicked liar; and verily, a servant (of Allah) might keep telling lies until he is enlisted as a liar in the Sight of Allah."

47- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited the following Holy كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِذَا خَطَبَ احْمَرَّتْ عَيْنَاهُ وَعَلاَ صَوْتُهُ وَاشْتَدَّ غَضَبُهُ كَأَنَّهُ مُنْذِرُ جَيْشٍ يَقُولُ: صَبَّحَكُمْ مَسَّاكُمْ.

Verse: "He it is Who has sent down to you the Book; in it are verses basic or fundamental (of established meaning); they are the foundation of the Book: others are not of well-established meaning. But those in whose hearts is perversity follow the part thereof that is not of well-established meaning. Seeking discord and searching for its hidden meanings, but no one knows its true meanings except Allah. And those who are firmly grounded in knowledge say: "We believe in the Book; the whole of it is from our Lord:" and none will grasp the Message except men of understanding." (Al Imran 7) Then, he said: "O A'ishah! If you (Muslims) see such as dispute over this (Qur'an in search for averting the fundamental Holy Statements of well-established meaning with those that are not fundamental), (you should know that) they are those whom Allah Almighty points out. So, you should take heed of them (i.e. you should not be in contact with them)."

48- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No people had been led astray after the right guidance in which they were, but that they would be given to disputation (and pointless arguments)." Then, he "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited the following Holy Statement: "And they say: "Are our gods best, or he?" This they set forth to you, only by way of disputation: yea, they are a contentious people." (Az-Zukhruf 58)

49- It is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah accepts from such as makes an innovation (which has no foundation in Allah's Book and the sunnah of His Prophet, no deed, i.e.) no fasting, nor prayer, nor charity, nor Hajj, nor Umrah, nor Jihad, nor repentance (from sins other than his innovation) nor ransom: he comes out of Islam just as a hair comes out of the dough."

50- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah would hardly accept the deed of such as makes an innovation (in Islam), until he leaves his innovation (no matter righteous his deed which he does before leaving it might be)."

51- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who leaves telling lies, seeing that he is on falsehood, a palace in one side of the Garden will be constructed for him; and he, who leaves argument (with others) even though he is on the right, the same will be built for him in the middle part of the Garden; and he who makes good his conduct, the same will be established for him in the highest portion of the Garden."

[8] One Should Keep Away From (Depending Upon Individual) Opinions, And Making Analogies

52- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As: I heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Allah does not take away the knowledge, by taking it away from (the hearts of) the people. But he takes it away by causing the religious learned men to die. When none of them remains, people will take as their leaders ignorant persons who, when consulted, will give their verdict without knowledge. So they will go astray and will cause people to go astray."

53- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who is given a religious verdict (from another without knowledge, because of which the former falls into error), the sin thereof is then laid upon the one who gives him such a verdict."

54- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The discipline (of religion) depends upon three (items), and what is beyond that is surplus (knowledge, of which it is not necessary for everyone to have full acquaintance): a Holy Fundamental Verse of well-established meaning; a standing tradition; and an obligation (taken from both) with which justice is established."

55- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adh Ibn Jabal: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me to Yemen (as governor in common with Abu Musa), he said to me: "Make no judgements nor decisions but in accordance with what you know (from Allah's Book and the sunnah of His Prophet); and if you fall into confusion about anything, take no action until you send to me a letter pertaining to it."

56- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Al-As: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "The matter of the children of Israel (concerning the religion) remained straight until there appeared among them those born from the slave-girls (captured from the other nations which they invaded), who depended upon their opinions (in religious verdicts) thereupon they went astray, and further led others astray."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah, through a different chain of transmission.

58- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father (Ibn Umar) that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard somebody having blamed his brother for (his sticking to) pious shyness (and urged him to abandon it), thereupon he said: "NO doubt, pious shyness is a part of faith (so do not ask him to leave it)."

59- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No one in whose heart there is (as little as) a mustard atom's weight of arrogance will be admitted to the Garden; and no one, in whose heart there is (as little as) a mustard atom's weight of pious shyness will be admitted to the fire (of Hell)."

60- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When Allah Almighty will have delivered the faithful believers from the fire (of Hell), from which they will have become secure, anyone of you has no stronger argument while he is on the right in this world with his companion than they will have by then with their Lord, concerning their (disobedient) brothers, who will still be in the fire. They will say: "O Lord! Those are our brothers, who used to offer prayers with us, observe fasts with us, and perform Hajj with us, and (in spite of that) You have admitted them to the fire (of Hell)." Allah will say: "Go and take out (of Hell) whomever you recognize of them." They will come and recognize them by their faces, since the fire will never eat up faces.

From amongst those (in the fire), there will be such as burnt by the fire to the half of his legs, and such as burnt to his heels. They will then bring them out (of the fire). They will say: "O Lord! We brought out (of the fire) such as you commanded us to take out." He will say: "(Go and) take out (of the fire) such as has faith in his heart equal in weight to a Dinar, then to half a Dinar, then to a mustard seed." Abu Sa'id said: If you do not believe me

61- It is narrated on the authority of Jundub Ibn Abdullah that he said: We were in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", since we grew youths (approaching the age of puberty); and we (absorbed and) comprehended faith (from him) before we learnt the Qur'an; and when we learnt the Qur'an, we came to increase in faith with the help of it.

62- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are two groups (of men) in this (Muslim) nation, who will have no (good) portion in (the faith, i.e. in) Islam: those who are of the opinion that the punishment for disobedience is deferred (by Allah); and those who reject the (essential role and effect of the) Fate."

63- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar who transmitted from Umar Ibn Al-Khattab: One day we were with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when there appeared before us a man, wearing very white clothes, having very deep black hair, on whom, there were no traces of travel. Furthermore, none amongst us recognized him. He sat with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (sat in front of him and) placed his knees on his and his palms on his thighs and said: "O Muhammad, tell me what is Islam." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Islam is to testify that there is no god but Allah and that I'm the Messenger of Allah, to establish the (obligatory) prayer, pay the regular charity, observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan, and perform pilgrimage to the House (i.e. Ka'bah) in case you are able to do." He said: "You have told the truth." However, we were astonished that he raised the question and, at the same time, confirmed that it (the answer) was true. He said: "Tell me what faith is." He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers, The Day of Judgment, and the Fate (resulting from the Divine Decree) no matter good or evil it might be." He said: "You are true." Then, He said: "Tell me what faithfulness is." He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him. However, though you don't really see Him, (you should put in mind that) He sees you."

He said: "Tell me about The Doomed hour." He (The Prophet) commented: "The one who was asked has no better knowledge than the one who asked." He said: "Tell me some of its portents." He (The Prophet) answered: "(Some of its portents are): That the slave-girl will give birth to her mistress (i.e., according to the interpretation of Waki, that the non-Arab (female captive) would give birth to Arab children (from her master, who would be free like their father)), that you will find barefooted, destitute goat herds (so much wealthy that they will be) competing one another in constructing the great high buildings." Then he (the stranger) went on his way. Three (days) later, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met me and said to me: "O Umar, do you know who this asker was?" I replied: "Allah and His Messenger know best." He commented: "He was Gabriel, who came in order to teach you the matters of your religion."

64- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: One day the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appeared before the people, when a man came and asked him: "O Prophet of Allah! What is faith?" He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His meeting, His Messengers, and in the Resurrection of the hereafter." He asked (once again): "O Messenger of Allah! What is Islam?" He (The Prophet) answered: "Islam is to worship Allah and not associate anything with Him, to establish the obligatory prayers, to pay the obligatory charity, and to observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan." He asked: "O Messenger of Allah! What is faithfulness?" He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him. Indeed, if you are unable to (feel that you) see Him, you should put in mind that He sees you." He asked: "O Messenger of Allah! When would the doomed hour be?" He (The Prophet) replied: "The one who was asked has no better knowledge of it than the inquirer. But, I'm going to tell you some of its portents: When the slave-girl would give birth to her mistress, this is one of its portents. When the shepherds of the sheep would compete in (constructing the huge) high buildings, this is one of its portents. (The Hour) is one of the five (unseen events) which no one knows but Allah." Then he (The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") recited (Allah's saying): "Verily the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah (alone). It is He Who knows rain, and He Who knows what is in the wombs. Nor does any one know what it is that he will earn on the morrow: nor does any one know in what land he is to die. Verily with Allah is full knowledge and He is acquainted (with all things)." (Luqman 34)

65- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Al-Husain from his father from Ali Ibn Abu Talib: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The belief is to affirm faith by the heart; to say by the tongue (that there is no god to be worshipped by Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah); and to do deeds by the organs (such as to offer the prayer, observe the fasts (of Ramadan), fulfill the Zakat, perform Hajj if it is possible)."

66- It is narrated on the authority of Anas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you have his faith (complete) until he loves for his brother (or he said for his neighbour) whatever (good) he loves for his own self."

67- It is narrated on the authority of Anas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None of you have his faith (complete) unless I become much dearer to him than his son, father, and all of the people."

You have no claim to be admitted to the Garden until you have your faith (complete); and you will have no (complete) faith until you love one another. Should I not guide you to a thing, which if you do, you will love one another? Make peace widespread among you." (This means to greet one another with peace.)

Anas commented: This is the (true) religion of Allah (i.e. Islam, other than which He never accepts), which was brought and conveyed by all the Messengers from their Lord, before the arguments grew larger (and the people fell into disputation and confusion over the religion) resulting from the various lusts (and tendencies of the different peoples). Allah sends an angel who is ordered to write four things. He is ordered to write down his deeds, his livelihood, his (time of) death, and whether he will be blessed or wretched (in religion). Then the soul is breathed into him. So, a man amongst you may do (good) deeds till there is only a cubit between him and Paradise and then what has been written for him decides his behaviour and he starts doing (evil) deeds characteristic of the people of the (Hell) Fire, to which he will be admitted. Similarly a man amongst you may do (evil) deeds till there is only a cubit between him and the (Hell) Fire, and then what has been written for him decides his behaviour, and he starts doing (good) deeds characteristic of the people of Paradise, to which he will be admitted."

77- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Ad-Dailami: I fell into confusion about what is (said) pertaining to this (rejection of) Fate, and I felt afraid this (suspicion) would spoil my faith. I went to Ubai Ibn Ka'b and said to him: "O Abu Al-Mundhir! I fell into confusion about what is (said) pertaining to this (rejection of) Fate; and I felt afraid this might have a negative effect on my faith. So, relate to me a narration in this respect, perchance Allah would make it a source of benefit to me." On that, he said: "If Allah Almighty punished all the inhabitants of both His heavens and earth, He, indeed, would (have claim to do so, which they deserve, and thus He would) not be unjust to them (even in the least); and if He bestowed His Mercy upon them, this would be much better for them than their deeds. Therefore, if you have as much gold as (is equal to the mountain of) Uhud, (or as much money as is equal to the mountain of Uhud) to spend in the Cause of Allah, it would not be accepted from you until you have faith in the Fate (resulting from the Divine Decree), and you become certainly sure of the fact that what befalls you is not to fail to befall you; and what fails to befall you is not to befall you; and that if you die while believing in something else, you would be admitted to the fire (of Hell). There is no blame on you if you go to my brother Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud in order to ask him about that." When I went to him (and asked him) he mentioned to me the same as Ubai had said, and added: "There is no harm on you to go to Hudhaifah." I went to Hudhaifah and asked him, and he said to me the same, adding: "Go to Zaid Ibn Thabit and ask him about that."

I went to Zaid Ibn Thabit and asked him, thereupon he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "If Allah Almighty punished all the inhabitants of both His heavens and the earth, He, indeed, would (have claim to do so, which they deserve, and thus He would) not be unjust to them (even in the least); and if He bestowed His

78- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib: We were sitting with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "There is none among you, but has a place either in Paradise or in Hell assigned to him." We said: "O Allah's Apostle! Should we not depend on what has been written for us and leave the deeds?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do (good deeds); for everyone is directed to find it easy (to do) what leads him to his destiny." Then he recited the Verses: "So he who gives (in Charity) and fears (Allah), And (in all sincerity) testifies to the Best, We will indeed make smooth for him the path to Bliss. But he who is a greedy miser and thinks himself Self-Sufficient, And gives the lie to the Best, We will indeed make smooth for him the Path to Misery." (Al-Lail 5:10)

79- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A strong believer (who has power to do the deeds of goodness and patiently persevere on whatever trials and distresses to which he might be put) is better and much dearer to Allah than a weak believer, though there is goodness in everyone. Moreover, appreciate that which gives you benefit (in the Hereafter) and seek help from Allah and do not lose heart, and if any (trouble) comes to you, don't say: Had I not done that, it would not have been so and so, but say: Allah has done what He had ordained to do, for your (utterance of) "if" opens the (door) for Satan to do."

80- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There was argument between Adam and Moses. Moses said to Adam: You are our father. You disappointed us, and caused us to get out of Paradise. Adam said to him: You are Moses. Allah selected you (to talk direct to you) and wrote with His own Hand the Book (of Torah) for you. but, in spite of this, you blame me for an act which Allah had ordained for me forty years before He created me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "In this way, Adam's argument was better than that of Moses;

I said: "O Messenger of Allah, blessed be this (child) since he is one of the birds of Paradise for he neither has committed any sin, nor has he attained the age when one could be sinful." He said: "O A'ishah! It may be otherwise, because Allah has created for Paradise those who are fitting for it: He has created them for it since they were in their fathers' loins, and He created for Hell those who are fitting for it: He has created them for it since they were in their fathers' loins."

A Bedouin stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! What do you think about a mangy camel which makes mangy all the camels (when it mixes with them)?" [11] The Merits Of The Companions Of The Messenger Of Allah

[*] The Superiority Of Abu Bakr As-Siddiq "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

93- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! I declare myself free from the loving-friendship of (him who claims I've taken him as) a loving-friend; and had I been to take a loving-friend (from amongst the people), surely, I would have taken Abu Bakr as my loving-friend. Verily, your companion (the Prophet) is the Bosom Friend of Allah Almighty." (i.e. that Allah Almighty has taken him as His Loving-Friend, the same as Abraham.) Waki said: He meant himself.

94- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No property (of anyone of you) has been of better benefit to me than the property of Abu Bakr." On that Abu Bakr wept and said: "Are my own soul and my property but (to be sacrificed) for you, O Messenger of Allah?"

95- It is narrated on the authority of Ali (Ibn Abu Talib): The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Abu Bakr and Umar will be the chiefs of the men of the inhabitants of the Garden, including the first as well as the last generations, barring the Prophets and Messengers. Do not tell them, O Ali, as long as they are alive."

96- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, the men of the highest degrees (in the Garden) will be seen by such as below them in the same way as a shining star in one of the horizons of the sky is seen (by the inhabitants of the earth); and indeed, Abu Bakr and Umar belong to those (of the highest degrees); and they are more fitting for that!"

97- It is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah Ibn Al-Yaman: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I do not know how long I will stay among you (before death overtakes me). So, you should follow the steps of those (who will be my successors) after me." He pointed to Abu Bakr and Umar.

I turned behind, and behold! It was Ali Ibn Abu Talib! He asked for Allah's Mercy on him, and then said: "You have not left behind you a person, the like of whose deeds I wish to meet Allah with more than yours. By Allah! I always hoped that Allah will keep you with your two companions, for I often heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "I, Abu Bakr and Umar were (somewhere). I, Abu Bakr and Umar did (something). I, Abu Bakr and Umar set out." So I hoped that Allah will keep you with both of them."

99- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: Once, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out, (walking) between Abu Bakr and Umar. Then he said: "In such (a state of companionship) we will be raised (from dead on the Day of Judgement)."

103- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: When Umar embraced Islam, Gabriel descended (and came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") and said: "O Muhammad! No doubt, the inhabitants of the heaven rejoiced at Umar's conversion into Islam."

104- It is narrated on the authority of Ubai Ibn Ka'b: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Umar is the first with whom the truth shakes hand (i.e. he is the first of the companions, to whom the truth is inspired, and is manifest on his tongue); and he is the first whom it greets; and he is the first of whose hand it will take hold in order to admit to the Garden" (i.e. because of his being helped reach such a truth, he will be admitted to the Garden).

105- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Allah! make Islam stronger with (the help of) Umar Ibn Al-Khattab in particular!"

106- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Salamah: I heard Ali having said: "The best of people after the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is Abu Bakr; and the best of people after Abu Bakr is Umar."

107- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: While we were in the company of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he said: "While I was asleep, I saw myself in Paradise therein I beheld a woman performing ablution beside a palace. I asked: "To whom does this palace belong?" They said: "To Umar Ibn Al-Khattab." Then I remembered Umar's jealousy (concerning women), and so I quickly went away from that palace." (When Umar heard this from The Prophet), he wept and said: "Let my father be sacrificed for you (O Messenger of Allah)! Do you think it is likely that I feel jealous because of you, O Allah's Apostle?"

108- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr: I heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Verily, Allah has made the truth manifest on the tongue of Umar, with which he speaks."

[*] The Superiority Of Uthman "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

109- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "For every Prophet there is a companion in the Garden; and my companion therein will be Uthman Ibn Affan."

Comment: (This does not stand against the fact that such companions as Abu Bakr and Umar will be his nearest companions in the Garden, as well as they were in the world. But it seems the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made here a mention of Uthman in particular because he was his son-in-law. It is well-known that Uthman got married to Ruqayyah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and when she died in the year of the holy battle of Badr, he got married to Umm Kulthum. For this reason, the following Statement applies to him: "Gardens of perpetual bliss: they shall enter there, as well as the righteous among their fathers, their spouses, and their offspring." (Ar-Ra'd 23)

110- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met Uthman at the gate of the mosque, and said to him: "O Uthman! Allah Almighty has given you Umm Kulthum in marriage with a dower equal to that of Ruqayyah, and with the same (marital) companionship."

111- It is narrated on the authority of Ka'b Ibn Ujrah: (One Day) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made a mention of a would-be affliction, (telling that its coming is) close in time. Then, a man whose head was covered (by his garment) passed by, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This (passer-by) will be on the right guidance on that day (the affliction would happen)." I jumped up and caught hold of both arms of Uthman, and then I turned my face to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked: "Is it this (whom you mean)?" he answered in the affirmative.

112- It is narrated on the authority of An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir that A'ishah said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Uthman: "O Uthman! If Allah Almighty makes you ruler one day (over the Muslims), and the hypocrites press upon you to take off the shirt (of ruling) which Allah would dress you, do not take it off." I asked her: "Then, what prevented you to mention that (at the time of the affliction which led to the killing of Uthman)?" she said: "I was made to forget it."

113- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: During his fatal illness, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would that one of my companions is with me!" we said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would we invite Abu Bakr to you?" he kept silent. We said: "Would we invite Umar to you?" he kept silent. We said: "Would we invite Uthman to you?" he answered in the affirmative. When he (Uthman) came, he (The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") sat with him alone; and while the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was talking to him, (the colour of) Uthman's face changed. Qais told that Abu Sahlah, the freed slave of Uthman related to him that Uthman said on the day (he was besieged in his) house: "No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" confided me to do a thing, (i.e. to keep patient, and not to fight such as fight me) on which I'm going to be" (or "against which I will patiently persevere" according to the narration of Ali.) Qais said: Those (endued with knowledge) think this (which he meant) referred to that day (on which he was murdered).

[*] The Superiority Of Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

114- It is narrated on the authority of Zirr Ibn Hubaish that Ali said: "The unlettered Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told me that none but a faithful believer loves me; and none but a hypocrite hates me."

115- It is narrated on the authority of Ibrahim Ibn Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas from his father that he heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying to Ali: "Are you not satisfied to be from me in the same position as Aaron was from Moses?"

Comment: (He "Peace be upon him" said that to Ali when he asked him to be his successor in Medina during the holy battle of Tabuk. According to Ibn Ishaq, the hypocrites alleged that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not like to have Ali take part in the battle, thereupon Ali joined him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Do you make me your successor just to guard women and offspring?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Are you not satisfied to be from me in the same position as Aaron was from Moses, with the difference that there will be no Prophet after me?" the Prophet refers here to the time, when Moses made his brother Aaron his successor during the period of his journey to meet his Lord. But this does not mean that Ali should be the successor of the Prophet pertaining to ruling after his death, knowing that Aaron was not Moses's successor for he died during the lifetime of Moses.)

116- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib: We came in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the (Farewell) Hajj, which he offered; and (during the journey), he encamped at a certain place on the way (to Mecca). Then, he ordered that the congregational prayer should be established. He caught hold of the hand of Ali and said: "Am I not much closer to the faithful believers than themselves?" they answered in the affirmative. He asked: "Am I not much closer to every faithful believer than his own self?" they answered in the affirmative. On that he said: "Then, this (Ali) is the friend of such as loves me! O Allah! Be a Friend to (and love) such as (loves and) takes him (Ali) for friend! O Allah! Be an Enemy to such as (hates and) takes him (Ali) for enemy!"

117- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila: Abu Laila used to have night talks with Ali (Ibn Abu Talib), who had the

(When he asked him) he said: "On the day of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent (somebody to invite) me; and I had eye trouble. (When I went to him) I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have eye trouble!" thereupon, he spat in my eye, and then said: "O Allah! Remove from him (the evil effect of) both heat and cold!" indeed, since then, I've never suffered (the severity of) heat or cold." He (The Messenger of Allah) further said: "I'm going to send a man (and give him the flag to undertake the conquest), who loves Allah and His Messenger as well as Allah and His Messenger love him; who never flees away (from the battlefield)." So, the people looked forward to get that (honour); and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent to Ali, and gave him the flag (as the leader of the battle).

118- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both Al-Hasan and Al-Husain will be the chiefs of the youths of the Garden; and their father (Ali) will be better than them."

119- It is narrated on the authority of Hubshi Ibn Jinadah that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "No doubt, Ali is from me, as well as I'm from him (concerning the blood relation between them); and none barring Ali (has the claim to) fulfill (my obligations towards others) on behalf of me."

120- It is narrated on the authority of Abbad Ibn Abdullah: Ali (Ibn Abu Talib) said: "I'm a (sincere) worshipper of Allah (Almighty); and I'm a brother (in the religion) to His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I'm further the one who hastened to trust (the truth, whose embracing Islam was) older (than anyone of men); and none but a liar has the same claim after me: I offered the prayer (behind the Messenger of Allah) seven years earlier than the people."

Comment: (In addition to his being the first to embrace Islam, he was no more than seven years old when he was converted to Islam, and it was not before the age of puberty that his contemporaries from amongst the companions embraced Islam. In this way, Ali offered prayer for seven years more than them.)

121- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Sabit: Abd Ar-Rahman from Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas: Mu'awiyah (Ibn Abu Sufyan) came (to Medina) in one of his pilgrimages; and Sa'd went to visit him. They made a mention of Ali, thereupon he (Mu'awiyah) insulted him. On that Sa'd grew very angry and said: "How do you say that of a man, in connection with whom I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who (loves me , and) takes me for friend, should be sure to (love and) take Ali for friend"; I heard him also having said: "You are from me in the same position as Aaron was from Moses, except that there will be no Prophet after me"; and I further heard him having said: "I'm going to give the flag (of the battle of Khaibar) this day to a man who loves Allah and His Messenger.""

[*] The Superiority Of Az-Zubair "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

122- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, on the day of the battle of Quraizhah: "Who will bring me the information about the enemy?" Az-Zubair said: "I will do." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said again: "Who will bring me the information about the enemy?" Az-Zubair said again: "I will do." He said it thrice. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every Prophet has a disciple; and my disciple is Az-Zubair. "

123- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair from Az-Zubair that he said: "On the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" combined both his parents for me" (i.e. he invoked: "Let my parents be sacrificed for you!").

124- It is narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwah from his father: A'ishah said: "O Urwah! Your fathers: Az-Zubair and Abu Bakr (his father-in-law) were "Of those who answered the call of Allah and the Messenger, even after being wounded, (those who do right and refrain from wrong have a great reward)."

[*] The Merits Of Talhah Ibn Ubaidullah "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

125- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir: When Talhah came upon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he said (pointing to him): "(This is) a martyr, walking on the surface of the earth."

Comment: (It is said that this was an item of prediction made by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of the unseen; and of course, Talhah was martyred in the battle of Siffin. It is also said that the severe distresses to which he was put, and the grievous pains

126- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'awiyah Ibn Abu Sufyan: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" caught a glimpse of Talhah Ibn Ubaidullah and then said: "This (man) is of such as fulfilled their vows (and decided to sacrifice their lives in the Cause of Allah)."

127- It is narrated on the authority of Musa Ibn Talhah: We were sitting with Mu'awiyah when he said: I bear witness that I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Talhah is of such as fulfilled their vows (and decided to sacrifice their lives in the Cause of Allah)."

128- It is narrated on the authority of Qais: I saw the hand of Talhah paralyzed (because of the severe injuries it received, since he used it as a shield) with which he protected the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud."

Comment: (It is said that he made of his whole body a shield, to defend the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on that day, and he himself said about that: "On that day, I received injuries in all parts of my body, and even in my penis.")

[*] The Merits Of Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

129- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that he said: I've never seen Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having sacrificed (in invocation) his parents for anyone other than Sa'd Ibn Malik: on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, he said to him: "Shoot (the infidels with arrows) O Sa'd, let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!"

Comment: (This does not mean that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not do the same for anyone else, since we saw that he did the same for Az-Zubair; but Ali seemed to have attended only the occasion on which he had done that for Sa'd.)

130- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab: I heard Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas having said: "On the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sacrificed (in invocation) both his parents for me: he said: "Shoot (the infidels) O Sa'd, let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!"

131- It is narrated on the authority of Qais: I heard Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas having said: "I was the first from amongst the (Muslim) Arabs to shoot an arrow in the Cause of Allah."

Comment: (It is well-known that Sa'd was included in the first detachment consisting of sixty Emigrants, under the leadership of Ubaidah Ibn Al-Harith, to be sent to fight the pagans led by Abu Sufyan in the first year of Hegira; and although there was no fight between both parties, Sa'd shot an arrow towards them; and thus it was the first arrow to be shot in Islam.)

132- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab: Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas said: "Nobody embraced Islam on the very day I embraced Islam; and I spent seven days, during which I constituted one-third the Muslims" (from amongst the free men, who did not hide their faith, i.e. the Prophet and Abu Bakr. It is well-established that he was the seventh of seven Muslims including men and women.)

[*] The Merits Of The Ten (Who Were Given The Glad Tidings Of Being Admitted To The Garden) "Allah Be Pleased With Them"

133- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Zaid Ibn Amr Ibn Nufail: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was the tenth of ten people (who received the happy news of being admitted to the Garden). He said: "Abu Bakr will be in the Garden; Umar will be in the Garden; Uthman will be in the Garden; Ali will be in the Garden; Talhah will be in the Garden; Az-Zubair will be in the Garden; Sa'd will be in the Garden; Abd Ar-Rahman (Ibn Awf) will be in the Garden." He was asked: "Who is the ninth?" he said: "It is I."

134- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Zaid: I bear witness that I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Keep firm O (mountain of) Hira', for there is none on you but a Prophet, a truly believer (who hastens to trust the truth sent by the Messenger), and a martyr!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" counted them as follows: Abu Bakr, Umar, Uthman, Ali, Talhah, Az-Zubair, Sa'd, Ibn Awf, and Zaid Ibn Sa'id.

[*] The Merits Of Abu Ubaidah Ibn Al-Jarrah "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

[*] The Merits Of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

137- It is narrated on the authority of Ali: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had I to appoint somebody as my successor (to lead an army or to take care of the affairs of the Muslims) without consulting (anyone pertaining to the appointment), surely, I would have appointed Ibn Umm Abd (the nickname of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud)."

138- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that both Abu Bakr and Umar gave him the glad tidings of the statement of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Whoever likes to recite the Qur'an as if it has just now been revealed (with no change in recitation), let him recite it in the same way of Ibn Umm Abd" (which complied with the way of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him").

139- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "The permission for you to be admitted to my house is just to lift the curtains and hear my private speech (to my Lord, which affirms my presence in the house) unless I forbid you."

Comment: (This means he needed no permission to be admitted to the Prophet, provided there was nothing in the house unlawful for him to see, such as the Prophet's women)

[*] The Merits Of Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

140- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib: It was the habit that whenever we (the family of the Messenger of Allah) came upon a group of the Quraish, engaged in talks, they would stop talking (out of showing desertion to us). We made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "What is the matter with such people as whenever they saw one of my family, and they were engaged in talks, they would stop from talking (out of showing enmity to him)? By Allah! The faith would not enter into the

And if anyone earns any good, We shall give him an increase of good in respect thereof: for Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Ready to appreciate (service)." (Ash-Shura 23))

141- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah has taken me for Bosom Friend, in the same way as He had taken Abraham for Bosom Friend. On the Day of Judgement, my house and the house of Abraham in the Garden will be facing one another; and Al-Abbas will be (standing) between us, as a faithful believer between two Bosom Friends."

[*] The Superiority Of Al-Hasan And Al-Husain, Sons Of Ali Ibn Abu Talib "Allah Be Pleased With Them"

142- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said concerning Al-Hasan: "O Allah! I love him, so (please) love him, and love such as loves him." Then, he embraced him to his breast."

143- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever loves both Al-Hasan and Al-Husain indeed loves me; and whoever hates them indeed hates me."

Comment: (This affirms the fact that it is incumbent upon every Muslim to love them, in view of the blood relation they had with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", otherwise one's faith will be incomplete. But: does that apply also to their offspring? There is no unanimous and decisive answer)

144- It is narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Murrah: Once, we set out in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in response to an invitation to a banquet and behold! Al-Husain was playing on the way! the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came ahead of the people and started stretching his hand (towards him to embrace him), and the boy started fleeing there and here and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was laughing with him, until he succeeded to embrace him: he made one of his hands beneath his chin, and the other in the back of his head. He kissed him and then said: "No doubt, Husain is from me as well as I'm from

(...) A Hadith like this is narrated on the authority of Sufyan, through a different chain of transmitters.

145- It is narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Arqam: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Ali, Fatimah, Al-Hasan and Al-Husain: "I make peace with whomever you make peace with, and I wage war against whomever you wage war against."

[*] The Merits Of Ammar Ibn Yasir "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

146- It is narrated on the authority of Ali: Once, I was sitting in the house of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when Ammar Ibn Yasir asked permission to be admitted; and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him permission and said (concerning him): "Welcome to the good (righteous one) who is made to be advanced in goodness (and righteousness by his knowledge of Allah's Book and the sunnah of His Prophet)!"

147- It is narrated on the authority of Hani' Ibn Hani': Once, Ammar entered into Ali, who said to him: "Welcome to the good (righteous one) who is made to be advanced in goodness (and righteousness by his knowledge of Allah's Book and the sunnah of His Prophet)! No doubt, Ammar has been filled with faith (so much that it has reached) his joints." (I.e. the effects of faith were visible on both his nature and stature.)

148- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Never two things have been offered to Ammar (to choose one of them) but that he would choose the one which is better in guidance."

[*] The Merits Of Salman, Abu Dharr And Al-Miqdad "Allah Be Pleased With Them"

149- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buraidah from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, Allah has exhorted me (and consequently all the faithful believers) to love four men; and told me that He loves them." It was said: "Who are they O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Ali is one of them!" he said it thrice and then resumed: "and further Abu Dharr, Salman and Al-Miqdad!"

[*] The Merits Of Bilal "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

150- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud: The first to make public their conversion into Islam were seven: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abu Bakr, Ammar and his mother Sumayyah, Suhaib, Al-Miqdad and Bilal. As to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he was protected (from the evil of the infidels) by Allah Almighty through Abu Talib, his paternal uncle; and as to Abu Bakr, he was protected by Allah through his clan. In regard to the other (five), they were seized (by the Quraish), and dressed the iron armours, and thrown to (receive the scorching heat of) the sun (which melted their skin and fat), and there was none of them but that he (was forced under compulsion of torment to) submit to what they wanted from him (i.e. to declare his disbelief in Allah and His Messenger), barring Bilal, who felt his own soul too insignificant to sacrifice in (the religion of) Allah; and he was regarded as insignificant by his people, who, in turn, seized him, and handed him to the young boys, who circumambulated with him in the paths of Mecca, while he was uttering: "(Allah the) One and Only! (Allah the) One and Only!"

151- It is narrated on the authority of Anas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, I received harm (from the infidels) in (the religion of) Allah so much that none has ever received; and I've been frightened in (the religion of) Allah so much that none has ever been; and three (nights) came upon me, during which I and Bilal had no food to be eaten by a living being (to sustain him) except what was kept under Bilal's armpit."

Comment: (This event was when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out from Mecca in the company of Bilal in flight from the evil plots of the infidels and pagans of Quraish; and during this journey, they were frightened so much; and they had no food to sustain them other than what Bilal had carried and hidden under his armpit.)

152- It is narrated on the authority of Salim that once, a poet praised Bilal Ibn Abdullah (Ibn Umar), and said: "Bilal Ibn Abdullah is the best of (those who are named) Bilal!" thereupon Ibn Umar said to him: "You've told a lie, since Bilal (the Mu'adhdhin) of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is the best of (those having the name of) Bilal!"

[*] The Superiority Of Zaid Ibn Thabit "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

154- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Abu Bakr is The most merciful from amongst my (Muslim) nation towards (the people of) my nation; Umar is the strongest from amongst them in (defense of the rules and principles of) Allah's religion; Uthman is the truest of modesty, self-respect and pious shyness (from committing religious indiscretions); Ali Ibn Abu Talib is the most fitting for judgement among them; Ubai Ibn Ka'b is the best of them all to recite Allah's Book; Mu'adh Ibn Jabal is the most knowledgeable among them of what is lawful and what is unlawful; and Zaid Ibn Thabit has the best acquaintance of duties and obligations. Behold! For every nation there is a trustworthy; and Abu Ubaidah Ibn Al-Jarrah is the Trustworthy of this (Muslim) nation."

155- The like of it is narrated on the authority of Abu Qilabah, with a slight variation of wording.

[*] The Superiority Of Abu Dharr "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

156- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "The earth has never carried a man, nor has the sky shaded (a person) much truer of speech than Abu Dharr."

[*] The Merits Of Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh

He said: "By Him, in Whose Hand is my soul! No doubt, the handkerchiefs of Sa'd Ibn Mu'adh in the Garden are much better than that."

[*] The Merits Of Jarir Ibn Abdullah Al-Bajali "Allah Be Pleased With Him"

159- It is narrated on the authority of Jarir Ibn Abdullah Al-Bajali that he said: Never did the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prevent me permission to be admitted to him (whenever I asked for his permission); and never did he see me but that he would smile in my face. Once, I complained to him that I could hardly sit firm on horses, thereupon he struck with my hand in my chest, and then said (invoking): "O Allah! Make him firm; and make him a guide, and a rightly-guided one!"

[*] The Merits Of The Men Of Badr

160- It is narrated on the authority of Abayah Ibn Rifa'ah from his grandfather Rafi' Ibn Khadij: Gabriel or another angel came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked: "How do you regard those who took part in (the holy battle of) Badr among you?" he said: "(They are regarded as) the best of us." On that he (the angel) said: "So are those (angels who took part in the battle) in our sight, the best of angels."

161- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not abuse my companions! By Him, in Whose Hand is my soul! If anyone of you spends (in charity) as much gold as (the mountain of) Uhud, it (the reward thereof) could hardly amount to (that of) a single Mudd or even half (a Mudd to be spent) by anyone of them."

162- It is narrated on the authority of Nusair Ibn Zaghluq: Ibn Umar used to say: "Do not abuse the companions of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", for indeed, an-hour standing of anyone of them (during which he does deeds) is much better than the deeds done by anyone of you for the whole of his lifetime."

[*] The Superiority Of The Ansar (The Helpers Of The Prophet)

163- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who loves the Ansar, Allah loves him; and he who hates the Ansar, Allah hates him." Shu'bah (a sub-narrator) said: I asked Adi Ibn Thabit (who transmitted it

If all the people turn their faces towards a valley or a mountain path, and the Ansar follow another valley, surely, I would follow that of the Ansar; and had it not been for the Migration, I would have been one from amongst the Ansar."

165- It is narrated on the authority of Kathir Ibn Abdullah Ibn Awf from his father from his grandfather: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah's Mercy be upon the Ansar, upon the offspring of the Ansar, and upon the offspring of the offspring of the Ansar!"

[12] Concerning The Khawarij (Religious Secessionists)

167- It is narrated on the authority of Abidah that Ali Ibn Abu Talib said, after he had made a mention of the Khawarij (the Religious Secessionists): "In them, there is a short-handed man (or a man whose hand is defective); and had it not been for fear you would exalt (and feel self-important) I would have told you of the promise made by Allah on the tongue of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to such as fights them." I (the narrator) asked him: "Did you really hear that from Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he said: "Yes, by the Lord of the Ka'bah!" he said it thrice.

168- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Towards the last portion of this time there will appear some young foolish people who will use (in their claim) the best speech of all people (The Qur'an). They will recite the Qur'an, though it will not go beyond their collar-bones (because They will have practically no belief). They will abandon Islam as an arrow goes out through the game. So wherever you meet them, kill them, for he who kills them shall get a reward from Allah."

169- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah: I asked Abu Sa'id: Did you hear the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said anything concerning the Haruriyyah? He said: I heard him having made a mention of people who would be engaged in service so much that their prayer will make anyone of you look down upon his, their fasting will make anyone of you look down upon his, and they will deviate from the religion as an arrow goes out through the game whereupon the archer would examine the arrowhead but see nothing, look at the bow but see nothing, and look at the shaft but see nothing. Finally he would look at the arrow feathers and doubt whether he could find something."

170- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There will appear after me, from amongst my nation a people, who will recite the Qur'an, even though it will not go beyond their throats (since they will have no faith at all). They will go out of the religion just in the same way as an arrow goes out through a game; and they will never return to it: they will be the worst of the creatures." Abdullah Ibn As-Samit (a sub-narrator) said: I made a mention of that narration to Rafi' Ibn Amr, the brother of Al-Hakam Ibn Amr Al-Ghifari, who said: I also heard that from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

171- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Some people of my nation will (appear and they will) recite the Qur'an, even though they will abandon Islam just as an arrow goes through a game."

172- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was at Al-Ji'ranah, distributing some ore (of gold and silver taken as) property, which was in the lap of Bilal, a man came and said: "Do justice O Muhammad, for you have not stuck to justice (in this distribution)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Woe to you! Who could do justice after me if I do not do justice?" Umar said: "O Allah's Apostle! Give me the permission to chop off the head of this hypocrite." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let him, for he has companions who recite the Qur'an but it does not go beyond their collar-bones (because they do not act on it). They will desert Islam as an arrow goes through a game."

173- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the Khawarij (religious Secessionists) will be the dogs of the fire (of Hell)."

174- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There will appear a (group of) youths, who will recite the Qur'an, even though it will not go beyond their collar-bones: the more a generation of them come out, the more they will be cut off." Ibn Umar told: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying the statement: "the more a generation of them will come out, the more they will be cut off" more than twenty times "until the Dajjal will appear in a great multitudes of them (to deceive the people)."

175- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A people will come out in the last portion of this time (or of this nation), who will recite the Qur'an, even though it will not go beyond their collar-bones (or their throats); and the sign with which they will be distinguished is that they would get their heads shave: wherever you see them (or whenever you meet them), kill them."

176- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah that he said: "Those (Khawarij) are the worst to be killed under the umbrella of the sky; and the best to be killed are those (martyrs) killed by these dogs of the fire (of Hell). Verily, they were Muslims, and then they turned to be infidels." I (Abu Ghalib, a sub-narrator) said: "O Abu Umamah! Is this something you say (from your own opinion)?" he said: "Nay! I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said it."

[13] Concerning What Is Rejected By The Jahmiyyah

(a group of people, who differ from these of sunnah in many things relating to the vision and affirming the characteristics (to Allah Almighty); and they belong to Jahm Ibn Safwan of Kufah)

177- It is narrated on the authority of Jarir Ibn Abdullah: We were sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he looked at the moon and it was full moon. Then he said: "No doubt, you will (be able to) see your Lord (on the Day of Judgement), as clear as you are seeing the full moon, with no difficulty in seeing Him. So, if you could, let not yourselves be overpowered (and fail) to offer the (Morning) prayer before the rising of the sun, and the (Asr) prayer before its setting." Then he recited: "and celebrate (constantly) the praises of your Lord, before the rising of the sun, and before its setting." (Qaf: 39)

178- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have any difficulty (or trouble) in seeing the moon on the night it is full moon?" they (the companions) answered in the negative, thereupon he said: "Then, you will have no difficulty (nor trouble) in seeing your Lord on the Day of Judgement."

179- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id: We said: "O Messenger of Allah! Shall we see our Lord (on the Day of Judgement)?" he said: "Do you have any difficulty in seeing the sun at noon (on a clear day) when there is no cloud?" we answered in the negative. He said: "Do you have any trouble in seeing the moon on the night when it is full moon and there is no cloud?" we answered in the negative. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, you will have no trouble in seeing Him (in the hereafter) as well as you have no trouble in seeing both (sun and moon in the world when it is clear)."

180- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Razin: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Shall we see our Lord (in the hereafter)? And what is the sign of that in His creation?" he said: "O Abu Razin! Is it that everyone of you (no matter great in number you might be) could see the moon solely (with none to dispute him)?" I said: "Yes." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah is much Greater; and this is a sign in His creation."

181- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Razin: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Lord smiles because of whatever despair is shown by His servants (resulting from their neediness, poverty, weakness, etc) even though this (state of them) is nigh going to change (into satisfaction, pleasure, independence, etc)." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Does the Lord smile?" he answered in the affirmative, thereupon I commented: "Then, we never fail to expect good from the Lord, Who always smiles (out of bestowing His mercy and Pleasure upon His servants)."

182- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Razin: I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Where had (the Throne of) our Lord been before He created His creation?" he said: "It had been in a cloud (or in nothing according to some interpretations), with no air under it, or above it, and (this was before) His Throne (of Authority) was created upon the water."

183- It is narrated on the authority of Safwan Ibn Muhriz Al-Mazini: While we were in the company of Ibn Umar and he was circumambulating the House, a man came to him and said: "O Ibn Umar! What did you hear from The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (Allah's) private speech (to his servant on the Day of Judgement)?" Ibn Umar said: "I heard The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "The Believer will be brought near his Lord on the Day of Judgement, till He covers him with His screen and makes him confess his sins. (He will be asked): "Do you know (that you did such-and-such sin)?" He will say: "Yes, I know, O Lord." When Allah gets from him what He likes to get, He will say: "I concealed it in the world and I forgive it for you today." Then the record (or the Book) of his good deeds will be given to him (which he will receive) with his right hand. As for the unbeliever or the hypocrite, it will be announced publicly before the witnesses: "They are those who lied against their Lord: Behold! Allah's Curse be upon the wrongdoers!" [Hud: 18].

184- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "While the inhabitants of the Garden are engaged in their pleasure, a Light will shine to them, and when they raise up their heads, behold! He will be the Lord, looking upon from above them! He will say: "Peace be upon you, O inhabitants of the Garden!" this is (the significance of) His saying: ""Peace!" a Word (of salutation) from a Lord Most Merciful!" (Ya Sin 58) He will keep looking at them, and they at Him; and they will not turn (their sights) to whatever pleasure (they have) as long as they are looking at Him until He screens Himself from them, but His Light and Blessing will remain upon them in their residence (in the Garden)."

185- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is none of you but that Allah Almighty will speak to him on the Day of Judgement, without an interpreter between them. He will look to his right, and find nothing more than what he sent forth (in the world); and he will look to his left and find nothing other than what he sent forth; and he will look in front of him, and (find nothing other than) the fire (of Hell) facing him. So, whoever could, let him (ward off evil and) safeguard himself against (the punishment of) Allah by (giving in charity even as little as) half a date."

186- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakr Ibn Abdullah Ibn Qais Al-Ash'ari from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Two gardens, the utensils and the contents of which are of silver, and two other gardens, the utensils and contents of which are of gold. And nothing will prevent the people who will be in the Garden of Eden from seeing their Lord except the Curtain of Majesty over His Face."

187- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila from Suhaib: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited the following Verse: "To those who do right is a goodly (reward)- yea, more (than in measure)!" (Yunus 26) then he said: "When the inhabitants of the Garden enter the Garden, and the denizens of the fire enter the fire, a Caller will announce: "O inhabitants of the Garden! You have a Promise with your Lord, which He likes to fulfill to you!" they will ask: "What is it? Has He not made heavy our weights (of good deeds)? Has He not made bright our faces? Has He not admitted us to the Garden, and delivered us from the fire (of Hell)?" he (the Prophet) said: "Then, He (Allah) will remove the Veil (of Majesty), and they will look at Him.

188- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: "Glory be to Him, Whose Hearing extends over all voices and sounds (of all beings)! By Allah! The pleading woman came to complain to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of her husband, and I was sitting in one side of the chamber, and her speech was hidden from me. Then, Allah Almighty revealed: "Allah has indeed heard (and accepted) the statement of the woman who pleads with you concerning her husband and carries her complaint (in prayer) to Allah: and Allah (always) hears the arguments between both sides among you: for Allah is All-Hearing, All-Seeing." (Al-Mujadilah 1)

189- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Your Lord has enjoined upon Himself (and written in the Preserved Tablet) with His Own Hand even before the whole creation was created: "No doubt, My Mercy precedes My Wrath." (I.e. His Mercy always comes first when He deals with His servants, whatsoever disobedient)

190- It is narrated on the authority of Talhah Ibn Khirash: I heard Jabir Ibn Abdullah having said: When Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Haram (Jabir's father) was killed on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" met me and said: "O Jabir! Would I not tell you what Allah said to your father?" (According to the narration of Yahya, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Jabir! Why do I see you frustrated?" I said: "O Messenger of Allah! My father was martyred, and he left dependents and a debt (that should be paid)." He said: "Would I not tell you with what Allah met your father?") I said: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah (tell me)!" he said: "Never has Allah spoken to anyone (in the world) but from behind a screen; and He spoke direct to your father. He said: "O my servant! Ask for (whatever you like) so that I would give it to you." He said: "O Lord! Bring me to life so that I would be killed in Your Cause once again." The Lord Almighty said: "It has been decreed earlier by Me that to it (the life of world) those (who die) never return." He said: "O Lord! Tell those behind me (from amongst the living, how happy and blessed we are, so that they would be prompted to sacrifice their own souls in Your Cause)." On that Allah revealed: "Think not of those who are slain in Allah's Way as dead. Nay, they live, finding their sustenance in the Presence of their Lord." (Al Imran 169)

191- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah laughs at two men, (though) one of whom kills the other, both of them will enter Paradise. One of them fights in the way of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He", and is killed as a martyr. Then Allah turns in mercy to the murderer who embraces Islam, fights in the way of Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He", and is killed as a martyr."

192- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "On the Day of Judgement, Allah Almighty will take hold of the whole earth, and then roll up the sky with His Right Hand; and He will say: "I'm the (Only) Sovereign! Where are the kings of the earth?"

Comment: (This is the significance of Allah's saying: "on the Day of Judgment the whole of earth will be but His handful, and the heavens will be rolled up in His right hand: Glory to Him. High is He above the partners they attribute to Him." (Az-Zumar 67))

193- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib: I was in Al-Batha' with a group of people, including the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". A cloud came upon him, at which he looked and then he asked: "Which name do you give to that?" they said: "As-Sahab." He said: "Or Al-Muzn!" they said: "Or Al-Muzn." He further said: "Or Al-'Anan!" Abu Bakr (a sub-narrator told that) they said: "Or Al-'Anan (all the three are Arabic equivalents for the cloud)." He then asked: "How far do you think the (first firmament of the) heaven is from you?" they said: "We do not know." He said: "It is as (far as no less than) seventy-one, seventy-two, or seventy-three years; and above the (first firmament of the) heaven, there is a similar distance (which separates it from the second)" until he counted seven firmaments, and then he resumed: "Then, over the seventh firmament, there is an ocean, the distance between its highest and lowest (portions) is (as long as the distance) between two firmaments; and over that, there are eight (angels in the shape of) apexes, the distance between the hoofs and the stirrup of (each of) which is (as long as the distance) between two firmaments; and over their backs, there exists the Throne (of Authority), the distance between its highest and lowest (portions) is (as long as the distance) between two firmaments; and over all of that is Allah "Blessed and Exalted be He"."

Comment: (There are two important points that should be made here: First of all, the number of years mentioned here (seventy-one, seventy-two or seventy-three) is not intended in itself: the main concern is to place a strong stress upon the fact that the distance between the earth and the heaven is too long to perceive, too far to attain by a human being. On the other hand, the concept of measuring distance by years is changeable from time to time according to the fastest thing of movement available at a certain point of time and place: during the ancient times, the horse was the fastest thing, and thus, if they wanted to express how far a distance between two places was, they would measure it by how long it would take a horse to reach it on journey; and in this way, what might be called the year-distance appeared. The year-distance during the ancient times was then the distance that a horse would cover in a year (264384 km) But, the horse no longer became the fastest thing since nearly the 1750s, which necessitated a change in the concept of the year-distance. As to now: what is the fastest thing of movement known to us? Of course, it is the light, which gives rise to what is called the light year, i.e. the distance that the light covers during a whole year (9467280000000 km). this is the longest year according to whatever knowledge is available to us. If you consider the great difference between both numbers, you can imagine the clear change in the concept of the year-distance; and of a surety, it will change in the future in accordance with what will be available to them to know. The best thing to conclude with here is to say that the concept of the year-distance is not firmly constant: it is defined changeably from time to time in accordance with whatever disciplines and sciences are available, which enable people to have knowledge of the fastest thing of movement.)

194- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When Allah ordains some affair in the Heaven, the angels beat with their wings in obedience to His statement, which sounds like a chain dragged over a rock. When terror is removed from their hearts, then they will say: "What is it that your Lord Commanded?" they will say: "That which is true and just; and He is the Most High, Most Great." Then those who gain a hearing by stealing (Devils) will hear Allah's Statement. Those who gain a hearing by stealing, stand one over the other. One of them would hear the statement and convey it to the one below him. A flame may overtake and burn the eavesdropper before conveying the news to the one below him, who would make it manifest on the tongue of the soothsayer or the sorcerer; or it may not overtake him till he has conveyed it to the one below him. He (the sorcerer) would add a hundred lies to it. His prophecy will prove true as far as the heavenly news is concerned."

195- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us with five things. He said: "Allah never sleeps, and it is not fitting for Him to sleep; He lowers and raises the scale (of balance); the night's deeds are raised to Him before those of the day; and the day's deeds are raised to Him before those of the night; and His veil is the light, and had He lifted it, the splendour of His face would have burnt His creatures as far as His sight could reach."

196- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ubaidah from Abu Musa: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah never sleeps, and it is not fitting for Him to sleep; He lowers and raises the scale (of balance); and His veil is the light, and had He uncovered those (Lights), the splendour of His face would have burnt His creatures as far as His sight could reach." Then, Abu Ubaidah recited: "Blessed are those in the Fire and those around: and Glory to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds." (An-Naml 8)

197- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Allah's Hand is full (of treasures of bliss), and (its richness) is not affected by the continuous spending night and day; and in His Other Hand there is the balance (of justice) whereby He raises and lowers (people)." He also said: "Do you see what He has spent since He created the Heavens and the Earth? Nevertheless, what is in His Hand is not decreased."

198- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said while being on the pulpit: "(On the Day of Judgement, Allah) the Compeller will take hold of (the firmaments of) His heaven and earth with His Hand"; and he (The Messenger of Allah) held his hand, and started drawing and stretching it "Then, He (Almighty) will say: "I'm the Compeller! Where are the transgressors? Where are the arrogant ones" Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" bent towards the right and towards the left; and I looked at the pulpit, and I observed that the pulpit was moving from its lowest portion so that I said (to myself): "Would it collapse with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?"

199- It is narrated on the authority of Nawwas Ibn Sam'an Al-Kilabi: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "There is no heart but that it is between two Fingers of those of (Allah) Most gracious: If he wills, He would set it right (on the truth), and if

215- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah has votaries from amongst men." They (the companions) asked: "Who are those O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Those are the people of the Qur'an (who recite it, keep it by heart, understand its meanings, and act upon its principles and rules): they are really Allah's votaries and devotees."

216- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who recites the Qur'an regularly and keeps it by heart (provided that he acts upon its rules), Allah will admit him to the Garden, and accept his intercession for ten of his household, upon whom the fire is binding (because of their sins)."

217- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Learn the Qur'an and recite it regularly (and act upon its principles), and then (there is no blame on you to) sleep: verily, the similitude of the Qur'an in relation to the one who learns it and stands by it (as it should be done) is like the similitude of a leather container filled with musk, whose (pleasant) smell is widely odorous wherever he goes; and the similitude of him who learns it and sleeps while it is in his heart is like the similitude of a leather container tied up on the musk (inside it)."

218- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Wathilah Abu At-Tufail that once, Umar met Nafi Ibn Abd Al-Harith at (the valley of) Usfan, whom Umar had appointed as a governor of Mecca. He asked him: "Whom did you leave as your successor to the people of the valley (of Mecca)?" he said: "Ibn Abza." He asked: "Who is Ibn Abza?" he said: "One of our freed slaves." He said: "Then, did you appoint as your successor a freed slave?" he said: "He is a reciter of Allah's Book, and well aware of the religious obligations." Upon this, Umar said: "Verily, your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah raises up by that Book (i.e. The Qur'an) some people (who well act upon it), and lowers down by it others (who are far from it).""

219- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that Abu Dharr said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "O Abu Dharr! [17] The Excellence Of Religious Scholars, And Exhortation To Seek For Knowledge

220- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If Allah intends to do good to a man, He endows him with (the ability to) comprehend the religious knowledge" (which causes him to ward off evil, fear Allah, safeguard himself from His Punishment, and abstain from the splendor of this life).

221- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'awiyah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The good is the habit (of the faithful believer to which the breast is expanded, and with which the sound mind agrees), and the evil is too strange (to be accepted by heart and mind); and if Allah intends to do good to a man, He grants him (the privilege of) religious comprehension."

222- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Only) one endued with religious comprehension is much more difficult upon Satan (to overpower) than one thousand worshippers."

Comment: (That's because the worshipper strives his utmost to set himself free from the evil plots of Satan, who could come to him from sides which he never expects; and as regards the one endued with the religious comprehension, Allah might release at his hands a lot of servants from the evil plots of Satan.)

223- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Kathir that once, a man came from Medina to Abu Ad-Darda while he was sitting in the mosque of Damascus. He said to him: "O Abu Ad-Darda'! I've come to you from Medina, from the City of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", just for a Hadith I have been informed you narrate from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He asked him: "Has you not come for (any kind of) trade?" the man answered in the negative. He asked: "Has you not come for a certain need (other than this Hadith)?" the man answered in the negative. He asked: "Has you come only to seek after this Hadith?" the man answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "No doubt, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Whoever follows a way through which he seeks for (getting an item of) knowledge (in the world), Allah Almighty will prepare to him in return for it (in the hereafter)

a way to the Garden. Verily, the angels place (or lower) their wings out of their good pleasure with the one who seeks after knowledge. Furthermore, all the inhabitants of the heavens and the earth, and even the fish in the water, ask for Allah's forgiveness for the one of knowledge. Of a surety, the superiority of the man of knowledge to the worshippers is like the superiority of the moon (in its evident shine and apparent beauty as being the nearest to the earth) to all other planets. Indeed, the men of knowledge are the (real) heirs of the Prophets; and to be sure, never did the Prophets leave a Dinar or a Dirham (i.e. a property) to be inherited, but what they left to be inherited was the knowledge: so, whoever sticks to it has, in fact, got an abundant portion (of goodness)."

224- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Seeking after knowledge (of the principles and judgements of the religion, with which one could hardly dispense to undertake what is enjoined upon him) is obligatory for every Muslim (who attains the conditions of enjoinment); and the one who places knowledge with such as not fitting for it is like him who garlands pigs with jewels, pearls and gold."

225- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who alleviates a distress of a brother out of those distresses of the world, Allah would alleviate one of his distresses on the Day of Judgement, and he who conceals (the faults) of a Muslim, Allah would conceal his faults in the world and the Hereafter, and he who relieves one who is hard pressed, Allah would make things easy for him in the world and the Hereafter. Allah is at the back of a servant so long as the servant is at the back of his brother, and he who treads the path in search of knowledge, Allah would make easy therewith a way for him leading to Paradise; and there are no persons who assemble in a house of the houses of Allah (mosques) and recite the Book of Allah and study it among themselves but that the angels surround them, the tranquillity descends upon them and mercy covers them, and Allah makes a mention of them in the presence of those near to Him; and he who is slow-paced in doing good deeds, his (noble) ancestry would not make him precede (others to the Garden in the hereafter)."

226- It is narrated on the authority of Zirr Ibn Hubaish: I came to Safwan Ibn Assal Al-Muradi who asked me: "What led you to come?" I said: "I came in pursuit of knowledge (so that I would afterwards make it widespread among the people)." On that he said: No doubt, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said:

"There is no one who sets out of his house in search for knowledge but that the angels place (or lower) their wings out of their good pleasure with what he does."

227- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who comes to this mosque of mine, and he does not come but for good to learn or teach (in addition to offering the prayer), is, in position, like the fighter in the Cause of Allah; and he, who comes for anything else (barring the prayer) is like such as (enters the market neither to buy nor to sell anything but just to) look at the goods of the people."

228- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You should stick to this knowledge (of religion) before it is taken away, and to take it away is to lift it (by taking away such as endued with knowledge among you)", and he joined both his middle and index fingers as such, (in reference to the way it will happen, and how close in time it will be): "no doubt, both the religious scholar and the learner are partners in the reward; and there is no good in (anyone else of) the people (as long as he is far from religious knowledge)."

229- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out of one of his chambers and went to the mosque, and behold! There were two (groups of) people sitting in two circles: (the members of) one of them were reciting the Qur'an, and invoking Allah; and these (of the other) were learning and teaching. On that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both are on good: those are reciting the Qur'an and invoking Allah, and it is up to Him to give them (what they ask for) if He so likes, or to withhold from them if He so likes; and those (of the other group) are learning (and teaching): no doubt, I was sent as a tutor." So, he sat with them.

[18] Concerning The One Who Conveys Knowledge

230- It is narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Thabit: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah makes bright (the face of) such as hears my statement and conveys it (to those who are absent), for indeed, one might be a carrier of religious knowledge, even though he fails to comprehend it; and a carrier of religious knowledge might convey that to him, who has better comprehension (of religious knowledge) than him." In the narration of Ali Ibn Muhammad, there is the

[20] The Reward Of The One Who Instructs People In Good

239- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ad-Darda': I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Verily, these in the heavens (i.e. the angels) and the inhabitants of the earth, and even the fish in the oceans ask for (Allah's) forgiveness for the religious scholar."

240- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adh Ibn Anas from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who instructs (another an item of) knowledge, will receive the reward of such as acts upon it, without reducing from his (the latter's) reward."

241- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Qatadah from his father: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The best things a man could ever leave after his (death) are three: a righteous child to invoke (Allah) for him; a recurrent (object of) charity, so that its reward would reach him; and a (beneficial portion of) knowledge, upon which it is acted after him."

[21] Concerning such as Hates To Have Others Walk Behind Him

244- It is narrated on the authority of Shu'aib Ibn Abdullah Ibn Amr from his father that he said: "Never was the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seen sitting cross-legged (or reclining against anything) whenever he was eating; and never did (he like to have) two men walk behind him."

Comment: (That's because he did not like to imitate the conduct of the arrogant chiefs and rulers, who used to walk ahead of others: on the contrary, whenever he was in the company of some people, he would walk either behind them to act as a driver of them all, or among them.)

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Hammad Ibn Salamah, through a different chain of transmitters.

245- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was walking towards Baqi Al-Gharqad, and it was on a day, whose heat was very scorching; and the people were walking behind him. When he heard the noise of the (footsteps of the) sandals, he felt it hard upon himself. Thereupon he sat until he made them ahead of him, so that nothing of arrogance might befall him (according to the thought of the narrator, and how far the Prophet was from arrogance!)

[22] The Order To Do Good To These Who Seek After Knowledge

247- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Many people would come to you, seeking after knowledge. If you see them, say to them: "Welcome! Welcome!" in response to the commandment of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Then, you should give them whatever religious verdicts (they ask for)." I (Muhammad Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Rashid Al-Misri) said to Al-Hakam: "What does this mean?" he said: "It is that you should instruct them in knowledge."

248- It is narrated on the authority of Isma'il (Ibn Muslim): We came to visit Al-Hasan in order to enquire about his health (and we became great in number) until we filled the house, thereupon he (Al-Hasan) withdrew his feet (out of showing respect for them) and said: Once, we came to visit Abu Hurairah in order to enquire about his health (and our number increased so much) until we filled the house, thereupon he withdrew his feet and said: Once, we came to visit the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and our number increased) until we filled the house, while he was lying on his side. When he saw us, he withdrew his feet and said: "No doubt, many people would come upon you after my (death), seeking after knowledge: so, you should welcome them, greet them (with peace), and instruct them in knowledge." He (Al-Hasan) commented: "We, by Allah, have come upon people, who neither welcomed us, nor did they greet us, nor did they give us knowledge before we went to them, and they rather deserted us."

249- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Harun Al-Abdi: Whenever we came to Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, he would welcome us in implementation of the commandment of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then say: No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "Verily, the people (from the later generations) are to follow you (in guidance and conduct); and they would come to you from the different sides of the land, to comprehend the religion. If they come to you, you should do good to them."

[23] How To Get Benefit From And Act Upon The Knowledge

Benefit me with whatever (knowledge in which) You instruct me; instruct me in that which is advantageous to me; and advance me in knowledge: and praise be to Allah in all the states."

252- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who learns a (portion of) knowledge, with the help of which Allah's Countenance is sought for, but he learns it only to get a (material) gain in this present life, will not detect the smell of the Garden on the Day of Judgement (since it will be forbidden to him)."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Fulaih Ibn Sulaiman through a different chain of transmitters.

253- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who seeks after knowledge therewith to argue the weak-minded ones, or vie in glory with the religious scholars, or even draw the people's attention towards him, will be admitted to the fire (of Hell)."

254- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not learn knowledge therewith to blow your own horn in front of the religious scholars, or to argue the weak-minded ones, or to get yourselves seated at the lead of gatherings."

255- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There would be, from amongst my nation, some people, who would have knowledge of the religion and recite the Qur'an, therewith they would say: "Let's come to the rulers (and chiefs), perchance we would get (good things) from their world, and keep ourselves from their (faults) with the help of our religion." 262- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: By Allah! Had it not been for two Holy Verses in Allah's Book, surely, I would have narrated nothing from him (The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"). I mean His saying: "Those who conceal the Clear Signs We have sent down, and the Guidance, after we have made it clear for the People in the Book, on them shall be Allah's curse, and the curse of those entitled to curse. Except those who repent and make amends and openly declare (the Truth): to them I turn; for I am Oft-Returning, Most Merciful." (Al-Baqarah 159 :160)

263- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the latter generations of this nation come to curse those of the first generation (because of ignorance resulting from the lack of knowledge), then, (you should know that) whoever conceals a narration (pertaining to the superiority of those belonging to the earlier generation of Islam) has, in fact, concealed what Allah revealed."

264- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who is asked about a (piece of) knowledge, which he conceals, will be reined with a rein of fire on the Day of Judgement."

265- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who conceals a (piece of) knowledge, which Allah makes a source of advantage for the affairs of the people and the matters of the religion, will be reined by Allah with a rein of fire on the Day of Judgement."

266- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who is asked about a (piece of) knowledge, which he conceals, will be reined with a rein of fire on the Day of Judgement."

(1) THE BOOK OF PURIFICATION AND ITS WAYS

[1] The Amount Of Water Required For Offering Ablution And Bathing From Ceremonial Impurity

267- It is narrated on the authority of Safinah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer ablution with a single Mudd (of water, equal to two liters), and take bath with a single Sa (of water, equal to four Mudds).

268- It is narrated on the authority of Safiyyah Bint Shaibah from A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer ablution with a single Mudd (of water), and take bath with a single Sa (of water).

269- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer ablution with a single Mudd (of water), and take bath with a single Sa (of water).

270- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Muhammad Ibn Aqil Ibn Abu Talib from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is sufficient to offer ablution with (no more than) a single Mudd (of water), and to take bath with (no more than) a single Sa." A man said: "Nay! This (quantity) is not sufficient for us!" on that he said: "This (quantity) was sufficient for him, who was better and had more hair than you" i.e. The Prophet.

[2] Allah Never Accepts A Prayer Without Ablution

271- It is narrated on the authority of Usamah Ibn Umair Al-Hudhali: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah never accepts a prayer without (purification and offering) ablution, as well as He never accepts any (object of) charity coming from misappropriation."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Shu'bah, through another chain of transmitters.

272- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah never accepts a prayer unless one (gets himself purified and) offers ablution, as well as He never accepts any (object of) charity coming from misappropriation."

273- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said:

275- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Al-Hanafiyyah from his father: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The key of the prayer is to offer ablution; (the tool of) assuming it (and making unlawful what is impossible to do in it) is the magnification (Takbir); and (the instrument of) finishing it (and making lawful what is impossible to do in it) is the End Salutation (Taslim)."

276- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The key of the prayer is to offer ablution; (the tool of) assuming it (and making unlawful what is impermissible to do in it) is the magnification (Takbir); and (the instrument of) finishing it (and making unlawful what is impossible to do in it) is the End Salutation (Taslim)."

[4] One Should Strictly Guard The Ablution

277- It is narrated on the authority of Thawban: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Adhere to straightness (and righteousness of deeds), even though it is not (within your capacity to do it) to the full (nor to have the entire reward thereof); and you should know that the best of your deeds is the prayer (which you should perform in congregation in its stated fixed time); and none barring a faithful believer could strictly guard the ablution (i.e. offer it whenever he intends to stand for the prayer)."

278- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Stick to straightness (and righteousness of deeds), even though it is not (within your capacity to do it) to the full (nor to have the entire reward thereof); and you should know that the best of your deeds is the prayer (which you should perform in congregation in its stated fixed time); and none barring a faithful believer could strictly guard the ablution (i.e. offer it whenever he intends to stand for the prayer)."

become straight (and righteous)! No doubt, the best of your deeds is the prayer (which you should perform in congregation in its stated fixed time); and none barring a faithful believer could strictly guard the ablution (i.e. offer it when it is due)."

[5] (Offering) Ablution Is Half The Faith

280- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Malik Al-Ash'ari: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Offering ablution perfectly constitutes half the (conditions essential to the validity of the) prayer, (the phrase) "Praise be to Allah" fills one's balance of acts, Glorifying and Magnifying (Allah) fill what is between the sky and the earth, the prayer is a light (which guides one to goodness and favour, and prevents him from doing evil), the charity is an evidence (of one's good faith), the patience (in fasting) is a luminosity and The Holy Qur'an is a proof, whither for you (in case you keep reciting it and acting upon its principles) or against you (in case you abandon it and ignore its principles). Everyone of the people goes in the morning (and seeks for deeds), and sells himself in such a way as either to emancipate it (from torture if he sells it to Allah), or to destroy it (if he sells it to Satan)."

[6] The Reward Of Ablution

281- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you performs ablution perfectly, and goes to the mosque, with no intention but to offer the prayer (in congregation): never he takes a step (towards the mosque) but that with it Allah Almighty will raise him a degree, and plot out a sin from him until he enters the mosque."

282- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah As-Sunabihi that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone offers ablution, in which he rinses his mouth and then snuffs (water into his nostrils and blows it out), his sins then get out of both his mouth and nose; and when he washes his face, his sins get out of his face until they even come out from underneath the lids of his eyes; and when he washes his arms, his sins get out of both arms; and when he passes his hand (wetted with water)over his head, his sins get out of his head until they even come out of his ears; and when he washes his feet, his sins get out of his feet until they even come out from underneath the nails of his toes; and by then, his prayer and walk towards the mosque will have extra reward (of raising up in degrees, and removal of more sins other than those plotted out by the ablution)."

5 ـ بابُ الوُضُوءُ شَطْرُ الإيمَانِ

6 ـ بابُ ثَوَابِ الطُّهُورِ

[10] What One Says When He Gets Out Of The Privy

300- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Burdah: I heard my father having said: Once, I visited A'ishah and I heard her saying: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out of the open space (after answering the call of nature), he would say: "(O Allah!) I ask for Your Forgiveness!" (It may be for the moments one stays in a state, in which he becomes far from the celebration of the Praises of Allah)

301- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out of the open space, he would say: "Praise be to Allah, Who has removed harm from me, and cured me (from the evil state in which I was)."

[11] The Celebration Of Allah Almighty On The Privy, And What About The Seal In The Privy

302- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to celebrate Allah Almighty all the time (in whichever state he was) (and even whenever he was in the privy, he would celebrate Allah but within himself, since the celebration by tongue is forbidden).

303- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the privy, he would put off his seal (since it was engraved on it "Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah).

[12] It Is Hateful To Urinate In The Place Where One Washes Up Himself

304- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let none of you urinate in the place where he takes bath, since the major of evil suggestions come from that." It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Ali At-Tanafisi that he commented: "This applies to the ditch; and now, they take bath in places made of floor, gypsum, grout, and pitch; and if one urinates on that and then lets water pass over it, there will be no harm."

[13] What About Urination While Standing

305- It is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to the dumps of some people and urinated while standing.

306- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to the dumps of some people and urinated while standing.

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah, according to which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to the dumps of some people and urinated while standing.

[14] What about urination while sitting

307- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: Do not believe such as tells you that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to urinate while standing! No doubt, I saw that he used to urinate while sitting.

Comment: (This Narration does not contradict the previous ones of Hudhaifah and Al-Mughirah: it is well-known that it was the habit of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to urinate while sitting according to the observation of A'ishah. But, he happened, though rarely, to have urinated while standing as both Hudhaifah and Al-Mughirah saw him)

308- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar from Umar that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw me urinating while standing, thereupon he said to me: "O Umar! Do not urinate while standing!" I've never urinated while standing afterwards.

309- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade anyone to urinate while being in a standing posture.

(...) It is narrated on the authority of Ahmad Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Makhzumi: I heard Sufyan Ath-Thawri saying in comment on the narration of A'ishah, in which she said: "I saw that he used to urinate while sitting": "No doubt, the man had better knowledge of that than her." Ahmad Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman commented: It was the habit of the Arabs that their men used to urinate while standing. Do you not see what he said in the following narration? He said: "He sat and urinated just in the same way as a woman urinates."

311- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Affan that he said: "I have never sung, nor have I invented a lie, nor have I touched my penis with my right hand since I gave with it the pledge of allegiance to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (for Islam)."

[16] It Is Desirable To Wash One's Private Parts With (Pieces Of) Stone; And It Is Forbidden To Do So With (Pieces Of) Dung Or Bone

313- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I'm to you in the position of a father to his sons, to instruct you: when you go to the privy (to answer the call of nature), you should neither face the Qiblah, nor should you turn your backs to it." He further commanded (to use) three stones (to clean one's private parts); and he forbade (using) both dung and bone; and he forbade that a man should wash his private parts with his right hand.

314- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went out to answer the call of nature and asked me to bring three stones. I found two stones and searched for the third but could not find it. So I took a dried piece of dung and brought it to him. He took the two stones and threw away the dung and said: "This is filthy."

316- It is narrated on the authority of Salman that one from amongst the pagans said to him, by way of scoffing at him: "Indeed, your companion (The Prophet) teaches you everything, to the extent that he even teaches you (how to do concerning) the excrement." He (Salman) said: "Yes. Verily, he forbade that none of us should clean his privates (after answering the call of nature) with his right hand, nor should he face the Qiblah (while excreting). He also commanded us not to use less than three (pieces of) stone including no dung or bone among them (to clean the private parts)."

[17] It Is Forbidden To Face The Qiblah While Excreting Or Urinating

317- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Al-Harith Ibn Jaz' Az-Zubaidi: I was the first to hear the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Let none of you urinate while facing the Qiblah"; and I was the first to relate it to the people.

318- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ayyub Al-Ansari: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade such as goes to answer the call of nature to face the Qiblah, and said: "Let such turn towards the East or towards the West!"

319- It is narrated on the authority of Ma'qil Ibn Abu Ma'qil Al-Asadi, and he was a companion of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to face both Qiblahs (i.e. the Ka'bah and Jerusalem) while excreting or urinating.

320- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri bore testimony that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to face both Qiblahs (i.e. the Ka'bah and Jerusalem) while excreting or urinating.

321- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he heard Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri having said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade me to drink while standing, and to urinate while facing the Qiblah.

[18] The Concession To Do So While Being In A Privy Or Not In Desert

322- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Some people say: If you sit to excrete do not face the Qiblah (nor turn your back to it). No doubt, once I came up the roof of our house, and saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sitting on two bricks (to answer the call of nature), facing Jerusalem.

323- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in his privy facing the Qiblah. Isa (a sub-narrator) said: I told Ash-Sha'bi of that, who said: Ibn Umar has told the truth, and so has Abu Hurairah done. As regards the statement of Abu Hurairah, he said: "In the desert, let none face or turn his back to the Qiblah (while excreting or urinating)." As regards the statement of Ibn Umar: "In the privy, there is no Qiblah which one is forbidden to face: you can face in it whatever you like."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Musa through a different chain of transmission.

324- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: A mention was made in the presence of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of some people, who hated to face the Qiblah with their private parts (while answering the call of nature). On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (rejecting their conduct): "Have they done it? (There is no harm to) turn your faces while sitting (to excrete or urinate) towards the Qiblah!"

(...) The like of that is narrated on the authority of Khalid Ibn As-Salt, through another chain of transmitters.

Comment: (It should be known here that the forbiddance to face the Qiblah while answering the call of nature is restricted to the open spaces in the desert; and as for the privies in the houses, there is no Qiblah to be faced so that the forbiddance might apply to it. But those who hated to face the Qiblah in general while answering the call of nature seemed to have misunderstood the significance of the forbiddance; and this is why the Prophet permitted them to turn their faces towards the Qiblah while answering the call of nature in their privies, not because it is desirable, since it is hateful, but just to remove such a misunderstanding from them.)

325- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to face the Qiblah while urinating. But a year before he (died and his soul) was taken (unto Allah), I saw him facing it (while urinating).

[19] The Removal Of The Taint Of Urine After Urination

326- It is narrated on the authority of Isa Ibn Yazdad Al-Yamani from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you urinates, let him shake off his penis (to emit the remaining drops of urine) thrice."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Zam'ah, through a different chain of transmitters.

[20] Concerning Him, Who Urinates And Touches No Water

327- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out (to the dumps) to urinate, and Umar followed him (carrying a tumbler filled) with water. He asked: "What is this O Umar?" he said: "This is water (for you to offer ablution)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be

[21] It Is Forbidden To Answer The Call Of Nature On The Road Way

328- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Himyari: Mu'adh Ibn Jabal used to narrate what the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard not, and keep silent of what they heard (from the Prophet). The news of Mu'adh's narration (concerning the open space where people should excrete) reached Abdullah Ibn Amr (Ibn Al-As), who said: By Allah! I have never heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said so; and Mu'adh is about to put you to trial concerning the open space (in which you should excrete). When this news reached Mu'adh, he met and said to him: O Abdullah Ibn Amr! No doubt, to give lie to a narration related from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is out of hypocrisy; and of a surety, the sin of it (in case it is false) is upon such as invents it. No doubt, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Safeguard yourselves against the three causes of curse: to excrete in the sources (of water), in the shade, and on the road way."

329- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Beware of halting (during journey in order to take rest and spend the night) on the road way, nor should you offer prayer to it, for it is the shelter of female-snakes and wild animals; and (I forbid you to) answer the call of nature there, for it is one of the causes of curse."

330- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father (Ibn Umar) that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (people) to offer prayer to the road way, or to take it as open space for excrement or urination.

[22] Going Far To Excrete In The Open Space

331- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah that he said: Whenever the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out (to answer the call of nature in the open space), he would go as far as it could be (so that no one would be able to see him).

332- It is narrated on the authority of Anas: I was in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey, when he went aside (far from the eyes of the people) to answer the call of nature; and then he came and asked for (water to offer) ablution; and (when it was brought to him) he offered ablution.

333- It is narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Murrah that whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out to answer the call of nature, he would go as far as possible (so that he would disappear from the eyes).

334- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Qurad: I performed Hajj in the company of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and when he came out to answer the call of nature, he went as far as possible.

335- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: We set out on journey in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and never would the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answer the call of nature unless he disappeared so that he could hardly be seen.

336- It is narrated on the authority of Bilal Ibn Al-Harith Al-Muzani: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to answer the call of nature, he would go as far as it could be (so that he would not be seen).

[23] Setting Out To The Open Space For Excretion And Urination

337- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who uses stones (to clean his privates after urination or excrement), let him use an odd number (of pebbles, and three are desirable): if one does so, he has done good, otherwise, there is no blame on him; whoever takes out anything (of the remaining food) from between his teeth, let him emit it, and he, who licks something (with his tongue), let him swallow it: if one does so, he has done good, otherwise, there is no blame on him; he, who comes to an open space (to answer the call of nature), let him screen himself, and in case he finds nothing barring a sandhill, let him screen himself behind it: verily, Satan touches with harm the buttocks of mankind (in case it is laid bare): if one does so, he has done good, otherwise, there is no blame on him."

338- The same is narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Al-Sabbah, through a similar chain of transmission, with the following addition: "He, who applies kohl, should do so an odd number of times: if one does so, he has done good, otherwise, there is no blame on him; and whoever licks something (with his tongue), let him swallow it."

Have you not known what befell him who belonged to the children of Israel? Whenever they urinated, they would file it (the place of the urine's exit in the penis to clean it) with the file; and when he forbade them to do so, he was given to the grave punishment."

When he finished from offering his ablution, he said: "Nothing prevented me from returning the greeting to you except that I was (urinating, and) not on ablution."

[56] Washing The Feet

456- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hayyah: Once, Ali offered ablution, in which he washed his feet up to the ankles and then he said: "I wanted to show you the (way of) ablution offered by your Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

(When she affirmed the narration) Ibn Abbas said: "No doubt, the people do not accept but the washing (of the feet in ablution, in imitation of the conduct of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"), even though I do not find in Allah's Book but the wiping (of them with one's wet hands)."

Comment: (This is in reference to Allah's saying: "O You who believe! When you prepare for prayer, wash your faces, and your hands (and arms) to the elbows; rub your heads (with water); and (wash) your feet to the ankles." (Al-Ma'idah 6))

(This refers to the fundamental principles of ablution mentioned by Allah: Al-Ma'idah 6)

460- It is narrated on the authority of Rifa'ah Ibn Rafi' that he was sitting with the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when he said: "No prayer of anyone will be regarded as (valid and) complete unless he makes perfect the ablution in accordance with what Allah Almighty commands: he should wash his face and hands (and arms) up to the elbows; and rub (with water) his head and (wash) his feet up to the ankles."

Comment: (This state is particular to the Prophet, whose eyes would sleep, even though his heart would never sleep; and in this case, the comment of Waki' is of no point here. The state of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should not be compared with the state of other men, who should offer ablution if they sleep; because both their eyes and hearts sleep with them)

478- It is narrated on the authority of Safwan Ibn Assal that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded us not to take off our footwears (whenever we liked to offer ablution provided that they were worn after offering ablution) for three days unless it would be because of the state of ceremonial impurity (resulting from sexual intercourse or nocturnal wet dream); but (we might not take them off) because of excrement, or of urination, or of sleep.

488- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate a (piece of the) shoulder (of a cooked sheep) and then wiped his hands with a piece of hairy cloth which was beneath him; and then he stood for the prayer, and offered the prayer (without performing ablution once again).

489- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", Abu Bakr and Umar ate bread and (cooked) meat and did not offer ablution (once again when they intended to perform the prayer).

490- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri: Once, I attended the supper (banquet made by) Al-Walid (or Abd Al-Malik); and when the prayer was due I got up to offer ablution, thereupon Ja'far Ibn Amr Ibn Umayyah said: I bear witness that my father testified that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate food changed (and cooked) by the fire, and then he offered prayer without performing ablution. Ali Ibn Abdullah Ibn Abbas said: I bear witness that my father (told) the same.

491- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: Once, a shoulder of (a cooked) sheep was brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", from which he ate and then offered prayer without touching water (i.e. he did not perform ablution because of his eating food changed and cooked by the fire).

492- It is narrated on the authority of Suwaid Ibn An-Nu'man Al-Ansari that they set out with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Khaibar until when they were at As-Sahba' (a place near Khaibar) they offered Asr prayer there; and then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that food (of lunch) should be brought; and no food but Sawiq was brought to him. They ate and drank, and then he asked for water with which he rinsed his mouth. Then he stood and led us in the Maghrib prayer (without repeating ablution once again because of food).

493- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ate the shoulder of a (cooked) sheep, and then he rinsed his mouth and washed his hands; and then he offered the prayer (without repeating ablution).

[67] Offering Ablution Because Of (Eating The Cooked) Meat Of Camels

494- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about (the necessity of) offering ablution because of (eating the cooked) meat of camels, thereupon he said: "(It'd better for) you to offer ablution because of (eating) it (once you stand for the prayer)."

Comment: (The command of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" here should be understood within the limits of desirability more than within the framework of obligation.)

495- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Samurah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded us to offer ablution because of (eating the cooked) meat of camels, and not to offer ablution because of (eating the cooked) meat of sheep.

496- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Hudair: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You do not (need to) offer ablution because of (drinking) the milk of sheep; but (it'd better for) you to offer ablution because of (drinking) the milk of camels."

497- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "(It'd better for) you to offer ablution because of (eating the cooked) meat of camels, and you do not (need to) offer ablution because of (eating the cooked) meat of sheep; (it'd better for) you to offer ablution because of (drinking) the milk of camels, but you do not (need to) offer ablution because of (drinking) the milk of sheep; and further you can offer prayer in the folds of sheep, but (it is better for you) not to offer prayer in the kneeling places of camels around the water."

Comment: (Of course this is not because they are filthy, but it is due to the fact that the camels are more ready to go forth, and this might lead to invalidate the prayer or even divert the attention of the praying people.)

[68] Rinsing The Mouth Because Of Drinking Milk

498- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Rinse your mouths because of (drinking) milk, for it has fat (which might leave its effect in the mouth)."

499- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah, the wife of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": The Messenger of Allah

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you drink milk, rinse your mouths, for it has fat."

500- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Muhaimin Ibn Abbas Ibn Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Rinse your mouths because of (drinking) milk, for it has fat (which might leave its effect in the mouth)."

501- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" milked a sheep and drank from its milk; and then he asked for water with which he rinsed his mouth and said: "Indeed, it (the milk) has fat."

[69] Offering Ablution Because Of A Kiss

502- It is narrated on the authority of Urwah Ibn Az-Zubair from A'ishah that she said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kissed one of his wives and then came out to perform the prayer, without offering ablution." I said: "This (whom he kissed) seems to be none other than you!" she smiled (approvingly).

503- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (sometimes) offered ablution, then kissed (anyone of his wives), and then performed the prayer without repeating the ablution; and perhaps he did so with me.

[70] Offering Ablution Because Of Pre-Seminal Fluid

504- It is narrated on the authority of Ali: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the pre-seminal fluid, thereupon he said: "It makes offering ablution binding; as well as semen makes bathing obligatory."

505- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Miqdad Ibn Al-Aswad that he asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (the judgement of) a man who would approach his wife and (fondle her but have no sexual relation with her and thus) have no ejaculation, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you finds that (secretion discharged before semen), let him then sprinkle water over his private parts, i.e. wash his penis and then offer ablution."

506- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Hunaif: I used to get troubled from the pre-seminal fluid, because of which I would take bath so many times. I made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's

How could I do with that (secretion) which my garment receives?" he said: "It is sufficient for you to take a handful of water, and sprinkle it over (the very spot) of your garment you think it receives (such a secretion)."

507- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he went to Ubai Ibn Ka'b in the company of Umar. He (Ubai) came out to them and said: "I detected (in me some) pre-seminal fluid, thereupon I washed my penis and offered ablution (in order to perform the prayer)." Umar said: "Is it just sufficient?" he answered in the affirmative. He asked: "Have you heard it from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he answered in the affirmative.

[71] The Ablution Of Sleep

508- It is narrated on the authority of Waki': I heard Sufyan Ath-Thawri asking Za'idah Ibn Qudamah: O Abu As-Salt! Have you heard something pertaining to that? He said: It is related to us from Salamah Ibn Kuhail from Kuraib from Ibn Abbas that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got at night and went to the privy where he answered the call of nature; and then he washed his face and hands, and then he slept again.

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Kuraib from Ibn Abbas from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[72] Offering Ablution For Every Prayer; And Performing All The Prayers With One Ablution

509- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer ablution for every (obligatory) prayer; and we (the companions) used (sometimes) to perform all the (obligatory) prayers (of the day) with one ablution (as long as it is not broken).

510- It is narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Buraidah from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer ablution for every (obligatory) prayer. But when it was the day of the conquest of Mecca, he performed all the (obligatory) prayers (of that day) with one ablution.

511- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Fadl Ibn Mubashshir that he said: Once, I saw Jabir Ibn Abdullah offering all the (obligatory) prayers (of the day) with one ablution, thereupon I said: "What is that (which you

[73] Offering Ablution Even Though One's Ablution Is Still Effective

512- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Lutaif Al-Hudhali: I was listening to Abdullah Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab in his gathering in the mosque, and when the prayer was due, he stood, offered ablution, and performed the prayer; and then he returned to his gathering. When the Asr prayer was due he stood, offered ablution and performed the prayer; and then he returned to his gathering. When the Maghrib prayer was due, he stood, offered ablution and performed the prayer; and then he returned to his gathering. I said to him: "Might Allah set you on the right! Is it obligatory or a part of the sunnah to offer ablution at every (obligatory) prayer?" he said: "Have you made sense to me and to what I did?" I answered in the affirmative. he said: "No (it is neither obligatory nor a part of the sunnah to offer ablution at every prayer): if I offer ablution for the morning prayer, it will be sufficient for me to perform all the prayers with it as long as I do not break it. But I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who offers ablution even though his ablution is still effective, will receive ten good deeds"; and of a surety, I desire for more good deeds."

[74] No (New) Ablution Is Required Unless The Current Ablution Is Broken

513- It is narrated on the authority of both Sa'id and Abbad Ibn Tamim from his paternal uncle that he said: It was complained to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that a man might have doubt during his prayer (whether he has broken ablution), thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No (let him resume his prayer) unless he is sure to detect (an unpleasant smell or hear sound."

514- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about suspicion during the prayer (of breaking ablution), thereupon he said: "Let not him turn away (from the prayer) unless he (is sure to) hear a sound or detect (an awful) smell."

515- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No ablution is required unless it is because of (such things as) making sound or passing wind."

فَقَالَ: رَأَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَصْنَعُ هٰذَا. فَأَنَا أَصْنَعُ كَمَا صَنَعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ.

[75] The Level Of Water At Which It Never Becomes Filthy

517-It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Umar from his father: I was listening when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about the (judgement of the) water in the desert, in which beasts and wild animals might plunge, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the water becomes (no less than) two buckets, nothing could make it filthy."

520-It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: We reached a stream (of water) and behold! There was the dead body of an ass, thereupon we stopped from (offering ablution and drinking) from it until the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" joined us, and then he said: "No doubt, nothing could make the water filthy (if it is more than two buckets)." Thus, we drank, watered our animals, and carried (water with us).

Give me your garment (to wash it for you), and wear another garment!" he said: "No, (since it is sufficient to) sprinkle water (over the traces) of the urine of a male (child); but it is (necessary for the garment) to be washed because of the urine of a female (child)."

523- It is narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwah from his father from A'ishah that she said: Once, a child was brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he urinated in his lap. [78] The Way Of Washing The (Piece Of) Land Tainted By Urine

528- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that once, a desert dweller urinated in the mosque, and some people jumped to him swiftly (in order to prevent him), but Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told them not to disturb him (until he finished); and he further asked for a bucket of water which he poured over that (place where he urinated).

529- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: A desert dweller (Bedouin) entered the mosque and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting and said: "O Allah! Forgive only for me and Muhammad, and do not forgive for anyone with us!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "No doubt, you've withheld that (i.e. Allah's Mercy) which is all-embracing." Then, he turned away until when he was in one of the corners of the mosque, he made a space between his legs and started urinating. The desert dweller said after he had understood (from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"): He (the Prophet) stood to me, let my father and mother be sacrificed for him, and he did neither blame nor abuse me, and said: "This mosque is not fitting for urination! It is rather built for the Celebration of (the Praises of) Allah, and performing the prayer." Then, he ordered that a bucket of water be spilled over (the place which received) his urine.

530- It is narrated on the authority of Wathilah Ibn Al-Asqa' that he said: A desert dweller came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah! Bestow Your Mercy upon me and Muhammad, and do not make anyone join us in Your Mercy!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, you've restrained that (i.e. Allah's Mercy) which is all-embracing! Woe to you!" then, he made a space between his legs and started passing urine, thereupon the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" shouted at him; but the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered them to let him. Then, he asked for a bucket of water which he poured over that (place which received the urine).

[79] The Different Parts Of The Ground Purify Each Other

531- It is narrated on the authority of the mother of a son belonging to Ibrahim Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf that she asked Umm Salamah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: I'm a woman whose habit is to make long the tail of my (garment), with which I might walk in a filthy place (what is the verdict pertaining to that?)" she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What is next to this (place, in case it is not filthy) purifies it (the tail of the garment, by removing the traces of filthiness it might receive)."

532- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: It was said to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! On our way to the mosque, we might trample a filthy ground (what is the judgement of that?)" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the different parts of the ground remove the filthy traces of each other."

533- It is narrated on the authority of a woman belonging to Banu Abd Al-Ashhal that she said: I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Between us and the mosque, there is a filthy road (upon which we should come in order to reach the mosque: what is the judgement pertaining to that?)" Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Is there next to it another road, that is much cleaner?" I answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "Then, this (removes the filthy traces made) by that."

He slipped away (in order to take bath), and thus the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" missed him. When he returned the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Where have you been O Abu Hurairah?" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! You met me while I was in the state of ceremonial impurity; and I disliked to sit with you before I took bath." 536- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Maimun that he said: I asked Sulaiman Ibn Yasar about the garment which receives (the traces of) semen: "Should we wash only (the very spot that receives) it, or should we wash the whole garment?" Sulaiman said: A'ishah said: "Whenever it (the semen) affected the garment of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he would wash it off his garment, and then come out to offer the prayer, wearing the same garment, and I would see the traces of washing on it."

Umar said: "When we were with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we would pass our hands over our footwears, seeing no harm in that." On that day, we rubbed with the clean earth our hands up to the shoulders (since we had not know yet how to do it exactly). Then, Abu Bakr went to A'ishah (once again) and said to her: "I did not know (when I scolded you) that you are a blessed woman!"

566- It is narrated on the authority of Ammar Ibn Yasir that he said: We practiced Tayammum with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in which we rubbed with the clean earth our hands) up to the shoulders.

567- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The whole earth has been made for me (and my nation) a place of worship and (an instrument to offer) ablution" i.e. if the prayer is due one could offer it wherever he is; and in case there is no water, one could take clean sand or earth therewith to rub his face and hands to be able to offer the prayer).

568- It is narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwah from his father that A'ishah told: I borrowed a necklace from Asma ' and it was lost. So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent some men in search for it; and Then the time of the prayer became due (when there was no water with them). So, they prayed (without offering ablution) and when they returned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they complained of that to him . So the verse of Tayammum was revealed. Usaid Ibn Hudair said to A'ishah: "May Allah reward you! By Allah, whenever anything befalls you, Allah makes for you a way out of it, and, at the same time, brings in it good for the Muslims."

[91] Performing Tayammum With One Strike

569- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abza from his father that he said: A man came to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab and said: "I became in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse); and I had no water (to take a bath and perform ablution)." Umar said to him: "Then do not offer the prayer (until you find water to take a bath and perform ablution)." Upon this, Ammar Ibn Yasir said to Umar Ibn Al-Khattab: "Do you remember, O Commander of The Believers, that both you and I were together in a detachment and we became in a state of ceremonial impurity (after sexual intercourse) and we had no water; and you didn't pray but I rolled myself on the ground and prayed? Then when I returned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and made a mention of that to him he said: "It would have been sufficient for you..." and the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (by way of illustration) struck the earth with his hands once and blew them off, and wiped his face and hands?"

570- It is narrated on the authority of both Al-Hakam and Salamah Ibn Kuhail that they asked Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa about practicing Tayammum, thereupon he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded Ammar to do as such. He then struck the earth with his hands and shook them off, therewith he wiped his face (and his hands, according to Al-Hakam, and his elbows according to Salamah).

[92] Performing Tayammum With Two Strikes

571- It is narrated on the authority of Ammar Ibn Yasir that when they performed Tayammum while they were in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he ordered the Muslims to strike the earth with their hands, but their hands grasped nothing of the

[93] Concerning The Wounded One Who Is Affected By The Ceremonial Impurity, And Fears The Risk Of Bathing On Himself

572- It is narrated on the authority of Ata Ibn Abu Rabah: I heard Ibn Abbas relating that once, a man was head-wounded during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and then; he got a nocturnal wet dream. He was commanded (by his companions whom he asked for their verdict whether he could perform Tayammum instead of bathing) to take bath; and he took bath, thereupon he suffered a severe cold because of which he died. When the news of him reached the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said: "They (who ordered him to take bath) have killed him: might Allah kill them! Is not the recovery from ignorance to ask (for knowledge such as have acquaintance)?" Ata said: We were informed that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Had he washed his body, and left his head where he was wounded (and passed his wet hand over the bandage, it would have been better for him)!"

[94] Taking Bath (To Get Clean) From Ceremonial Impurity

573- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas from his maternal aunt Maimunah: I placed water for the bath of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to get clean from ceremonial impurity. He turned down the vessel with his left hand on his right hand, and washed his hands thrice and then poured water on his private parts. He rubbed his hands over the earth (and cleaned them), rinsed his mouth, washed his nose by snuffing water into his nostrils and blowing it out, washed his face thrice and both forearms thrice, and then poured water over the whole of his body. Then he withdrew from that place and washed his feet.

574- It is narrated on the authority of Jumai' Ibn Umair At-Taimi that he said: I went in the company of both my paternal and maternal aunts to visit A'ishah, whom we asked how the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to do whenever he would take bath to get clean from ceremonial impurity. She said: "He used to pour water over his hands thrice; and then get them into the vessel, and wash his head thrice, and then pour water over (the whole of) his body; and then, he would stand for the prayer. As for us (women), we wash our heads five times, because of the braids (of the hair)."

[95] Taking Bath (To Get Clean) From Ceremonial Impurity

575- It is narrated on the authority of Jubair Ibn Mut'im that he said: They (the companions) fell into argument about (how to) take bath to get clean from ceremonial impurity, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for me, I pour three handfuls of water over my head (one on the right side, one on the left side, and one on the middle)."

576- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that a man asked him how to take bath in order to get clean from ceremonial impurity, thereupon he said: "Three (handfuls of water to be poured over the head and the body are sufficient)." He said: "I have much hair (and this amount is not sufficient)." On that he said: "No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had more hair and was much better (than you; even though this amount was sufficient for him)."

577- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I live in a cold land: how should I take bath to get clean from ceremonial impurity?" he said: "As for me, I pour three (handfuls of water) over my head."

578- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that a man asked him: "How much water should I pour over my head (to take bath) while I'm in a state of ceremonial impurity?" he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pour three handfuls of water over his head." The man said: "But, my hair is long (and this quantity of water might not be sufficient)." On that he said: "No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had more hair than you, and he was much better (even though he saw this quantity of water sufficient for him to get clean from ceremonial impurity)."

[96] Offering Ablution After Taking Bath

579- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used not to offer ablution after bathing to get clean from ceremonial impurity.

[107] A Woman Has In Her Dream What A Man Has

600- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab, the daughter of Umm Salamah from her mother that she said: Umm Sulaim came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him whether a woman has in her dream what a man has (i.e. a wet dream or nocturnal sexual discharge). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Yes, and she should take bath if she notices a discharge." I said: "You've put women to shame! Does a woman get a discharge?" He replied: "Yes, let your right hand be in dust ("you will not achieve goodness"): why does the son resemble his mother?"

601- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that Umm Sulaim asked The Prophet of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the woman who would experience in her dream what man would experience. Upon this, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the woman experiences such a thing, and then has discharge, she should take a bath." Umm Salamah said: "O Messenger of Allah! Does it happen?" Upon this the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes (it happens). Man's discharge (sperm) is thick and white while the discharge of woman (ovum central portion) is thin and yellow; so the resemblance comes from the one whose genes prevail or dominate."

602- It is narrated on the authority of Khawlah Bint Hakim that she asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about a woman who might have in her dream what a man might have, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no bathing binding upon her unless she ejaculates (her discharge), as well as there is no bathing binding upon a man unless he ejaculates (semen)."

[116] When The Woman Of Persistent Bleeding From The Uterus Could Not Distinguish The Blood Of The Menses, And Thus Could Not Count The Days thereof

626- It is narrated on the authority of Urwah Ibn Az-Zubair and Amrah Bint Abd Ar-Rahman that A'ishah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", reported: Umm Habibah Bint Jahsh, (the sister-in-law of the Messenger of Allah because she was the sister of Zainab Bint Jahsh the wife of the Messenger of Allah and) she was the wife of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf, got persistent bleeding from her uterus for seven years. She asked for the religious verdict of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" concerning that matter. Upon this, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This (bleeding) is not menses, but it is from a blood vessel. So, when the menses starts, give up the prayer, and when it finishes, take a bath (to purify yourself from the menses) and then perform the prayer." A'ishah resumed: She (Umm Habibah) used to take a bath for every prayer, and then she would offer the prayer. She used to sit in a washing tub belonging to her sister Zainab Bint Jahsh, and (the blood was so abundant that) the redness of the blood would prevail the water.

[117] When A Virgin Gets Persistent Bleeding From Uterus

627- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Talhah that his mother Hamnah Bint Jahsh (the sister of Zainab Bint Jahsh, the wife of the Prophet) had persistent bleeding from the uterus during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and she came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I have a persistent bleeding from the uterus, too profuse and strong (to bear)." He said to her: "Stuff your (privates) with cotton (so that the blood might stop)." She said: "It (the blood) is too abundant to (stop with the help of cotton). Indeed, it flows in great quantity." On that he said: "Tie your (privates with a piece of cloth) and regard yourself in the state of menses for six or seven days every month, according to Allah's Knowledge (and Judgement), and then you should take bath (and regard yourself in a state of cleanness) for twenty-three or twenty-four (days, during which) you could offer prayer and observe fasts. You could delay (offering) the Zhuhr prayer and hasten (to offer the Asr prayer when it is due, as early as you can), and take one bath for both; and also you could delay the Maghrib (prayer), and hasten (to offer the Isha prayer when it is due, as early as you can), and take one bath for both: and this is much dearer to me."

628- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Qais Bint Mihsan that she said: I asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the (judgement when the) blood of the menses affects the garment, thereupon he said: "Wash (the traces of blood off) it with water mixed with the (leaves of the) lote tree, and scrape it (the blood) even with a stick."

629- It is narrated on the authority of Asma' Bint Abu Bakr that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about (the judgement when) the blood of the menses affects the garment, thereupon he said: "(Take hold of the soiled spot and) rub and wash (the traces of blood off) it, and then you could offer prayer in it."

630- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that she said: Whenever anyone of us got menses, and then became clean, she would rub the blood off the garment, then wash (the traces of blood off) it, and sprinkle water over the whole of it, and then she would offer prayer in it.

631- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adhah that a woman asked A'ishah: "Is it obligatory for the menstruating woman to offer the prayers she misses during her menses?" A'ishah said: "Are you from (the village of) Harura? Whenever anyone of us got her menses during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" she would not be ordered to offer them (the prayers missed during the menses)."

[121] What A Man Could Have From His Menstruating Wife

635- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Aswad from his father that A'ishah said: If anyone of us (i.e. the wives of The Prophet) was menstruating, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in case he had a sexual desire from her) would order her, even though when the blood of the menses was flowing abundantly, to wear a waist-sheet, then (above which) he would approach her. But, who among you could have control over his desires as the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had control over his desires!

636- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: If anyone of us (i.e. the wives of The Prophet) was menstruating, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in case he had a sexual desire from her) would order her to wear a waist-sheet, then (above which) he would approach her.

637- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: Once, I was lying with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" under his quilt, when I got menses as women would get. So, I slipped away from under the quilt, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Have you got your menses?" I said: "I've got the menses as women would get." He said: "This is what Allah has decreed upon the daughters of Adam." (Umm Salamah resumed): then, I slipped away, and made up myself, and when I returned, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to come and enter into the quilt with him; and I did accordingly.

[10] Concerning Such As Sleeps (And Is Hindered) From Offering Prayer; Or Such As Forgets To Offer It

695- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about such as forgets to offer the prayer, or such as sleeps (and thus is hindered) from offering it, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He should offer it once he remembers it."

Then, when he intended to (take rest for) sleep, he descended (at some place) and said to Bilal: "Keep on guard at night for us (to tell us when the time of Fajr prayer comes)." Bilal prayed as much as he was doomed to do, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions fell asleep. When the time of the dawn approached, Bilal reclined against the back of his mount, facing the (direction from which the) dawn (would rise). He was overwhelmed by sleep while leaning against the back of his camel. Neither the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" nor Bilal nor anyone of his companions got up until the sun rose upon them. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was the first of them to get up. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was shocked and he said: "O Bilal! (What has happened?)" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! I was taken up by the same, which took up you." He (The Prophet) ordered them to drive (their mounts). They drove their mounts to some distance. Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered ablution (followed by his companions), and ordered

Bilal to pronounce the prayer establishment, and he led them in the Morning prayer. When he finished the prayer he said: "Whoever forgets a certain (obligatory) prayer should offer it once he remembers it, for Allah says: "and establish regular prayer for celebrating my praise."" (Ta Ha 14) (Yunus said that Ibn Shihab recited it: "for remembrance.")

698- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Qatadah that he said: They (the companions) made a mention of their indulgence in (offering the prayer because of) the sleep; and he (one of them who rejected that) told them to sleep; and they slept until the sun rose. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The indulgence (in offering the prayer) does not apply to (the state of) sleep: but the indulgence (in offering the prayer) applies to (the state of) wakefulness. So, if anyone of you forgets to offer a (certain obligatory) prayer, or sleeps (and is hindered) from offering it, let him offer it once he remembers it in its due time of the coming day." Abdullah Ibn Rabah (the sub-narrator) said: Imran Ibn Al-Husain heard me while I was relating this narration, thereupon he said: O young man! Consider what you are relating! Verily, I was witness to this narration from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Indeed, he denied nothing of the narration.

[11] The Time Of Prayer When There Is A Legal Excuse Or Necessity

699- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who catches (even) a single rak'ah of the Asr prayer before the sun sets has, indeed, (been regarded to have) caught the (whole) prayer; and he, who catches a single rak'ah of the Morning prayer before the sun rises has, indeed, (been regarded to have) caught the (whole) prayer."

700- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who catches (even) a single rak'ah of the Morning prayer before the sun rises has, indeed, (been regarded to have) caught the (whole) prayer; and he, who catches a single rak'ah of the Asr prayer before the sun sets has, indeed, (been regarded to have) caught the (whole) prayer."

(...) It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said... and he mentioned the same through a different chain of transmitters.

[12] It Is Forbidden To Go To Bed Before Offering Isha Prayer; Or To Be Engaged In Night Talks After Offering It

701- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Barzah Al-Aslami that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" liked to delay offering the Isha prayer. But he disliked to go to bed before offering it, as well as (he disliked) to be engaged in night talks after offering it (for fear that such talks might occupy one from standing for the supererogatory night prayer).

702- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" never slept before (offering) the Isha (prayer), nor was he engaged in night talks after (offering) it.

703- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" condemned the night talks for us, i.e. scolded us for that, after (offering) the Isha (prayer).

[13] It Is Forbidden To Call (Isha) The Prayer Of Darkness

704- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Do not let the Bedouins overpower you concerning the name of your prayer. Verily, it is the Isha (prayer) which the Bedouins call Darkness (because) they delay milking their camels (and thus delay offering the prayer) till it becomes very dark."

705- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not let the Bedouins overpower you concerning the name of your prayer." The following addition is in the narration of Ibn Harmalah: "Verily, it is the Isha (prayer) and they (the Bedouins) call it Darkness because they delay milking their camels (and thus delay offering the prayer) till it becomes very dark."

(3) THE BOOK OF ADHAN

(THE CALL FOR PRAYER)

[1] The Beginning Of (The Appearance Of) The Adhan

706- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Abdullah Ibn Zaid from his father that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to (take) the horn (therewith to let the people know the prayer was due, so that they would offer it; but he disliked it since the Jews took it); and then he ordered that a bell should be sculpted (for the same purpose, even though he disliked that since the Christians took it). At that time, Abdullah Ibn Zaid was made to see a (true) vision in his dream. He said (in his narration of the story): "I saw a man having two green garments, and he was carrying a bell, thereupon I asked him: "O servant of Allah! Would you sell me this bell?" he said: "What would you do with it?" I said: "I would call for the prayer with the help of it." He said: "Would I not guide you to something much better than that?" I asked: "What is it?" he said: "It is to say: "Allah is Greater; Allah is Greater; Allah is Greater; Allah is Greater: I testify that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah; I testify that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah: I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah; I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah: Come to the prayer! Come to the prayer! Come to success! Come to success! Allah is Greater; Allah is Greater: there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah."

He added: Abdullah Ibn Zaid set out until he came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and told him of what he had seen. He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I saw (in a dream) a man having two green garments, and he was carrying a bell..." and he related the story (in full) to him. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, your companion (Abdullah Ibn Zaid) has seen a (true) vision! Go with Bilal to the mosque, and dictate that to him, and let Bilal call (with it), for he has a sweeter voice than you." He (Abdullah) added: I went with Bilal to the mosque, and I started dictating it to him, and he went on calling with it. When Umar Ibn Al-Khattab heard the voice, he set out and said: "O Messenger of Allah! By Allah! I've seen the like of what he (Abdullah Ibn Zaid) has seen!"

He (the narrator) said: Abu Bakr Al-Hakami told that Abdullah Ibn Zaid said (the following three poetic verses) in this issue: "I praise Allah, the Lord of Glory, Bounty and Honour, so much praise for (making) the Adhan (appear on my tongue). Behold! The giver of glad tidings brought it to me from Allah: how generous and honourable giver of glad news he is in my sight! (He came to me) in three successive nights; and the more he came to me, the more he advanced me in honour."

707- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" consulted the people as to what concerned them pertaining to the prayer. They made a mention of the horn, but he disliked it because (he disliked to imitate) the Jews; and they made a mention of the bell, but he disliked it because (he disliked to imitate) the Christians. On that night, a man from the Ansar called Abdullah Ibn Zaid, and Umar Ibn Al-Khattab were made to see (in a vision in their dreams somebody who dictated to them) the Adhan (i.e. the Call for the prayer). The Ansari man visited the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at night (and told him of it), thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Bilal (to call) with it; and he called (for the prayer). According to Az-Zuhri, Bilal added in the Call for the Morning prayer: "Verily, the prayer is better than the sleep!" and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" concurred to that. Umar then said: "O Messenger of Allah! No doubt, I've seen the like of what he (the Ansari man) has seen; but he preceded me (to tell you)."

[2] Repeating The Words Of Adhan (The Call For The Prayer)

708- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Muhairiz who was an orphan under the guardianship of Abu Mahdhurah that he asked him when he prepared him to set out to Sham: "O Uncle! I'm going to travel to Sham, and I fear the people there might ask me about your way of Adhan." He said: "Yes. I was with a group of my companions on the way when we met the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" , whose Mu'adhdhin announced the called for the prayer. We heard the voice of this Mu'adhdhin, and we went on sending our voices loud, in imitation of his voice mockingly. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard our voices, he sent someone to bring us, and when we stood before him he said to us: "Who among you whose loud voice I heard?" the people hinted to me, and they were true. He let them off and kept me standing. He asked me to get up and announce the call for the prayer. I got up, and at this time, there was nothing more hateful to me than the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" , and that which he ordered me to do. I stood in front of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" , who dictated to me the (wording of) Adhan as follows: "Allah is greater! Allah is greater! Allah is

708 ـ حدّثنا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ بَشَّارٍ، وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَحْيَىٰ. قَالاَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو عَاصِمٍ. أَنْبَأَنَا ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ. أَخْبَرَنِي عَبْدُ الْعَزِيزِ بْنُ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ أَبِي مَحْذُورَةَ، عَنْ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ مُحَيْرِيزٍ، وَكَانَ يَتِيماً فِي حِجْرِ أَبِي مَحْذُورَةَ بْنِ مِعْيَرٍ، حِينَ جَهَّزَهُ إِلَى الشَّامِ. فَقُلْتُ لِأَبِي مَحْذُورَةَ: أَيْ عَمِّ إِنِّي خَارِجٌ إِلَى الشَّامِ، وَإِنِّي أُسْأَلُ عَنْ تَأْذِينِكَ. فَأَخْبَرَنِي أَنَّ أَبَا مَحْذُورَةَ قَالَ: خَرَجْتُ فِي نَفَرٍ. فَكُنَّا بِبَعْضِ الطَّرِيقِ. فَأَذَّنَ مُؤَذِّنُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ بِالصَّلاَةِ، عِنْدَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَسَمِعْنَا صَوْتَ الْمُؤَذِّنِ وَنَحْنُ عَنْهُ مُتَنَكِّبُونَ. فَصَرَخْنَا نَحْكِيهِ، نَهْزَأُ بِهِ. فَسَمِعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ. فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَيْنَا قَوْماً فَأَقْعَدُونَا بَيْنَ يَدَيْهِ. فَقَالَ: «أَيُّكُمُ الَّذِي سَمِعْتُ صَوْتَهُ قَدِ ارْتَفَعَ؟» فَأَشَارَ إِلَيَّ الْقَوْمُ كُلُّهُمْ، وَصَدَقُوا. فَأَرْسَلَ كُلَّهُمْ وَحَبَسَنِي. وَقَالَ لِي: «قُمْ فَأَذِّنْ». فَقُمْتُ، وَلاَ شَيْءَ أَكْرَهُ إِلَيَّ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَلاَ مِمَّا يَأْمُرُنِي بِهِ. فَقُمْتُ بَيْنَ يَدَيْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ، فَأَلْقَى عَلَيَّ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ التَّأْذِينَ هُوَ بِنَفْسِهِ. فَقَالَ: «قُلْ: اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ. أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لاَ إِلٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ، أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لاَ إِلٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ. أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ، أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ». ثُمَّ قَالَ لِي: «ارْفَعْ مِنْ صَوْتِكَ. أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لاَ إِلٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ، أَشْهَدُ أَنْ لاَ إِلٰهَ إِلاَّ اللَّهُ. أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ، أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّداً رَسُولُ اللَّهِ. حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلاَةِ، حَيَّ عَلَى الصَّلاَةِ. حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلاَحِ، حَيَّ عَلَى الْفَلاَحِ. اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ، اللَّهُ

greater! Allah is greater! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that Muhammad Is the Messenger of Allah! I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah!" then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered me to raise my voice: "I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that Muhammad Is the Messenger of Allah! I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah! Come to the prayer! Come to the prayer! Come to success! Come to success! Allah is greater! Allah is greater! there is no god but Allah."

When I finished, he invited me and gave me a parcel containing something of silver. (The narrator added): Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" put his hand on the forelock of Abu Mahdhurah, then passed it on his face, then in the area between his nipples, down to his liver until the hand of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached the umbilicus of Abu Mahdhurah. Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Might Allah bless in you and bless upon you." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give an order that I should announce the calls for prayer in Mecca." He said: "I order that you should do so." Every kind of hatred and aversion I had to the Messenger went away, and turned into great love for him. Then, I came to Itab Ibn Usaid, who was appointed by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in charge of the affairs of the people in Mecca, and I undertook the task of announcing the calls for prayers there.

709- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Muhairiz from Abu Mahdhurah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" taught me the Adhan (Call for prayer, and it is) nineteen statements; and the Iqamah (pronouncement of prayer establishment, and it is) seventeen statements. The Adhan is of nineteen statements, and it goes as follows: "Allah is greater! Allah is greater! Allah is greater! Allah is greater! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that Muhammad Is the Messenger of Allah! I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that Muhammad Is the Messenger of Allah! I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah! Come to the prayer! Come to the prayer! Come to success! Come to success! Allah is greater! Allah is greater! there is no god but Allah." The Iqamah is of seventeen statements, and it goes as follows: "Allah is greater! Allah is greater! Allah is greater! Allah is greater! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that there is no god but Allah!

[3] Following The Sunnah Pertaining To The Adhan

710- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sa'd Ibn Ammar Ibn Sa'd, the Mu'adhdhin of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", that he said: My father told me from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Bilal to place his fingers in both his ears, and said to him: "This causes your voice to be much louder."

711- It is narrated on the authority of Awn Ibn Abu Juhaifah from his father that he said: I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in Al-Abtah, while he was in a red tent. Then, Bilal set out and pronounced the Adhan, during which he turned (his face here and there to make the inhabitants of the different sides hear), and placed his fingers in both his ears.

712- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are two things belonging to the Muslims, which are hung in the necks of the Mu'adhdhins (i.e. depend upon them): their prayer (whose time they know once the Adhan is pronounced) and their fasting (which begins with the Adhan of the Fajr prayer, and comes to an end with the Adhan of the Maghrib prayer)."

713- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Samurah that he said: Bilal never delayed the Adhan (Call for the prayer) from its due time; but perhaps he delayed the Iqamah (the Call for prayer establishment) to some extent

714- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Abu Al-As that he said: The last thing which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded me to do was to take none to act as Mu'adhdhin for charge.

715- It is narrated on the authority of Bilal that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded me to repeat the announcement for the prayer (by saying: "The prayer is better than the sleep! The prayer is better than the sleep!") in (the Adhan of) Fajr; and he forbade me to do the same in (the Adhan of) Isha.

716- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that when Bilal came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to announce to him that the Fajr prayer was due, it was said to him: "He was asleep." On that Bilal said: "The prayer is better than the sleep! The prayer is better than the sleep!" then, it was fixed in pronouncing the Adhan for the Fajr (prayer); and it remained as such (with no change).

717- It is narrated on the authority of Ziyad Ibn Al-Harith As-Suda'i that he said: I was with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey when he ordered me to pronounce the Adhan; and I did accordingly. Bilal wanted to pronounce the prayer establishment, but the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The brother of Suda' has pronounced the Adhan; and such as pronounces the Adhan (has more right to) pronounce the prayer establishment."

[4] What Is Said When The Mu'adhdhin Pronounces The Adhan

718- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the Mu'adhdhin pronounces the Adhan, say the like of what he says."

Comment: (except when he says: "Come to the prayer! Come to success!" for one in this case should say after each of the four statements: "There is no Might nor Power but with Allah")

719- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Habibah that she heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", when he was with her (as it was her turn) on her day and night, and he heard the Mu'adhdhin pronouncing the Adhan, having said the like of what the Mu'adhdhin said.

720- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When you hear the Call (for the prayer), say the like of what the Mu'adhdhin says."

729- It is narrated on the authority of Anas: (When the Muslims grew more) they tried to find a thing to discriminate the prayer times with something they know. (They talked about the possibility of kindling fire or ringing a bill, and after Abdullah Ibn Zaid had been inspired the words of the Adhan in a true vision) Bilal was ordered to repeat the wording of the Adhan (call for prayers) twice, and to pronounce the wording of Iqamah (establishing prayer) once.

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked them to suggest a price for it, but they said: "We never take any price for it (but from Allah Almighty)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took part in the (process of) building, and they would hand him (the stones and bricks required for the construction). At that time, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was saying: "Behold! The real living is that of the hereafter: (O Allah)! Forgive both the Ansar and the Emigrants!" before building the mosque, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed wherever (he was even if he was at sheepfolds since) the prayer was due.

743- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Abu Al-As that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded him to build the mosque of Ta'if in the same place where the tyrant (idol they worshipped before Islam) was.

744- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said, in reply to a question raised to him about (offering prayer in) the garden when the dirty things are thrown in them: "If they (such gardens) are watered many times, you might offer prayer in them (on the basis that the traces of filth would be removed by the great quantity of water)." He traced this narration up to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[4] The Places That Are Undesirable For Offering Prayer

745- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The whole earth is (fitting for the prayer like) a mosque, barring a grave or a bathroom."

746- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade to offer prayer in seven places: the dunghill, the butchery, the grave, the road way, the bathroom, the kneeling place of camels around the water, and over the Ka'bah.

Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You can sleep here if you so like; otherwise you can go to the mosque (and sleep there)." We said: "No: let's go to the mosque (and sleep there)."

[7] The First Mosque To Be Constructed (On The Earth)

753- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr: I asked (The Prophet): "O Messenger of Allah! Which mosque was constructed first on the earth?" he (The Messenger) answered: "It was The Sacred Mosque (of Mecca)." I asked: "Then, which was next?" he said: "It was the Farthest Mosque (of Jerusalem)." I asked again: "How long was the period between (constructing) them?" he said: "Forty years; and wherever (you are and) the time of the prayer came upon you, then you should offer the prayer, for it (wherever you are) would be regarded as a place of prayer."

[8] The Mosques In The Houses

754- It is narrated on the authority of Mahmud Ibn Ar-Rabie, and he retained in memory an ejaculation (of water) which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made from a bucket (of water) from a well belonging to them: Itban Ibn Malik, who was one of the companions of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and one of the Ansar who took part in the battle of Badr, and he was the imam of his people, told: I came to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have weak eyesight and I lead my people in prayers. When it rains the water flows in the valley between my people and me so I cannot go to their mosque to lead them in prayer. O Allah's Apostle! If you see it better, (I wish that) you would come to my house and pray in it so that I could take that part as a place of prayer." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I shall do, Allah willing." Next day after the sun rose high, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Abu Bakr came and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked for permission to enter. I gave him permission and he did not sit on entering the house but said to me: "Where do you like me to pray?" I pointed to a certain place in my house, I liked to offer prayer in. So Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood there and we all aligned behind him, and he led us in a two-rak'ah prayer. We requested him (The Prophet) to stay for a meat curry, which we had prepared for them (the Prophet and Abu Bakr).

755- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that once, a man from the Ansar sent (somebody) to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (with the following message): "Come and assign for me a place of prayer in my house (by your praying in it), wherein I would offer prayer"; and this was after he had got blind. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did accordingly.

756- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: One of my paternal uncles prepared food for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "I like that you would (come to) have food in my house, and offer prayer in it." He came, and in the house, there was one of the (straw) mats (made of the leafstalk of date-palms, which grew dark because of use). He (the Prophet) ordered that one of its corners should be swept and water be sprinkled on it; and then he offered prayer and we prayed with him.

[9] Purifying And Perfuming Mosques

757- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who takes (anything that causes) harm out of the mosque, Allah will build for him a house in the Garden."

He took gravel and scraped it off; and said: "If anyone of you wanted to spit he should spit neither in front of him nor on his right but he could spit either on his left or under his left foot."

762- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a sputum on the (direction of the) Qiblah (on the wall) of the mosque, thereupon he grew angry so much that (the colour of) his face turned red. He scraped it off . when he finished from the prayer, He said: "Whenever any one of you is praying, Allah is in front of him; so let none spit in front of him in the prayer."

[11] It Is Forbidden To Cry Out (In Search) For Lost Things In The Mosques

765- It is narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Buraidah from his father that after The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had offered the prayer (with the people), a man stood up and cried out in the mosque saying: "Who did (find and) call (me) out for the red camel (which is my lost thing)?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "May you not find it! Verily, the mosques have been built only for what they have been built" (i.e. for mentioning Allah, praying, reciting and studying Qur'an and so on).

766- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade crying out and calling for lost things in the mosques.

767- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Whoever hears a man crying out in search for a lost thing in the mosque, let him say, in reply to him: "May it not be brought back to you by Allah!" indeed, mosques have not been built for that (purpose of crying out and calling for lost things)."

768- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you find (no place to offer the prayer) but the sheepfolds and the kneeling places of camels around the water, then, you might offer prayer in the sheepfolds, but you should not pray in the kneeling places of camels around the water."

[13] The Supplication (Which One Might Say) On Entering The Mosque

771- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Al-Hasan from his mother (Fatimah, the daughter of Al-Husain Ibn Ali) from Fatimah, the daughter of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the mosque, he would say: "In the Name of Allah, and Peace be upon the Messenger of Allah: O Allah! Forgive for me my sins, and open for me the gates of Your Mercy!" and whenever he came out (of the mosque) he would say: "In the Name of Allah, and Peace be upon the Messenger of Allah: O Allah! Forgive for me my sins, and open for me the gates of Your Bounty!"

772- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you enters the mosque, let him salute with peace the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then say: "O Allah! Open for me the gates of Your Mercy!" and when he comes out, let him say: "O Allah! I ask You (to give me out) of Your Bounty!"

773- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you enters the mosque, let him greet with peace the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and then say: "O Allah! Open for me the gates of Your Mercy!" and when he comes out, let him greet with peace the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and say: "O Allah! Protect me from (the evil of) Satan, the despised!"

774 ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بَكْرِ بْنُ أَبِي شَيْبَةَ. حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ

performs ablution perfectly, and goes to the mosque, and nothing prompts him (to come out) but the prayer, i.e. he has no intention (when he comes out) but to offer the prayer (in congregation): never he takes a step (towards the mosque) but that with it Allah Almighty raises him a degree, and plots out a sin from him until he enters the mosque; and when he enters the mosque, he becomes in (the state of) prayer as long as (waiting) the prayer causes him to remain (in the mosque)."

775- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the prayer is established, do not come to it while rushing: but you should come to it walking, with tranquility; and pray whatever you catch up, and complete what you miss (of it)."

776- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Should I not guide you to that, with which Allah plots out sins from you, and increases you in good deeds?" they said: "Yes O Messenger of Allah." He said: "It is to offer ablution perfectly, no matter harmful (the water might be particularly when it is severe cold); to take more steps towards the mosques (when one's house is far from the mosque to offer obligatory prayers in congregation); and to wait the (coming) prayer after (offering the current) prayer."

777- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: He, who likes to meet Allah tomorrow as a Muslim, should keep on offering those (obligatory congregational) prayers, wherever the call for prayer is pronounced for them (i.e. in the mosques). That is because Allah has laid down for your Prophet the ways of right guidance, from amongst which are those (obligatory prayers to be performed in congregation). If each of you prays in his house, you would give up the tradition of your Prophet; and if you give up the tradition of your Prophet, you would go astray. I witnessed the time when no one failed to attend the (congregational) prayer except a hypocrite, whose hypocrisy was clear; and I saw a man, (though being sick, forced against himself and) walked between two persons (as being supported by them in order to attend the prayer) until he entered into the row (of praying people). No man performs ablution perfectly, then aims at the mosque but that Allah records a good deed in his favour for every step he takes, raises him a degree, and effaces a sin from him because of it.

778- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who comes out (from his house) to (offer) the prayer, and says: "O Allah! I

I felt pain for his state and said to him: "O so and so! 791- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I was about to order that the prayer should be established and order somebody to lead the people in the prayer. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you hear the call (for the prayer)?" I answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "Then, I could get no concession for you."

793- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who hears the call (for the prayer) and does not come (to offer it in the same mosque from which the call is pronounced), the prayer (he offers somewhere else) will not be accepted, unless he has a legal excuse."

794- It is narrated on the authority of both Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar that they heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said, while being on (his pulpit, made of wood) sticks: "Let people desist from their leaving (offering prayers in)congregation, otherwise, Allah will seal up their hearts, and they will be of the heedless."

795- It is narrated on the authority of Usamah Ibn Zaid that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let men desist from their leaving (offering prayers in)congregation, otherwise, I will burn their houses."

799- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you enters the mosque, he stays in prayer as long as the prayer causes him to remain (in his sitting); and the angels ask for Allah's Blessing upon anyone of you, as long as he is in his sitting in which he has offered the prayer, and does not break his ablution, nor does he do harm in it, saying: "O Allah! Forgive him! O Allah! Bestow mercy upon him! O Allah! Turn to him in repentance!"

He said: "I say: "O Allah! Keep me away from my mistakes as far as You've made the East from the West! O Allah! Purify me from my sins as the white garment (is cleansed) from filth! O Allah! Wash me from my errors with water, snow and hailstones!""

825- It is narrated on the authority of Qaza'ah that he said: I asked Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri about the prayer of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he said: "There is no good for you in that (knowledge unless you should act upon it)." I said: "Make it clear, Allah's Mercy be upon you!" he said: "The Zhuhr prayer used to be established for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and anyone of us would set out to Baqi' to answer the call of nature, then come to offer ablution, and return to find that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was still in the first rak'ah of the Zhuhr (prayer).

826- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ma'mar that he said: We asked Khabbab: "By which did you know the recitation of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" during both Zhuhr and Asr (prayers)?" he said: "By the movement of his beard."

He used to make long the first two rak'ahs and shorten the other two of the Zhuhr prayer; and he further used to make short (the first two rak'ahs of) the Asr (prayer).

828- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: Once, thirty of those who attended (the holy battle of) Badr from amongst the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gathered and said: "Let's guess (how much is) the recitation of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in these prayers (in which the recitation is) not public." They agreed unanimously (in the result): they guessed his recitation in the first rak'ah of the Zhuhr (prayer as much as) thirty Holy Verses, and in the second rak'ah the half of that; and they estimated the same (first two rak'ahs) in the Asr (as short as) half of the (amount recited in the)last two rak'ahs of the Zhuhr.

830- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" often led us in the Zhuhr prayer, and (sometimes) we heard from him one after one of the Holy Verses from the Surahs of Adh-Dhariyat and Luqman.

Jubair said in another narration: When I heard him saying: "Were they created of nothing, or were they themselves the creators?... Then let (Such a) listener of theirs produce a manifest proof." (35:38) my heart was about to fly (because of the clear emergence of the truth as distinct from falsehood).

833- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the Maghrib prayer: "Say: O you who reject faith!" (Al-Kafirun) and: "Say: He is Allah, the One and Only" (Al-Ikhlas)

[11] Reciting Behind The Imam

837- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No prayer is valid for such as does not recite in it the Opening of the Book (i.e. Al-Fatihah)."

842- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ad-Darda that a man asked him: Should I recite (Qur'an in the prayer) while the imam is reciting? He said: A man asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Is it (binding) to recite in every prayer?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered in the affirmative. On that a man from the people said: "This (commandment) is then obligatory."

843- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: We used to recite behind the imam Al-Fatihah and another Surah in (each one of) the first two rak'ahs of both Zhuhr and Asr prayers, and only Al-Fatihah in (each of) the last two rak'ahs.

[12] The Two Intervals Made By The Imam

844- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan from Samurah Ibn Jundub that he said: There are two intervals (made by the imam in the prayer) which I (learnt and) retained in memory from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But, Imran Ibn Al-Husain rejected that, thereupon we wrote to Ubai Ibn Ka'b in Medina (seeking his opinion), and he wrote (in reply to our message) that Samurah had told the truth and he really) retained in memory (that from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"). Sa'id said: We asked Qatadah about those intervals, and he said: "(The first is) when he (the imam) assumes the prayer, and (the other is) when he finishes from the recitation." But others say that (the other is) when he recites: "Not of those upon whom wrath falls, nor of those who go astray." He (the narrator) said: but they used to admire that whenever the imam finishes from the recitation, he should keep silence in order to be able to restore his breaths.

845- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan that Samurah said: I retained in memory two intervals (made by the Prophet) in the prayer: one just before the recitation, and the other just before bowing. But Imran Ibn Al-Husain rejected that, thereupon they wrote to Ubai Ibn Ka'b in Medina (to seek his opinion) and he gave trust to Samurah (in what he said).

To You be the praise"; when he prostrates, you should prostrate; and when he offers prayer sitting, you all should offer prayer sitting."

847- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the imam recites, you should keep silent; and when he becomes in the sitting posture, the first thing with which anyone of you should celebrate is (to recite) the Testification (Tashahhud)."

848- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered prayer with his companions, and we thought it was the Morning prayer. (After finishing from the prayer) he said: "Has anyone of you recited (Qur'an during the prayer)?" a man said: "I've done." On that he said: "I have said (to myself): What is the matter with me that (I feel as if) someone is fighting with me (to have control) over the Qur'an!"

849- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered prayer with us...and the rest is the same with the following addition: Afterwards they came to keep silent whenever the imam recited loudly.

852- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If the reciter (the imam) says "Amen" you should say "Amen", for when the "Amen" of anyone agrees with that of the angels, his earlier sins will be forgiven for him."

859- It is narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Al-Huwairith that whenever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" magnified (Allah to assume the prayer), he would raise his hands until he would make them near his ears; and whenever he bowed, he would do the same; and whenever he raised his head from bowing he would do the same.

One said: "So and so has his (greatest) fortune in horses." Another said: "So and so has his fortune in camels." A third one said: "So and so has his portion in sheep." A fourth one said: "So and so has his fortune in slaves." When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished his prayer, and raised his head at the conclusion of the (last) rak'ah, he said: "O Allah, our Lord! To You be praise, as much as filling both the heavens and the earth, and whatever You please afterwards. O Allah! There is none to withhold what You give, as well as there is none to give what You withhold! Verily, the fortune of anyone of good luck (or the knowledge and effort of anyone endued with knowledge and earnestness, no matter fortunate he might be) would not avail him against You" (i.e. instead of his obedience to You, and Your helping him succeed in his life). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prolonged his voice in (his utterance of) "the fortune" in order that they would know that it was something very different from what they said.

[19] Concerning Prostration

880- It is narrated on the authority of Maimunah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prostrated, he would make a space between his forearms (and sides), so much wide that if a young goat liked to pass between his hands (and sides), it would be able to do.

881- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Aqram Al-Khuza'i from his father that he said: I was with my father in the bottom of Namirah when a caravan came upon us, and then alighted in one side of the way. My father said to me: "Stick to your young sheep until I go to those people and enquire from them (about their identities)." He set out, and I came closer and behold! He was the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (with his companions)! I attended the prayer, and I prayed with them; and (during the prayer) I could see the Ibn Majah says: The people say Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah; and Abu Bakr Ibn Abu Shaibah tells that the people say Abdullah Ibn Ubaidullah.

(...)It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Aqram Al-Khuza'i from his father from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and he mentioned the same.

882- It is narrated on the authority of Wa'il Ibn Hujr that he said: I saw that whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell in prostration, he would place his knees before (placing) both his hands; and whenever he stood from prostration, he would raise his hands before (raising) both his knees.

883- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've been commanded to prostrate on seven (parts of) bones."

884- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've been commanded to prostrate on seven (parts of) bones, and to tuck up neither hair nor garment (while being in the posture of prostration to safeguard them from dust)." Ibn Tawus said: My father said: Those are both hands, knees, (the toes of the) feet; and he regarded both forehead and nose one (part of bone).

885- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Abbas Ibn Abd Al-Muttalib that he heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "When a servant (of Allah) prostrates (in the prayer), seven organs (of his body) would prostrate with him: (The forehead and the tip of the nose in) his face, his knees, and (the toes of) his feet."

886- It is narrated on the authority of Ahmar, one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: We used to feel pity for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", because of (the difficulty he would suffer by) the wide space he would make between his forearms and sides whenever he prostrated (during the prayer).

[20] Glorifying Allah In Bowing And both Prostrations

887- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir Al-Juhani that he said: When it was revealed: "Glorify the Name of your Lord, Most Great" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "Utter this (glorification of Allah) in your bowing." (I.e. to say: "Glorified be my Lord, Most Great.") Then, when it was revealed: "Glorify the Name of your Lord, Most High" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to us: "Utter this (glorification) in your prostration." (I.e. to say: "Glorified be my Lord, Most High.")

888- It is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah Ibn Al-Yaman that he heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said whenever he bowed: "Glorified be my Lord, Most Great" thrice; and whenever he prostrated, he would say: "Glorified be my Lord, Most High" thrice.

889- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" more often said in both his bowing and prostration: "Glory be to You, O Allah, with Your Praises (I Exalt You)! O Allah! Forgive for me (my sins)!" thus he construed (and acted upon the significance of) the Qur'an.

890- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you bows down (in the prayer), let him say in his bowing: "Glorified be my Lord, Most Great" thrice; and if he does so, his bowing then is complete. Furthermore, when anyone of you falls in prostration, let him say in his prostration: "Glorified be my Lord, Most High" thrice; and if he does so, his prostration is complete: this (amount of celebration) is the minimum (requirement of completion)."

[21] Moderation In Prostration

891- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you falls in prostration (in the prayer), let him be moderate, and let not him stretch out his forearms (with his elbows on the ground) like a dog's stretching out."

Comment: (The main point here is to put one's hands on the ground, raise the elbows, and keep the abdomen away from the thighs, out of showing humility and activity, unlike the way a dog stretches out its hands flat with the elbows on the ground)

892- It is narrated on the authority of Anas: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Be moderate in prostration and none of you should prostrate while stretching his forearms flat (on the ground) like a dog."

[22] Sitting Between Both Prostrations

893- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his head from bowing, he would not prostrate until he became straight in standing; and whenever he fell in prostration and raised his head (from prostration) he would not fall in prostration (once again) until he became straight in sitting posture, spreading out his left foot.

894- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Do not sit (stretching out your legs, and placing both your hands and buttocks on the ground like a dog) between both prostrations."

895- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Ali! Do not sit stretching out your legs, and placing both your hands and buttocks on the ground like a dog (between both prostrations)."

896- It is narrated on the authority of Anas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "When you raise your head from prostration, do not sit stretching out your legs, and placing both your hands and buttocks on the ground as a dog does: (on the contrary) put your buttocks between your feet, and get the back of your feet stuck to the ground."

[23] What One Says Between Both Prostrations

897- It is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say between both prostrations (in the prayer): "O my Lord! Forgive for me! O my Lord! Forgive for me!"

898- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say between both prostrations in the night (supererogatory) prayer: "O my Lord! Forgive for me, bestow Your Mercy upon me! Relieve me (of difficulties)! Bestow sustenance upon me! Raise me high (in degree)!"

[24] Concerning The Testification (Tashahhud)

899- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud: Whenever we prayed behind The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" we used to recite (in sitting): "Peace be upon Allah before His servants! Peace be upon Gabriel and Michael! Peace be upon so-and-so and so-and-so" in reference to the angels. Once Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard us and said: "Do not say: "Peace be upon Allah", for indeed Allah Himself is the (source of) Peace; and when you sit (in the prayer) then you should say: "All the compliments, prayers and good things be due to Allah; peace, Allah's mercy and blessings be upon you, O Prophet. Peace be upon us an upon the righteous servants of Allah. (At-tahiyyatu lillah, was-salawatu wat-taiyyibat. As-Salamu alayka ayyuhan-nabiyyu warahmatullahi wabarakatuh. As-Salamu alayna wa'ala ibadillahi As-Salihin). (The Prophet added: "If you say that, it will reach all the righteous servants in the heaven and the earth"). I testify that there is no god but Allah, and I testify that Muhammad is His servant and His Apostle". (Ash'hadu an la ilaha illallahu; wa'ash'hadu anna Muhammadan abduhu warasuluh).

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters.

(...) It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to teach us the testification (Tashahhud)...and he mentioned the same.

900- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" taught us the testification (Tashahhud) in the same way he taught us a Surah from The Holy Qur'an. He said: "All the blessed compliments, prayers and good things be due to Allah; peace, Allah's mercy and blessings be upon you, O Prophet. Peace be upon us an on the pious slaves of Allah. I testify that there is no god but Allah, and I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah." (At-tahiyyatu Al-mubarakat, as-salawatu at-taiyyibat lillah. As-Salamu alayka ayyuhan-nabiyyu warahmatullahi wabarakatuh. As-Salamu alayna wa'ala ibadillahi As-Salihin. Ash'hadu an la ilaha illallahu; wa'ash'hadu anna Muhammadan rasulullah).

901- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us and explained to us our ways and instructed us (how to offer)

our prayer. He (The Prophet) said: "When you offer the prayer...and anyone (of you) comes to the sitting posture (after the second Rak'ah for Tashahhud) the first words of every one amongst you should be: "All the compliments, good things and prayers be due to Allah; peace, Allah's mercy and blessings be upon you, O Prophet. [25] Asking For (Allah's) Prayer Upon The Prophet

903- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri: We said: "O Messenger of Allah! This is how to salute you with peace, which we have known (from the Tashahhud): How would we ask for (Allah's) Prayer upon you?" He said: "You might say: "O Allah! Send Your Prayers upon Muhammad, Your servant and Messenger, in the same way You sent Your Prayers upon Abraham; and send Your Blessings upon Muhammad and the family of Muhammad in the same way You sent Your Blessings upon Abraham!"

904- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abu Laila: Ka'b Ibn Ujrah met me and said: "Won't I present to you something?" (Abd Ar-Rahman said: "Yes." Ka'b said: "Once, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to us, thereupon we asked him:

"we know how to greet you with peace: How should we ask for (Allah's) prayer upon you?" He said: "Say: "O Allah! Send Your Blessings upon Muhammad and upon the family of Muhammad, as You sent Your Blessings upon Abraham: You are All-Praiseworthy, All-Glorious.""

905- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi: We said: "O Messenger of Allah! We've been commanded to ask for (Allah's) Prayer upon you: How then should we invoke for (Allah's) prayer upon you?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Say: "O Allah! Send Your prayer upon Muhammad, his wives and offspring, as You sent Your prayer upon Abraham. O Allah! 906- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that he said: When you ask for (Allah's) Prayer upon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", do that perfectly, for you do not know, perhaps this would be displayed to him. They (his companions) said to him: Then, instruct us (how to do so). He said: You might say: "O Allah! Send Your Prayer, Mercy and Blessings upon the chief of all the Messengers, the imam of all the righteous, the Seal of all the Prophets: Muhammad, Your servant and Messenger, the master (who should be followed in) goodness, the leader to goodness, and the Messenger of mercy! O Allah! Raise him up to the Station of Praise, because of which the foremost and the last (generations) would rejoice at him. O Allah! Send Your prayer upon Muhammad and upon the family of Muhammad, as You sent Your prayer upon Abraham and the family of Abraham in the worlds: indeed, You are All-Praiseworthy, All-Glorious. O Allah! Send Your Blessings upon Muhammad and upon the family of Muhammad, as You sent Your Blessings upon Abraham and the family of Abraham in the worlds: indeed, You are All-Praiseworthy, All-Glorious.""

907- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amir Ibn Rabie'ah from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No Muslim asks for (Allah's) Prayer (and Blessings) upon me but that the angels ask for (Allah's) Prayer (and Blessings) upon him as much as He asks for (Allah's) Prayer upon me: so, let a servant do that less or more (since whatever he does is returned to him)!"

908- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who forgets to ask (for Allah's) Prayer upon me, has, indeed, lost the way to the Garden."

[26] What Is Said After The Testification And Asking For (Allah's) Prayer Upon The Prophet

909- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you finishes from the last testification (Tashahhud), let him seek refuge (with Allah) from four things: from the punishment of (the fire of) Hell; from the punishment of the grave; from the affliction of both life and death; and from the affliction of the Imposter-Messiah."

910- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked a man: "What do you say in the prayer?" he said: "I recite the testification (Tashahhud), and then ask Allah (to admit me to) the Garden, and seek refuge (with Him) from the fire (of Hell). By Allah, I'm not well-versed in such hidden words as you and Mu'adh say (therewith to invoke Allah)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Should we use hidden words pertaining to it (asking Allah for the Garden and seeking with Him from the fire of Hell)?"

[27] Beckoning (With The Finger To Affirm Monotheism) In The Prayer

911- It is narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Numair Al-Khuza'i from his father that he said: I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" placing his right hand on his right thigh during the prayer, beckoning with his (index) finger (during his reciting the Tashahhud, to affirm monotheism).

912- It is narrated on the authority of Wa'il Ibn Hujr that he said: I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having made a circle with both his thumb and middle finger, and raised the (index finger) next to them, therewith he beckoned (to affirm monotheism) during (his reciting) the testification.

913- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Whenever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat (to recite Tashahhud) in the prayer, he would place both his hands on his knees, and raise his right index next to the thumb, therewith he would beckon (to affirm monotheism), spreading out the left (hand) on his (left) knee.

921- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah Ibn Jundub that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the imam greets with peace (at the conclusion of the prayer), you should (greet with peace with the intention to) return it back to him."

Comment: (That's because they depend upon his supplication, and say "Amen" in response to his invocation: how then should he give himself preference over them by such a supplication?)

[32] What Is Said After The End Salutation

924- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uttered the End Salutation (at the conclusion of the prayer), he would not stay in such a sitting posture (facing the Qiblah) more than (a period of time sufficient for him) to say: "O Allah! You are the (Source of) Peace and Perfection; and from You peace is (expected): Blessed be You, Lord of Majesty, Bounty and Honour."

925- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Morning prayer and uttered the End Salutation, he would say: "O Allah! 926- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are two things, to which no Muslim person sticks regularly but that he will be admitted to the Garden; and although they are too easy (to do), few are those who act upon them: (They are) to glorify Allah ten times, declare the Praises (of Allah) ten times, and magnify (Allah) ten times following every prayer (of the five obligatory prayers)." I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having uttered it with the help of his hand (and he resumed): "Those are one hundred and fifty utterances, even though they are recorded as one thousand and five hundred (good deeds) in the balance (of deeds). When one goes to bed, let him glorify (Allah thirty-three times), declare the Praises (of Allah thirty-three times), and magnify (Allah thirty-three times, and complete the number to) one hundred times (by uttering any of them more once): those are one hundred (utterances) even though they are recorded as one thousand (good deeds) in the balance (of deeds). Which of you does commit two thousand and five hundred evil deeds everyday?" (and in case there is such a one, those two thousand and five hundred good deeds would avert them) they (the companions) asked: "Why does one not stick to those (although they are too easy to do)?" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan comes to anyone of you during the prayer, asking him to remember such and such a thing until he finishes (from the prayer) with no mind; and (when he goes to bed) he comes to him in his lying place, and keeps inciting him to sleep until he sleeps (without saying anything)."

927- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: It was said to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (or I said to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" according to Sufyan): "O Messenger of Allah! Those of great wealth and riches have received (the greatest portion of) the reward: they (do and) say as we (do and) say, but they spend (out of their property) and we do not (have that out of which we would) spend." He said to me: "Should I not tell you of a thing, that if you do it, you will catch up such as surpassed you, and none would be able to excel you? It is to glorify, praise and magnify Allah following every (obligatory) prayer thirty-three times, thirty-three times, and thirty-four times." Sufyan said: I do not know which of them (should be said) thirty-four times.

928- It is narrated on the authority of Thawban that he said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished from his prayer, he would ask for (Allah's) Forgiveness thrice, and say: "O Allah! You are the (Source of) Peace and Perfection; and from You peace is (expected): Blessed be You, Lord of Majesty, Bounty and Honour."

No doubt, I saw that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" more often turned away towards his left side.

931- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that he said: I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having turned away (after he had finished) from the prayer (once) to his right side and (once) to his left side.

932- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" uttered the End Salutation, the women would stand (to leave the mosque) once he finished his salutation; and he would keep in his place for a while before he would stand (and leave, so that men would imitate him in that conduct, giving way for women to depart first).

But the caller of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pronounced (the following statement that) "You should offer prayer in your dwelling places!"

Allah is Greater! I testify that there is no god but Allah! I testify that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah!" then he ordered him (instead of saying: "Come to the prayer! Come to success!" to call the people to pray at their dwelling places. The people asked him astonishingly: "What is that which you've done?" on that he said: "No doubt, this was done by him who was much better than me (i.e. The Messenger of Allah): do you like me to put people to trouble (and force them to set out from their homes in order to come to me after plunging into mud and slippery to their knees?"

[36] What Screens The Praying One

940- It is narrated on the authority of Musa Ibn Talhah from his father: We used to offer the prayer, and the animals would pass in front of us. We mentioned that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said: "If anyone of you puts in front of him such a thing as even the back of a saddle, then, (he should pray and) whatever passes in front of it would not harm him."

941- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: On journey, a spear used to be brought out to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he would fix it, and offer prayer towards it.

943- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you (stands to) offer prayer, let him put a thing in front of him, and if he does not find that, let him fix a stick, and if he does not find that, let him draw a line, and then (let him offer the prayer, since) whatever passes in front of it would cause no harm to him."

[37] Passing In Front Of The Praying One

944- It is narrated on the authority of Busr Ibn Sa'id that he said: They sent me to Zaid Ibn Khalid to seek his religious verdict concerning the passage (of people) in front of the praying one, thereupon he related to me from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "To stand for forty is better for one than to pass in front of him (the praying one)." Sufyan (a sub-narrator) said: I do not know whether he meant forty years, months, mornings, or hours.

945- It is narrated on the authority of Busr Ibn Sa'id that he said: Zaid Ibn Khalid sent to Abu Juhaim Al-Ansari, to ask him whether he heard from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" something pertaining to such as passes in front of a praying man, thereupon he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "If anyone of you knows whatever (sins) he carries when he passes in front of his brother while he is praying, surely, (he would be sure to know that) to stand for forty (Sufyan said: I do not know whether it is forty years, forty months, or forty days) is better for him than to do so."

946- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you knows whatever (sins) he carries once he passes in front of his brother, while he is offering prayer, (he will be sure to know that) to stand for one hundred years is much better for him than to take a single step (in his passage in front of the praying one)."

[38] What Interrupts The Prayer

947- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering prayer (with his companions) in Arafah when I and Al-Fadl came riding a she-ass. We passed in front of a portion of the row (of the praying people) and then we dismounted and left it to enter the row (and catch up the prayer). (This means that the passage of the ass does not interrupt the prayer)

948- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering prayer in the chamber of Umm Salamah when Abdullah or Umar Ibn Abu Salamah passed in front of him, thereupon he beckoned with his hand with the result that the boy retreated. Then Zainab Bint Umm Salamah passed (in front of him), and he beckoned with his hand as such (so that she would return), but she went on (and the Prophet completed the prayer anyway). When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished from the prayer, he said: "Those (women) are more ready (to disobey and break the rules)." (This is why the boy retreated and the girl went on passing in front of him while he was praying, even though this did not interrupt his prayer)

949- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both the black dog and the menstruating woman (or the girl who has attained the age of menses) interrupt the prayer (one is offering if they pass in front of him)."

950- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dog, the woman and the donkey interrupt the prayer (one is offering, if they pass in front of him)."

951- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The woman, the dog, and the donkey interrupt the prayer (one is offering, if they pass in front of him)."

952- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn As-Samit that Abu Dharr told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "In case there is nothing in front of a man, such a thing as even equal to the back of a saddle, his prayer would be interrupted by (the passage of) a woman, an ass, or a black dog." I (the sub-narrator) said: "What does distinguish the black dog from the red dog?" He said: "I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as you ask me, and he said: "The black dog is (likely equal to) a Satan.""

[39] You Should Avert (What Is Harmful) As Much As You Could

953- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan Al-Urani that a mention was made of those things which interrupt the prayer in the presence of Ibn Abbas; and they talked about the dog, the donkey and the woman, thereupon Ibn Abbas said: "What do you say about the goat? One day, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering

976- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud Al-Ansari that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pass his hand over our shoulders (to rest assured of straightening the rows) just before the beginning of the prayer, and say: "Do not be at variance (of your rows) lest your hearts will fall in dispute. Let those of sound minds and good understanding stand behind me (in the prayer), and then those who follow them (in degree) and then those who follow them."

977- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" liked to have the Muhajirs (the Emigrants) and the Ansar (Supporters) stand behind him (in the prayer), in order to learn from him.

978- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" observed that some of his companions were in the rear (of rows), thereupon he said to them: "Come forward, and follow me directly, and let those to come after you follow you! There will be still some people (who like to be) in the rear until Allah Almighty brings them backward."

[46] Who Has More Right To Be The Imam

979- It is narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Al-Huwairith that he said: I and a companion of mine came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and when we wanted to leave, he said to us: "When the prayer is due, let anyone of you pronounce the Adhan (for the prayer), and establish the prayer, and let the older among you lead the prayer."

980- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let none lead the people in prayer but the one who recites Allah's Book (i.e. the Qur'an) best among them; and if they all are equal in reciting the Qur'an, let none lead them but the earliest of migration among them; and in case they all are equal in the time of migration, let none lead them but the

[47] What The Imam Should Do

981- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hazim that he said: Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi used to present the young men of his people to lead them in the prayer; and it was said to him: "How do you do so, and you have precedence (of embracing Islam as it is known) for you?" he said: No doubt, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Verily, the imam is responsible: if he does good, (the benefit of) that will be for both him and them, and if he does evil, (the loss of) that will be against him but not against them."

982- It is narrated on the authority of Salamah Bint Al-Hurr, the sister of Kharashah, that she said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "A time will come upon the people, that they will stand (to offer the prayer, and push one another to avert the imamate from themselves) for an hour until they will find no imam to lead them in the prayer."

983- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ali Al-Hamadani that he set out in a ship having (among its riders) Uqbah Ibn Amir Al-Juhani; and when one of the (obligatory) prayers was due, we asked him to lead us, and said to him: "You have more right among us to do so, for you are one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." But he refused and said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who leads people in the prayer and he acts in it properly, the (reward of the) prayer is for him and them; but if he falls short to do so properly, the (loss) will be against him, and not against them."

[48] When One Leads A People In The Prayer, Let Him Cut It Short

984- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud that he said: A man came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I fail to attend the Morning prayer for so and so makes it long with us." I've never seen the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" more angry in giving advice than he was on this day. He said: "O people! From amongst you, there are such as cause people to have aversion (towards the good deeds)! Whoever of you leads the people in the prayer, let him cut it short, for among them, there are the sick, the weak, and the one having some job to do."

985- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to cut short the prayer, even though he would offer it perfectly.

986- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: Once, Mu'adh Ibn Jabal Al-Ansari led his companions in the Isha prayer, and he prolonged it upon us, thereupon a man from us (left the prayer and) turned away, and prayed alone. When Mu'adh was told about him, he said: "He is a hypocrite." When the news of that reached the man, he visited the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him of what Mu'adh had (done and) said. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to Mu'adh): "Do you intend to put people to trial O Mu'adh? when you lead people in the prayer, you might recite (such short Surahs as) Ash-Shams, Al-A'la, Al-Lail, or (the Surah of) Iqra'."

987- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Abu Al-As that he said: The last thing which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded me to do when he appointed me as the governor of Ta'if was that he said to me: "O Uthman! Cut short the prayer (when you lead the people), and regard the people (and deal with all of them as you deal) with the weakest among them, for among them are the old, the young, the sick, the one (whose house is) far (from the mosque), and the one having some job to do."

988- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Abu Al-As that he said: The last thing which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me was: "When you lead a people (in the prayer), cut it short with them."

[49] The Imam Cuts Short The Prayer When Something Happens

989- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When I stand for prayer, I intend to prolong it. But when I hear the cries of a child, I soon would cut it short, as I know that the child's mother would feel so much sorry for his cries."

990- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Abu Al-As that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When I hear the cry of the child (while I'm leading the prayer), I would cut short the prayer (on knowledge of his mother's sorrow for him)."

[50] Making Rows (In The Prayer)

992- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Samurah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would you not align (in rows) in the same way as the angels align in the Presence of their Lord?" we asked: "How do the angels align (in rows) in the Presence of their Lord?" he said: "They complete the first rows, and stick to one another in the row."

993- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Straighten your rows (in the prayer), for making straight the rows is an essential part therewith the prayer is complete."

994- It is narrated on the authority of An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to straighten the row (of the praying people) until he would make it (as sharply upright) as a spear or an arrow shaft. Once, he saw a man, whose chest was bulging out of the row. Upon this, he said: "You should rather straighten your rows otherwise, Allah would create dissention (and hatred) among you."

995- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah and His angels invoke prayer (and blessings) upon such as completes the rows (in the prayer); and whoever fills a space (in the row), Allah raises him up a degree with it."

[51] The Superiority Of The First Row

996- It is narrated on the authority of Irbad Ibn Sariyah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to ask for (Allah's) Forgiveness thrice for (those of) the first row (in the mosque), and only once for (those of) the second row.

997- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Verily, Allah and His angels invoke prayer (and blessings) upon (those of) the first row (in the congregational prayer)."

1004- It is narrated on the authority of Hilal Ibn Yasaf that he said: Ziyad Ibn Abu Al-Ja'd caught hold of my hand, and made me sit with an old man in Raqqah, called Wabisah Ibn Ma'bad, who said: Once, a man prayed alone behind the row thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to repeat (the prayer).

1006- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib that he said: Whenever we offered prayer behind the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", from amongst the things we liked was that we would stand on his right (i.e. in the right portion of the row; and that's because it is said that whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer, he more often would turn away from the right side.)

1007- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that it was said to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "The left side of the mosque has become idle (for the people deserted it, and rather liked to be in the right side)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who inhabits the left side of the mosque, a double reward will be recorded for him."

1009- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that Umar said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Would that you take of the Station of Abraham a place of prayer!" then, it was revealed: "And take of the Station of Abraham a place of prayer!"

1010- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib that he said: We kept offering prayer with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" towards Jerusalem for eighteen months. Two months after he had come to Medina, the Qiblah was turned away to the Ka'bah. Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered prayer towards Jerusalem, he would more often turn his face in the sky, and Allah Almighty knew, from the heart of His Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" his desire for (turning the Qiblah towards) the Ka'bah. Gabriel ascended (to the heaven), and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept following him with his sight while he was coming up from the earth to the heaven, looking forward to what he would bring him (from the Divine Revelation). Then, Allah revealed: "We see the turning of your face (for guidance) to the heavens: now shall We turn you to a Qiblah that shall please you. Turn then your face in the direction of the Sacred Mosque: wherever you are, turn your faces in that direction." (Al-Baqarah 144) somebody came to us and said: "The Qiblah has been turned to the Ka'bah." At that time we have offered two rak'ahs (of a four-rak'ah prayer) towards Jerusalem, and we were bowing (just by the time the comer brought us the news). Then, we turned (our faces to the Ka'bah) and completed our prayer we were offering. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Gabriel! What is the matter pertaining to our prayers we offered towards Jerusalem?" on that Allah Almighty revealed: "And never would Allah make your faith of no effect. For Allah is to all people most surely full of Kindness, Most Merciful." (Al-Baqarah:143)

1011- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The whole space) between the East and the West, acts as a Qiblah (particularly for him who is on journey and is put to confusion)."

[57] When One Enters The Mosque, Let Not Him Sit Until He Offers (A Two-Rak'ah) Prayer

1012- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When one enters the mosque, let not him sit until he offers a two-rak'ah prayer."

[58] When One Eats Garlic Let Not Him Approach The Mosque

1014- It is narrated on the authority of Ma'dan Ibn Abu Talhah Al-Ya'muri that once Umar stood and delivered a sermon on Friday, in which he praised Allah and lauded him, and then he said: "O people, you eat these two (offensive) plants and these are onion and garlic, which I find nothing but vicious. During the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" I saw that whenever the (offensive) smell of these two were detected in a person in the mosque, he would be caught hold by the hand and driven away to Baqi'. So, he, who finds it necessary to eat them, let him cause (their odor) to die by cooking them well."

1015- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who eats from this (offensive) tree of garlic, let him cause no harm to us in this mosque of us with its (vicious smell)!" Ibrahim (a sub-narrator) said: my father used to add to that both onion and leek, tracing up that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". i.e. he added to the narration of Abu Hurairah pertaining to the garlic.

1016- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who eats anything from that tree (of garlic) let not him come to the mosque!"

[59] When A Praying One Is Greeted, How Would He Return Back The Greeting

1017- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to the mosque of Quba' in order to offer prayer in it; and some men from the Ansar came and greeted him. I asked Suhaib, and he was with him: "How did the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" return back the greeting to them?" he said: "He beckoned with his hand."

1018- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me to do some job (for him) and (when I returned) I caught up with him while he was offering prayer. I greeted him, but he beckoned with his hand. When he finished (from the prayer) he invited me and said: "You've greeted me a while earlier just as I was offering prayer."

1019- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah: We used to greet (one another) during the prayer until it was said to us: "In the prayer one is occupied (by matters which are more serious)."

[60] When One Unknowingly Offers Prayer To A Direction Other Than That Of The Qiblah

1020- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amir Ibn Rabie'ah from his father: We were on journey with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when the sky became cloudy, and we fell in suspicion about (the direction of) the Qiblah. Anyway, we offered the prayer, and put a sign (on the direction to which we prayed, in order to know, when it would become clear, whether we were right or wrong). When the sun rose (we discovered that) we offered prayer towards a direction other than that of the Qiblah. We informed the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of that, thereupon Allah revealed: "To Allah belong the East and the West: whithersoever you turn, there is Allah's countenance. For Allah is All-Embracing, All-Knowing." (Al-Baqarah 115)

[61] When The Praying One Expectorates

1021- It is narrated on the authority of Tariq Ibn Abdullah Al-Muharibi that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When you are offering prayer, (and you find it necessary to spit) do not spit in front of you, nor on your right: but spit on your left side, or under your (left) foot."

1022- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a sputum on the (wall of the direction of the) Qiblah of the mosque. He turned to the people and said: "Why does anyone of you stand (for the prayer) facing his Lord, and then expectorate before Him? does anyone of you like to be made to stand facing another person and then he would expectorate in his face? so, if anyone of you wanted to expectorate, he should expectorate on his left. If he has no way to do that, he should do as such in his garment." (Isma'il, a sub-narrator, showed me: He spat in his garment and then (folded it and) rubbed its parts with one another).

1023- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Wa'il that once Hudhaifah saw Shabath Ibn Rib'i having spat in front of him, thereupon he said to him: O Shabath! Do not spit in front of you, for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that and said: "When a man stands for the prayer, Allah turns His Face towards him (and keeps so) until he turns away or does evil."

1024- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in the

1059- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered prostration in the Surah of Al-Inshiqaq. Abu Bakr Ibn Abu Shaibah said: This is from the narrations of Yahya Ibn Sa'id, and I've never heard anyone relating it other than him.

[72] Offering The Prayer Perfectly

1060- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting in one corner of the mosque when a man entered therein and offered the Prayer, and then came and paid salutation to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned his salutation and said: "Go back and pray, for you have not offered the Prayer." He again prayed as he had prayed before, and came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and saluted him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" returned the salutation and said: "Go back and perform the Prayer, for you have not offered the Prayer." (This act of repeating the Prayer was done thrice and) in the third time the person said: "Then, instruct me O Messenger of Allah!" He (the Prophet) said: "When you get up to pray, perform ablution perfectly, then face the Qiblah, magnify Allah, and then recite whatever available to you from The Qur'an, then bow down until you feel at ease in that position, then raise yourself and stand erect until you feel at ease in that position, then prostrate yourself until you feel at ease in that position, then, raise yourself and sit until you are straight while sitting; and do that in all your Prayers."

1061- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Ata that he said: I heard Abu Humaid As-Sa'idi in ten of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", including Abu Qatadah, having said: "I have the best knowledge among you of the (way of the) prayer of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." They asked him: "Why is that? By Allah! You've not had superiority over us in imitating his conduct, nor have you got the earliest companionship of him among all of us." He said: "No (I have done)." They said: "Then, show us (the way of the prayer of the Prophet if you have a true claim)." He said: "Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood for the prayer, he would magnify (Allah to assume the prayer) and raise his hands until he would make them at the side of his shoulders (and remain for a moment) until every organ (of his body) would rest in its place. Then, he would recite (Qur'an) and magnify (Allah), raising his hands until he would make them at the side of his shoulders. Then, he would bow, and place his palms on his knees, reclining (against them), without lowering nor raising his head, but (he would fix it) in a moderate way, and then (whenever he raised from bowing, he would) say: "Allah hears such as praises Him." Then, he would raise his hands until he would make them at the side of his shoulders (and remain for a moment) that every (part of his) bone would rest in its place. Then, he would fall (in prostration) to the ground, making a wide space between his forearms and sides. Then, he would raise his head (from prostration) and fold his left foot on which he would sit; and he would twist his toes (to the direction of the Qiblah) whenever he prostrated, and then he would prostrate and magnify (Allah) and sit on his left foot (for a while) until every (part of his) bone would return to its place. Then, he would stand and do the like of that in the coming rak'ah. When he stood after (the first) two rak'ahs,, he would raise his hands until he would make them at the side of his shoulders, the same as he did at the inauguration of the prayer, and complete the rest portion of his prayer as such, until it was the (last) prostration, after which he would conclude with the End Salutation, he would bring back one of his feet, and sit on his hip (inclined) to his left side,." They said: "You've told the truth! In this way the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer prayer."

1062- It is narrated on the authority of Amrah that she said: I asked A'ishah about the way of the prayer of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed ablution, he would put his hand in the utensil and say: "In the Name of Allah"; then he would perform ablution perfectly. Then, he would stand facing the Qiblah, and magnify (Allah to assume the prayer), raising his hands until he would make them next to his shoulders. Then, he would bow down, placing his hands on his knees, making his forearms far (from his sides); and then he would raise his head (from bowing), and stand straight; and his standing was longer than yours to some extent. Then, he would fall in prostration, placing his hands at the direction of the Qiblah, keeping his forearms as far as he could (from his sides) as I observed. Then, he would raise his head and sit on his left foot, and hold his right foot; and he disliked to fall on his left side.

[73] Shortening The Prayer On Journey

1063- It is narrated on the authority of Umar that he said: The journey prayer is (authentically) of two rak'ahs; the Friday prayer is of two rak'ahs; and the Id prayer also is of two rak'ahs: (all of them are) complete, and thus they are not shortened as it came on the tongue of (the Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1064- It is narrated on the authority of Umar that he said: The journey prayer is (authentically) of two rak'ahs; the Friday prayer is of two rak'ahs; and the prayer of both Al-Fitr and Al-Adha (i.e. the festival of breaking fast after the month of Ramadan, and that of Sacrifice on the tenth of Dhul-Hijjah) also is of two rak'ahs: (all of them are) complete, and thus they are not shortened as it came on the tongue of (the Prophet) Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1065- It is narrated on the authority of Ya'li Ibn Umayyah that he said: I asked Umar Ibn Al-Khattab saying: (Allah says) "When you travel through the earth, there is no blame on you if you shorten your prayers, for fear the Unbelievers may attack you" (Al-Baqarah 101) and now the people live in safety. On that he said: No doubt, I wondered at the same by which you are astonished now; and when I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, he said: "This is an (object of) charity with which Allah has endowed you: so, you should accept His Charity!"

1066- It is narrated on the authority of Umayyah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Khalid that he asked Abdullah Ibn Umar: We find in the Qur'an the prayer (which is offered) on residence, and the fear prayer; but we could not find the journey prayer! On that Abdullah said to him: Verily, Allah sent to us Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (as a Messenger) and we did know nothing (before him); and of a surety, we should imitate the conduct of Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as we saw it.

1067- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out of this city (Medina on journey), he would keep offering no more than two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer, barring the Maghrib) until he would return to it.

1068- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Allah has enjoined the prayer upon you, on the tongue of your Prophet Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": four rak'ahs on residence, and two on journey (except for the Maghrib prayer, which remains the same as it is on residence).

[74] Combining Two (Obligatory) Prayers On Journey

1069- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he told: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to combine both Maghrib and Isha prayers on journey, even though there was nothing to make him in a hurry, nor there was enemy in his pursuit, nor was there anything to fear. (I.e. there is no reason for combining prayers on journey according to the majority of religious scholars and learnt men.)

1070- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adh Ibn Jabal that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" combined both Zhuhr and Asr prayers, and both Maghrib and Isha prayers while being on journey, (when he set out) for the holy battle of Tabuk.

[75] Offering Voluntary (Supererogatory Prayers) On Journey

1071- It is narrated on the authority of Isa Ibn Hafs Ibn Asim Ibn Umar Ibn Al-Khattab that he said: My father told me: We were in the company of Ibn Umar on journey when he led us in the prayer and then we (finished from the prayer and) turned away with him, and he also turned away. When he turned his face, he saw some people offering prayer, thereupon he asked: "What are those doing?" I said: "They are offering the supererogatory prayer." On that he said: "Were I to offer supererogatory prayer (on journey), surely, it would have been (more fitting for) me to complete my (obligatory) prayers (which we shorten during the journey). O son of my brother! I accompanied the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and he offered no more than two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer) while being on journey until Allah took him (unto Him by death). Then, I accompanied Abu Bakr, and he offered no more than two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer on journey). Then, I accompanied Umar, and he offered no more than two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer on journey). Then, I accompanied Uthman, and he offered no more than two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer on journey) until Allah took all of them (unto Him). No doubt, Allah says: "You have indeed in the Messenger of Allah a beautiful pattern (of conduct) for any one whose hope is in Allah and the Final Day, and who engages much in the praise of Allah." (Al-Ahzab 21)

1072- It is narrated on the authority of Usamah Ibn Zaid that he said: I asked Tawus about the supererogatory prayer on journey, and Al-Hasan Ibn Muslim Ibn Yannaq was sitting with him. He said: Tawus told me that he heard Ibn Abbas having said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" enjoined the prayer on residence and the prayer on journey. On residence we used to offer (supererogatory) prayer before and after it (i.e. each obligatory prayer); and on journey, we used to offer (supererogatory) prayer before and after it.

[76] How Long Could A Traveler Keep Shortening The Prayer During His Stay In A Town

1073- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri that he said: I asked As-Sa'ib Ibn Yazid: what have you heard concerning the residence in Mecca? He said: I heard Al-Ala' Ibn Al-Hadrami having said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Emigrant is given three days after finishing (from ceremonies to stay in Mecca)."

Comment: (After this period, he should depart since he migrated from it in the Cause of Allah Almighty, and thus he had no right to live in it. The point here is to say that if a traveler stays less than four days in a town, he should put the concession of shortening the prayer to practice; and if he stays more than that, he would become a resident, to whom such a concession does not apply).

1074- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Mecca in the morning of the fourth day of Dhul-Hijjah.

Comment: (It is known that he left Mecca for Mina on the eighth of Dhul-Hijjah; and thus, he stayed their four nights, during which he shortened the prayer,. This narration might seem to contradict the previous one; but it might be said that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left Mecca before the completion of the fourth day, and in this way, he did not go beyond the due limit.)

1075- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stayed nineteen days (in Mecca) during which he offered two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer, i.e. he shortened the prayer). For this reason, if we stayed nineteen days (as travelers in a certain town) we should offer two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer, i.e. shorten the prayer); and if we stayed more than that, we should offer four rak'ahs (for Zhuhr, Asr and Isha prayers, i.e. to offer the prayer in full as it is on residence).

1077- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: We set out with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from Medina to Mecca, and he kept offering two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer, i.e. he shortened the prayer) until we returned (to Medina). I (Abu Ishaq, the sub-narrator) said: How long did he stay in Mecca? He said: Ten (nights).

[77] Concerning Such As Leaves The Prayer

1078- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "What stands between a servant and disbelief is (not) to leave the prayer."

Comment: (The prayer here should be understood in its wider sense of faith in general)

1079- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The pledge that is between us and these (who gave it for Islam) is the prayer: whoever leaves it, has indeed rejected faith."

1080- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Nothing stands to keep a servant far from polytheism but (not) to leave the prayer: when he leaves it (the prayer), he has, indeed, (become like him who) ascribed partners to Allah (in worship)."

[78] The Obligation Of Friday (Prayer)

1081- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us in a sermon in which he said: "O people! Turn in repentance to Allah before you die, and hasten to do righteous deeds before you are occupied (from that by illness and the like of it), and stick to that which is between you and your Lord (i.e. His Right upon you) by celebrating Him so much, and spending in charity (out of what He has given you) in secret and public, so that you would be given sustenance, help and your affairs would be amended. It should be known to you that Allah has made Friday (prayer) obligatory upon you as of this station of me (on the pulpit), on this day of me, in this month of me, in this year of me to the Day of Judgement. So, whoever leaves it, and he has a just or unjust (ruler and) imam, whether during my lifetime or after my death, out of regarding it as slight or by way of denial of it, might Allah not reunite him (to such as he loves), and might Allah not bless him! Furthermore, there is no prayer, nor charity, nor Hajj, nor fasting, nor kindness (to be accepted from him) until he turns (to Allah) in repentance: if he repents, Allah then will turn in kindness and mercy to him. Behold! Let no woman lead a man in the prayer; and let no Bedouin lead an Emigrant (Muhajir) in the prayer; and let no wicked (ruler) lead a faithful believer in the prayer, unless he overpowers him with his authority and frightens him with his sword and whip."

1082- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Ka'b Ibn Malik that he said: I used to lead my father after he had lost his sight. Whenever I came out with him on Friday (prayer), and he heard the Adhan, he would go on asking for (Allah's) Forgiveness and invoke good upon Abu Umamah: As'ad Ibn Zurarah. I kept hearing that from him for a period of time, and then I said to my self: "By Allah! It is out of failure (not to ask him about the reason for that)! Whenever he hears the Adhan of Friday (prayer), I hear him asking for (Allah's) Forgiveness for Abu Umamah, and invoke good upon him; and even though, I do not ask him about the reason for that." I came out with him for Friday (prayer) as I used to do, and when he heard the Adhan, he asked for (Allah's) Forgiveness as it was his habit. On that I asked him: "O my father! Tell me: what is the reason for your asking for (Allah's) prayer upon As'ad Ibn Zurarah whenever you heard the Adhan of Friday (prayer)?" he said: "O my son! He was the first to lead us in the Friday prayer at (a placed known as) Naqi' Al-Hadmat, on a plain rocky ground belonging to Banu Bayadah, before the coming of Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to us from Mecca." I asked him: "How many were you by then?" he said: "Forty men."

1083- It is narrated on the authority of both Hudhaifah and Abu Hazim from Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah caused those (nations) before us to deviate from (observing prayer on) Friday. In this way, they also (i.e. both the Jews and the Christians) are to come after us until The Day of Judgement. We would be the last from among the people of this world, and the first to be judged among them before all the creatures (of the other nations on the Day of Judgement)."

[79] The Superiority Of Friday (Prayer)

1084- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Lubabah Ibn Abd Al-Mundhir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Friday is the chief and the greatest of all days (of the week) in the sight of Allah; and it is much greater in the Sight of Allah than even Id Al-Adha and Id Al-Fitr. It has five merits: on it Adam was created by Allah; on it Adam was driven (from the Garden) down to the earth; on it

تَؤُمَّنَّ امْرَأَةٌ رَجُلاً، وَلاَ يَؤُمَّ أَعْرَابِيٌّ مُهَاجِراً. وَلاَ يَؤُمَّ فَاجِرٌ مُؤْمِناً، إِلاَّ أَنْ يَقْهَرَهُ بِسُلْطَانٍ، يَخَافُ سَيْفَهُ وَسَوْطَهُ».

Allah took Adam unto Him (by death); on it, there is an hour, in which, no (believing) servant asks Allah but that he will be given that (which he asks for), as long as he asks for nothing unlawful; and on it the Day of Judgement will be established. There is no angel (of those) nearest (to Allah), nor sky firmament, nor earth, nor wind, nor mountain nor ocean but that they are in awe of Friday (on which the Day of Judgement will be established)."

1085- It is narrated on the authority of Shaddad Ibn Aws that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The best of your days is Friday: on it Adam was created, and on it there will be the (second) sounding (of the trumpet pertaining to resurrection) and the (first sounding of the) swoon. So, invoke for (Allah's) prayer upon me so much on it, for your prayers (upon me) will be shown to me." A man asked: "O Messenger of Allah! How should our prayers be shown to you and you will have (died and become bones) decomposed?" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah has forbidden the earth to eat up the bodies of the Prophets."

1086- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Friday (prayer) to the coming Friday (prayer) is to plot out whatever (sins and mistakes committed in the interval) between them, as long as the major sins are avoided."

[80] Concerning Bathing On Friday

1087- It is narrated on the authority of Aws Ibn Aws Ath-Thaqafi that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who (has sexual relation with his wife and thus) causes (her) to take a bath, and he himself takes a bath on Friday; then he hastens to go (to the mosque) at the earliest portion (of the due time of the prayer) and attends the first portion of the sermon; (and goes) walking not riding; becomes close to the imam and pays attention (to the sermon), and does not speak (during the sermon): will have, with every step he takes (to and from the mosque) the reward of the deeds of a whole year, including both fasting and standing (for supererogatory night prayer) in it."

1088- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He who comes to (the mosque to attend the prayer of) Friday, let him take a bath (before he comes)!"

1089- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Taking a bath on Friday is binding upon everyone who has attained the age of puberty."

[81] Concerning The Concession Of That

1090- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who performs ablution perfectly, and comes to (the mosque to attend the prayer of) Friday, (as early as to be able to) sit close (to the imam), and keeps silent and pays his attention (to the sermon), whatever (sins and mistakes committed in the interval) between it and the coming Friday, in addition to three days more will be forgiven for him; and he who touches the gravel (during the sermon) has indeed committed falsity."

1091- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who offers ablution (perfectly) on Friday (to attend the prayer), this is good since it is sufficient (to get him do) what has been enjoined upon him; and he who takes a bath (for it: it should be known that) bathing is better."

[82] Going To (Attend The Prayer Of) Friday At The Earliest Portion Of Its Due Time

1092- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When it is Friday, there come at every gate of the mosque many angels to record the first and then the next (to come). If the imam sat down (for delivering the sermon), they would fold up the records and come to listen to the sermon. The (example of the) one who comes early is like the one who offers a camel (as a sacrifice), then the (example of the) one who comes next is like the one who offers a cow, then the (example of the) one who comes next is like him, who offers a ram...(until he mentioned the hen and the egg)."

In the narration of Sahl, there is the following addition: "Then, if one comes after that, he will have come to receive only the reward of the prayer (he is going to offer)."

1093- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah Ibn Jundub that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set a parable for (going to the mosque to attend the prayer on) Friday, (telling that the example of) going in the earliest portion of its due time is like slaughtering a camel, then (the example of going next is) like slaughtering a cow, (then

Verily, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "No doubt, the people will sit on the Day of Judgement (and they will be near in position) to Allah according to (the earliness of) their going to (the mosques to attend the prayer on) Fridays: the first, then the second, and then the third." Then he commented: "I'm the fourth of four, and by no means could a fourth of four men be far!"

[83] Concerning The Adornment On Friday

1095- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Salam that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said from over the pulpit on Friday: "There is no blame on anyone of you to buy two garments for (attending the prayer on) Friday, other than the garment in which he does his job."

(...) It is narrated on the authority of Yusuf Ibn Abdullah Ibn Salam that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" addressed us...and he mentioned the same.

1096- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was delivering the sermon on Friday when he saw people having garments of coarse wool on them, thereupon he said: "There is no harm on such of you as finds the wherewithal to get two garments for (attending the prayer on) Friday other than these two garments in which he does his job."

1097- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who takes a bath perfectly on Friday, offers ablution well, wears the best of his clothes, applies some of the perfume of his family, as it is made lawful for him by Allah, then goes to (the mosque to attend the prayer on) Friday, on which he commits no falsehood, nor does he part two men from one another (to sit in the place between them), whatever (sins committed in the interval) between it and the coming Friday will be forgiven for him."

[102] What Might Be Recited In The Two Rak'ahs Offered Before The Fajr (Obligatory Prayer)

1148- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited (in addition to Al-Fatihah) in the two rak'ahs he offered before the Fajr (obligatory prayer) both Surahs of Al-Kafirun and Al-Ikhlas.

1151- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When the prayer is established, let no prayer be offered barring the obligatory one (to which the call for establishment refers)."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1152- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Sarjis that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was offering (the Fajr) prayer when he saw a man offering the two-rak'ah which should be performed before the Fajr prayer. When he finished the prayer he said to him (out of rejecting his act): "Which of both your prayers have you intended (when you came out of your house to the mosque)?"

1153- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Malik Ibn Buhainah that he said: When the Fajr prayer was established, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon a man who was praying (the two rak'ahs that should be offered before Fajr obligatory prayer); and he said to him something which I did not know. When he (the Prophet finished the prayer and) turned away, we surrounded him (the man) and asked: "What did the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" say to you?" he said: "He said to me: "One of you is about to offer four rak'ahs (instead of two) for the Fajr (prayer)."

Comment: (He means that since those two rak'ahs, even though they belonged to sunnah, were offered just by the time the obligatory prayer was established, they seemed as if they belonged to them; and this is, to be sure, to break the rule according to which the Fajr obligatory prayer consists of no more than two rak'ahs)

[104] If The Two-Rak'ah Prayer Before Fajr is Missed, When Will it Be Prayed In Lieu

1154- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Amr that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw a man offering a two-rak'ah prayer after he had offered the Fajr (obligatory prayer), thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Is the Fajr prayer offered twice?" the man said: "I did not offer these two rak'ahs before it (the Fajr obligatory prayer). So, I offered them after it." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave no reply (as if he approved).

1155- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" slept (and thus was hindered) from offering the two rak'ahs before the Fajr (obligatory prayer), thereupon he offered (two rak'ahs) in lieu of them when the sun rose.

[105] Concerning The Four Rak'ahs Offered Before Zhuhr (Obligatory Prayer)

1156- It is narrated on the authority of Qabus from his father that he said: My father sent (a message in which he asked) A'ishah: "Which one of the (supererogatory) prayers the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" liked most to offer regularly?" on that she said: "He used to offer a four-rak'ah prayer before the Zhuhr (obligatory prayer), in which he would prolong his standing, and offer both bowings and prostrations perfectly."

1157- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ayyub that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer a four-rak'ah prayer before the Zhuhr (obligatory prayer) once the sun passed the meridian, with no End Salutation to divide them; and he said: "The gates of the heaven are opened whenever the sun decline."

[106] Concerning Such As Misses The Four Rak'ahs Before The Zhuhr

1158- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" failed to offer the four rak'ahs before the Zhuhr (obligatory prayer), he would offer them after the two rak'ahs following the Zhuhr. (Abu Abdullah says: None other than Qais related it from Shu'bah.)

[107] Concerning Such As Fails To Offer The Two Rak'ahs After Zhuhr

1159- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Al-Harith: Mu'awiyah sent (somebody) to Umm Salamah (to ask her about the prayer of the Prophet), and I set out with the messenger who asked Umm Salamah and she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was performing ablution in my house for the Zhuhr prayer and he had sent a courier (to bring something) and there were great number of Emigrants with him, with whose affairs he was mainly concerned, when the door was knocked, and he soon came out to him, and led the Zhuhr prayer and sat to distribute what was brought by the courier. He kept so until the Asr was due. (After he had offered the Asr prayer in the mosque) he came into my house and offered two rak'ahs (in lieu of those he failed to offer before the Zhuhr), and said: "I was occupied by the matter of the courier from offering them after the Zhuhr. So, I offered them after the Asr."

said: "Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Fajr prayer, he would remain until the sun would rise from here, i.e. from the East as much as it would be at the time of Asr prayer, i.e. from the West, so that he would stand and offer a two-rak'ah prayer. (This refers nearly to the time of the Duha prayer) Then, he would remain (for some time) until sun would become from here, i.e. the East as much as it would be at the time of Zhuhr prayer from here, (i.e. a short period before the sun would decline), and offer a four-rak'ah prayer twice before the Zhuhr prayer, just when the sun would pass the meridian, and offer a two-rak'ah prayer after it, in addition to a four-rak'ah prayer before the Asr (prayer), making a break between each two of those with (the testification, i.e. the Tashahhud in which) he would greet with peace the angels who are hearest to Allah, the Prophets and the Messengers and their followers from amongst the Muslims and faithful believers." Ali commented: "Those are sixteen rak'ahs, which constitute the voluntary prayers the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer during the day, and how few are those who could offer that regularly!" Waki' said: My father made the following addition: Habib Ibn Abu Thabit said: O Abu Ishaq! I would not like to have as much gold as this mosque of yours contains instead of this narration.

[110] Concerning The Two-Rak'ah Prayer Before The Maghrib

1162- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Between every two Adhans (the call for prayer and the call for prayer establishment, i.e. Iqamah) there is a (supererogatory) prayer (to be offered)." He said that thrice, and in the third time he said: "For him who so wills."

1163- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: Whenever the Mu'adhdhin pronounced the call for the (Maghrib) prayer during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we would think it was the call for prayer establishment (Iqamah) because of the great number of people who would stand and offer a two-rak'ah prayer before the Maghrib (obligatory prayer).

[111] Concerning The Two-Rak'ah Prayer After The Maghrib

1164- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered

[112] What One Recites In The Two-Rak'ah Prayer After The Maghrib

1166- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite in the two-rak'ah prayer he offered after the Maghrib both Surahs of Al-Kafirun and Al-Ikhlas.

[113] What About The Six-Rak'ah Prayer Offered After The Maghrib

1167- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who offers a six-rak'ah prayer after the Maghrib, during which he never speaks evil, (the reward he receives) will be equal to (that of) the service of twelve years."

[114] Concerning The Witr

1168- It is narrated on the authority of Kharijah Ibn Hudhafah Al-Adawi that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to us and said: "No doubt, Allah has supplied you with a prayer, which is much better for you (in reward) than (to gain and spend in charity) the red camels (the most valuable of property in their sight): It is the Witr, which Allah has permitted you (to offer)from the time of the Isha prayer until the rise of the dawn."

1169- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that he said: Verily, the Witr (prayer) is not binding (upon you), nor is it (obligatory) like your written prayers: but the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Witr (prayer) and then he said: "O men of Qur'an! Offer the Witr (prayer), for indeed, Allah is (One, and this number is) odd, and He Almighty loves the odd number (of rak'ahs therewith to conclude the daily prayers, for which he gives reward)."

1170- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Indeed, Allah is (One, and this number is) odd, and He Almighty loves the odd number. O men of Qur'an! Offer the Witr (prayer)!" a desert dweller (i.e. a Bedouin) said: "What has the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing

[115] What Is Recited In The Witr (Prayer)

1171- It is narrated on the authority of Ubai Ibn Ka'b that Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the Witr (prayer) with the Surahs of Al-A'la, Al-Kafirun and Al-Ikhlas.

1172- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the Witr (prayer) with the Surahs of Al-A'la, Al-Kafirun and Al-Ikhlas.

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters.

1173- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Aziz Ibn Juraij that he said: We asked A'ishah: "With the help of which (Surahs) did the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offer the Witr (prayer)?" she said: "He used to recite in the first rak'ah the Surah of Al-A'la; in the second rak'ah the Surah of Al-Kafirun; and in the third rak'ah, he used to recite the Surahs of Al-Ikhlas, and both Surahs of seeking with Allah (from the evil of Satan, i.e. Al-Falaq and An-Nas)."

[116] Offering A Single Rak'ah For The Witr (Prayer)

1174- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the night (supererogatory) prayer two by two, and then conclude with a single rak'ah for the Witr.

1175- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The night (supererogatory) prayer is offered in pairs (of rak'ahs), and the Witr prayer is a single rak'ah (at minimum)." I (a sub-narrator) said: "Tell me if my eye overpowers me (before I could conclude)! Tell me if I fall asleep (before offering the Witr)!" he said to me: "Make (the expression) "Tell me" at this star!" I raised my sight and behold! It was the Arcturus. Then, he repeated: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The night (supererogatory) prayer is offered in pairs (of rak'ahs), and the Witr prayer is a single rak'ah (at minimum) to be offered before the Morning (prayer)."

1176- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Muttalib Ibn Abdullah that a man asked Ibn Umar: "How should I offer the Witr (prayer)?" he said:

«إِنَّ اللَّهَ وَتْرٌ يُحِبُّ الْوِتْرَ. أَوْتِرُوا يَا أَهْلَ الْقُرْآنِ». فَقَالَ أَعْرَابِيٌّ: مَا يَقُولُ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ؟ قَالَ: «لَيسَ لَكَ وَلاَ لِأَصْحَابِكَ».

"Offer it by a single rak'ah." He said: "I fear the people might say that this (prayer) is cut off." On that Ibn Umar said: "This is the tradition of Allah and His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

1177- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to utter the End Salutation after every two rak'ahs (of the night supererogatory prayer); and he used to offer Witr with the help of a single rak'ah (to conclude his prayers).

[117] Concerning The Qunut In The Witr

1178- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan Ibn Ali that he said: My grandfather, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" taught me some statements therewith to supplicate during the Witr (prayer, and they go as follows): "O Allah! Provide me with health (and power) among such as You give health (and power); take care of my affairs among such as You take care of theirs; guide me (to the truth) among such as You guide (to the truth); save me from the evil of what You have decreed; and bless me in whatever (gifts) You give me: verily You always decide (all the matters) and none could decide anything pertaining to You; and indeed, whomever You take as friend never is put to humiliation (as well as whomever You take as enemy never is honoured)! Glory be to You our Lord! Blessed and Exalted be You Almighty!"

1179- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say at the conclusion of his Witr prayer: "O Allah! I seek refuge with Your pleasure from Your anger; I seek refuge with Your forgiveness from Your punishment; and I seek refuge with (the mercy of) You from (the anger of) You. I cannot reckon Your praise, for You are as You applauded Yourself."

[118] When One Does Not Raise His Hands During The Supplication

[119] Concerning Such As Raises His Hands During The Supplication, Which He Passes Over His Face

[120] What About Qunut Before And After Bowing

1182- It is narrated on the authority of Ubai Ibn Ka'b that whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered Witr (prayer) he would supplicate Allah before bowing.

1183- It is narrated on the authority of Humaid from Anas Ibn Malik that he was asked about Qunut in the Morning prayer, thereupon he said: "We performed Qunut (sometimes) before and (sometimes) after bowing."

1184- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad that he said: I asked Anas Ibn Malik about Qunut, thereupon he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" performed Qunut after bowing."

[121] Offering The Witr (Prayer) At The Last Portion Of The Night

1185- It is narrated on the authority of Masruq that he asked A'ishah about (the time of offering) the Witr (prayer) of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" happened to pray the Witr at every portion of the night: the first, the middle and the last, and the utmost point of time at which he prayed the Witr before he died was the last portion of the night (a short while before dawn).

1186- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" happened to pray the Witr at every portion of the night: the first, the middle and the last, and the utmost point of time at which he prayed the Witr was the last portion of the night (a short while before dawn).

1187- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you fears he might not get up at the last portion of the night, let him offer the Witr (prayer) at the first portion of the night and then he could sleep; and if anyone of you expects to get up at the last portion of the night, let him offer the Witr (prayer) at the last portion of the night, seeing that the recitation (of the Qur'an during the prayer) at the last portion of the night is attended (by the angels): and of a surety, this is much better."

[122] Concerning Such As Sleeps (And Is Hindered) From Offering The Witr (Prayer) Or Such As Forgets To Offer It

1188- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one sleeps (and fails) to offer the Witr (prayer), or even forgets it, let him offer prayer when he gets up, or once he remembers it."

1189- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Offer the Witr (prayer) before the morning comes upon you." Muhammad Ibn Yahya says: This narration gives a proof for the fact that the narration of Abd Ar-Rahman is weak.

[123] Offering Three, Or Five, Or Seven, Or Nine For The Witr (Prayer)

1190- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ayyub Al-Ansari that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, (offering) Witr is a fact: so, if one wills, let him offer five (rak'ahs) for the Witr (prayer); and if one wills, let him offer three for the Witr (prayer); and if one wills, let him offer only one for the Witr (prayer)."

1191- It is narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Sa'd that he said: I said to A'ishah: "O Mother of the Believers! Tell me about the Witr of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." She said: "We used to bring the teeth-cleansing stick for him, water for his ablution, and Allah would awaken him whenever He wished during the night. He would use the teeth-cleansing stick, perform ablution, and offer nine Rak'ahs, and would not sit except in the eighth of them. He would celebrate Allah, praise and supplicate Him. Then he would get up without uttering the salutation and pray the ninth Rak'ah. Then, he would sit, celebrate Allah, praise and supplicate Him, ask for His Prayer and Blessing upon His Prophet, and then utter the salutation so loud that we would hear it. Then, he would pray two Rak'ahs in a sitting position, after uttering the salutation. The total then was eleven Rak'ahs. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew old and put on flesh, he offered seven (Rak'ahs instead of nine) for the Witr, and then offered two other Rak'ahs after uttering the End Salutation."

1192- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer seven or even five (rak'ahs) for the Witr (prayer), with no break by salutation or talk (i.e. sitting to recite the testification or even half of it) between them.

[124] Offering Witr (Prayer) On Journey

1193- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father that he said: On journey, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer two rak'ahs (for each obligatory prayer) and no more; and he further used to perform Tahajjud (prayer) at night. I (the sub-narrator) asked: Did he use to offer Witr (prayer at night)? He answered in the affirmative.

1194- It is narrated on the authority of both Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar that they said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set two rak'ahs to be offered on journey (for each obligatory prayer); and in this way they are authentically complete, and not shortened (nor reduced from four to two, i.e. from the residence prayer). Moreover, offering Witr (prayer) on journey is out of the sunnah (i.e. it is not binding).

[125] What About Offering Two-Rak'ah Prayer In Sitting Posture After The Witr

1195- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer two light rak'ahs in the sitting posture after offering the Witr (prayer).

1196- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah that he said: A'ishah told me: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer one rak'ah for the Witr (prayer), after which he would offer two rak'ahs in which he would recite while sitting, and when he intended to bow, he would stand and offer bowing.

[126] What About Lying After Offering The Witr And The Two Rak'ahs Before The Fajr (Obligatory Prayer)

1197- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I've never saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" at the last portion of the night but sleeping in my house. Waki' said: She meant after offering the Witr (prayer).

1198- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the two rak'ahs before the Fajr (obligatory prayer), he would lie on his right side (before the prayer establishment would be pronounced).

1199- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the two rak'ahs before the Fajr (obligatory prayer), he would lie (before the prayer establishment would be pronounced).

[127] Offering The Witr (Prayer) While Being On The Mount

1200- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Yasar that he said: I was (on journey) in the company of Ibn Umar when I remained behind (for some time during which) I offered the Witr (prayer). (When I returned) Ibn Umar asked me: "What did make you remain behind (for some time)?" I said: "I offered the Witr (prayer)." On that he said: "Should you not have a good pattern in the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" I said: "Yes." He said: "Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer the Witr prayer while being on his camel (whenever he was on journey)."

[128] Offering The Witr (Prayer) At The First Portion Of The Night

1202- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked Abu Bakr: "At which part of the night do you offer the Witr (prayer)?" he said: "At the first portion, just after (the coming of) darkness." He asked Umar: "What about you O Umar?" he said: "At the last portion of the night." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for you O Abu Bakr, you've stuck to the trustworthy (principle of religious service); and as for you O Umar, you've stuck to the resolute power (which standing for the night supererogatory prayer requires)."

Comment: (This refers to the superiority of offering the Witr prayer at the last portion of the night; and we should not forget here that the Messenger of Allah said earlier that the recitation of the Qur'an in the prayer at the last portion of the night is always attended by the angels.)

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through a different chain of transmitters.

[129] What About Forgetfulness During The Prayer

1203- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led the prayer, in which he made an increase, or from which he made a reduction (of one or two rak'ahs: Ibrahim said: The doubt is from my part). It was said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Has there been any increase in the prayer?" he said: "(No) but I'm a human being: I forget as

1204- It is narrated on the authority of Iyad that he asked Abu Sa'id: One of us might offer prayer, in which he does not know (out of forgetfulness) how many (rak'ahs) he has offered. On that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you offers prayer in which he does not know (out of forgetfulness) how much has he prayed, let him offer two prostrations while sitting (at the conclusion of the prayer)."

[130] Concerning Him Who Offers Five Rak'ahs For The Zhuhr Prayer Forgetfully

1205- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prayed The Zhuhr as five rak'ahs. When they asked him: "Did any increase happen in the (rak'ahs of the Zhuhr) prayer?" He said (surprisingly): "(No). what happened?" When it was said to him ("You prayed it as five") he bent his legs and offered two prostrations (of forgetfulness).

[131] When One Stands After Two (Rak'ahs) Forgetfully

1206- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buhainah that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led the prayer (I think it was the Zhuhr), and when it was the conclusion of the second rak'ah, he stood before he would sit (to recite the testification). So, when it was just before the End Salutation, he offered two prostrations.

1207- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buhainah that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood after the second rak'ah of the Zhuhr prayer out of his forgetting to sit (to recite half the testification). Then, when it was (the conclusion of the prayer, and it remained) only the End Salutation to finish from his prayer, he offered two prostrations of forgetfulness, after which he uttered the End Salutation.

1208- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you stands after the second rak'ah (instead of sitting) and does not complete his standing, let him then sit (to recite half the testification); and if he completes standing, let not him sit, and rather let him offer two prostrations of forgetfulness (at the conclusion of the prayer, just before the End Salutation)."

[132] Concerning Him Who Falls In Doubt About His Prayer And Then Depends Upon What Is Certain

1209- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "When anyone of you has doubt (whether he has prayed) two or one (rak'ah), let it be one (which he has offered); and if he has doubt (whether he has prayed) two or three, let it be two (which he has offered); and if he has doubt (whether he has prayed) three or four, let it be three (which he has offered). Then let him complete the remaining portion of his prayer, so that the doubt would be exclusive to what is more; and then, let him offer two prostrations (of forgetfulness) while sitting before he utters the End Salutation."

1210- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you has doubt (as to how much he has offered) in his prayer, let him avert the doubt (that he has offered the more) with the certainty (that he has offered the less); and when he is sure of having his prayer complete, let him offer two prostrations (of forgetfulness before the End Salutation): if his prayer is complete (without the additional rak'ah he has offered because of his doubt), then, such (additional) rak'ah would act as supererogatory for him; and if his prayer is incomplete, the (additional) rak'ah (he has offered) would make perfect his prayer; and the two prostrations would thus be offered against the will of Satan."

[133] Concerning Him Who Doubts In His Prayer, And Then Depends Upon What Is (Closer To The) Right

1211- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah that Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the Prayer and we did not know whether he omitted from it or increased in it. (When the companions talked about that and) he asked, we told him. He (the Prophet) turned his feet, faced the Qiblah and performed two prostrations after which he uttered the end salutation. Then he turned his face towards us and said: "If there is anything new about the Prayer I will inform you of it. But I am a human being and I forget as you forget, so when I forget, remind me. Furthermore, when anyone of you is in doubt about his Prayer, he should aim at what is closer to the truth (upon which he should act), and complete his Prayer in that respect and then offer two prostrations (of forgetfulness)."

1212- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you has doubt in his prayer, let him act upon what is (closer to the) right, and offer two prostrations (before he utters the End Salutation)." At-Tanafisi said: This is the principal fundament which none has the power to reject.

[134] Concerning Him Who Utters The End Salutation After Two Or Three (Rak'ahs) Forgetfully

1213- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell into forgetfulness, and uttered the End Salutation just at the conclusion of two rak'ahs. (A long-handed man called) Dhul-Yadain said to him: "O Allah's Apostle! Has the prayer been reduced or have you forgotten?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "Neither I have forgotten nor has the prayer been reduced." He said: "No! You have prayed only two rak'ahs." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "is what Dhul-Yadain said true?" They said: "Yes, it is true." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went forward (to the direction of the Qiblah) and offered two rak'ahs. Then, he uttered the end salutation, and offered two prostrations of forgetfulness.

1214- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in one of the two evening prayers. He prayed two rak'ahs and then finished the prayer with the end salutation. He stood up near a piece of wood Lying across the mosque, against which he leaned. The hasty among the people went out and said: "The prayer has been reduced!" Amongst the people were Abu Bakr and Umar, but they hesitated to ask (The Prophet). A long-handed man called Dhul-Yadain asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Allah's Apostle! Has the prayer been reduced or have you forgotten?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Neither I have forgotten nor has the prayer been reduced." He said: "No! You have prayed only two rak'ahs." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "is what Dhul-Yadain said true?" They said: "Yes, it is true." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up again and offered two rak'ahs. Then, he uttered the end salutation, offered two prostrations (of forgetfulness), after which he uttered the end salutation once again.

1215- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Husain that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Asr prayer, and uttered the end salutation after three rak'ahs. Then, he (left the mosque and) entered into his home. A long-handed man called Al-Khirbaq stood up to him and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Has the prayer been reduced?" He (The Prophet) went out angrily, dragging his garment, and asked (the people about that), and he was told. Then, he offered the rak'ah which he left (out of forgetfulness), uttered the salutation, offered two prostrations, and then said salutation once again.

[135] Offering The Two Prostrations Of Forgetfulness Before The End Salutation

1216- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan comes to anyone of you during his prayer, and enters between his aim and his soul (with its desires, i.e. distracts his mind) to the extent that he would not know whether he prayed more or less (than what is due). If it is so, let him offer two prostrations before he utters the end salutation, and then, let him utter the salutation!"

1217- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan enters between (the real aim of) the son of Adam and his soul (with its desires, i.e. distracts his mind during his prayer) to the extent that he would not know how much he has prayed. So, if anyone of you finds that, let him offer two prostrations before he utters the end salutation!"

[136] Offering Both Prostrations (Of Forgetfulness) After The End Salutation

1218- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah that Ibn Mas'ud offered the two prostrations of forgetfulness after uttering the end salutation, and mentioned that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had done so.

1219- It is narrated on the authority of Thawban that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "There are two prostrations in (case one is given to) forgetfulness, to be offered after uttering the end salutation."

[137] Completing (The Remaining Portion Of The Prayer) Upon (What Has Been Offered Of) The Prayer

1220- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to

Then he went and took a bath (and when he returned) his head was dribbling water. He led them in the prayer and when he finished and turned away he said: "No doubt, I came to you while being in the state of ceremonial impurity, (out of forgetfulness), and did not remember that until I assumed the prayer."

1221- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever is befallen by vomit, ejection, nosebleed, or pre-seminal fluid (during the prayer), let him turn away, offer ablution, and then complete (the remaining portion) upon (what has been offered of) his prayer, provided that he should not speak (to anyone) during that (interval)."

[139] The Prayer Of The Sick Person

1223- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Husain that he said: I had fistula, (and I could not offer prayer while standing), thereupon I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about (how to offer) the prayer. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You could pray while standing; and if you could not do that, pray while sitting; and if you could not do so, pray while lying on your side."

greater portion of his (supererogatory) prayers while sitting. However, the righteous deed that was the dearest to him was that which a servant would do regularly, no matter little it might be.

1226- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to recite (the Qur'an during the supererogatory prayers) while he was sitting; and whenever he intended to bow, he would stand a period (before his bowing, as short as is) enough for one to recite forty Holy Verses.

1227- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I've never seen the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offering anything of the (supererogatory) night prayer but as standing until he grew old (and put on flesh): by then he offered (the supererogatory) prayer while sitting until there would remain only forty or thirty Holy Verses to recite, he would stand, recite them and then fall in prostration.

1228- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Shaqiq Al-Uqaili that he said: I asked A'ishah about the (supererogatory night) prayer of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" thereupon she said: (Sometimes) he offered prayer for a long time during the night while standing and (sometimes) he offered prayer for a long time during the night while sitting; and if he recited (the Qur'an during the prayer) while standing, he would bow as standing, and if he recited while sitting, he would bow as sitting.

[141] The Prayer Of One While Sitting Is Half The Prayer Of One While Standing (In Reward)

1229- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon him while he was praying as sitting, thereupon he said: "The prayer of one as sitting is half the prayer of one as standing (in reward)."

1231- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Husain that he asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the prayer of one while sitting, thereupon he said: "No doubt, whoever prays while standing is the best (in the reward he receives); and whoever prays

[142] The Prayer Of The Messenger Of Allah During His Fatal Illness

1232- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: When Allah's Apostle became fatally ill, Bilal came to inform him (that the prayer was due). He said: "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer." I said: "O Allah's Apostle! Abu Bakr is a softhearted man and if he stands in your place, he could not help weeping, and thus he would not be able (to make the people hear him). Would that you order Umar to lead the prayer!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the people in the prayer: Verily you (women) are the companions of Joseph." So we sent to Abu Bakr (to inform him of the command of the Prophet) and he led the prayer. In the meantime Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt better and came out with the help of two persons with both of his legs dragging on the ground till he entered the mosque. When Abu Bakr felt his coming, he tried to retreat but Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gestured to him to remain in his place (and carry on). The Prophet was brought and was helped to sit by his side. Abu Bakr was following the Prophet and the people were following Abu Bakr (in the prayer).

1233- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: During his fatal illness, Allah's Apostle ordered that Abu Bakr should lead the people in the prayer. Abu Bakr led the prayer. In the meantime Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt better and came out (to the mosque) and behold! Abu Bakr was leading the people in the prayer! When Abu Bakr saw him coming, he tried to retreat but Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gestured to him to remain in his place (and carry on). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sat at the side of Abu Bakr. Abu Bakr was following the prayer of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the people were following the prayer of Abu Bakr.

1234- It is narrated on the authority of Salim Ibn Ubaid that he said: During his fatal illness, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell unconscious, and when he recovered he asked: "Is the prayer due?" they answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "Tell Bilal to pronounce the Adhan, and tell Abu Bakr to lead the prayer." he fell unconscious once again, and when he recovered he asked: "Is the prayer due?" they answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "Tell Bilal to pronounce the Adhan, and tell Abu Bakr to lead the prayer." Then, (for the third time) he fell unconscious, and when he recovered he asked: "Is the prayer due?" they answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "Tell Bilal to pronounce the Adhan, and tell Abu Bakr to lead the prayer." A'ishah said: "My father is a softhearted man and if he stands in your place, he could not help weeping, and thus he would not be able (to make the people hear him). Would that you order somebody else (to lead the prayer)!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell unconscious and when he recovered he said: "Tell Bilal to pronounce the call for the prayer, and tell Abu Bakr to lead the prayer: Verily you (women) are the companions of Joseph." Bilal was ordered to pronounce the call for the prayer, and Abu Bakr to lead the prayer. Later, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt better and said: "Find two persons for me so that I would recline upon them (and come out to the mosque)." Barirah came first followed by another man, and he reclined upon them (and went to the mosque). When Abu Bakr saw him, he intended to retreat, but the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" beckoned to him to remain in his place (and carry on the prayer). The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came forward and sat by the side of Abu Bakr until he finished the prayer. Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (died and) was taken (unto Allah Almighty). Abu Abd Allah says: This is a strange narration, and none barring Nasr Ibn Ali relates it.

1235- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became fatally ill, he was in the house of A'ishah. He said: "Invite Ali to me!" A'ishah said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should we invite Abu Bakr to you?" he said: "Yes, invite him." Hafsah said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should we invite Umar to you?" he said: "Yes, invite him." Umm Al-Fadl said: "O Messenger of Allah! Should we invite Al-Abbas to you?" he answered in the affirmative. When they gathered, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his head and kept silent, thereupon Umar said: "Let's stand (and leave) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (perchance he would take rest)." When the prayer was due, Bilal came to pronounce the Adhan. He said: "Tell Abu Bakr to lead the prayer." A'ishah said: "O Allah's Apostle! Abu Bakr is a softhearted man and he could not recite (the Qur'an because of his excessive weeping) and if he (stands in your place and) does not see you, he could not help weeping, and thus he would make people (behind him) weep too. Would that you order Umar to lead the prayer!" but Abu Bakr led the prayer. In the meantime Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" felt better and came out with the help of two persons and both his legs were dragging on the ground (till he entered the mosque). When the people saw him, they glorified Allah to notify Abu Bakr (of his coming). Abu Bakr tried to retreat but Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gestured to him to remain in his place (and carry on). The Prophet came and sat on his right side while Abu Bakr was standing. Abu Bakr was following the prayer of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and the people were following the prayer of Abu Bakr. Ibn Abbas resumed: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started reciting just from the very point at which Abu Bakr had stopped. Waki' said: This is the right way of the sunnah. He (Ibn Abbas) said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then died as a result of this illness he was suffering.

[143] The Prayer Of The Messenger Of Allah Behind One Of His Nation

1236- It is narrated on the authority of Hamzah Ibn Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah from his father that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" delayed (to come to the mosque because of his being occupied by some affairs of the people living in the precincts of Medina), and we reached the (praying) people, a rak'ah after (the beginning of the prayer) which Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf had been leading. When he felt (the coming of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he intended to retreat, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gestured to him to carry on the prayer, and (when he finished the prayer) he said to him: "You've done well: as such you should do."

[144] The Imam Is Made To Be Followed (In The Prayer)

1237- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew ill, and some of his companions came to visit him. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the prayer as sitting, and they followed him while standing in the prayer but he gestured to them to sit (and offer prayer as sitting). When he (finished the prayer and) turned away he said: "No doubt, the imam is made to be followed: if he bows

1238- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that once the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fell from a horse thereupon his right side was wounded. We visited him (to enquire about his health); and when the prayer was due, he led us in the prayer as sitting, and we prayed behind him as sitting. When he finished the prayer he said: "No doubt, the imam is made to be followed: when he magnifies (Allah) you should also magnify (Allah after him); when he bows down, you should bow down (after him); when he says: "Allah hears such as praises Him" you should reply: "O Allah our Lord! To You be All the praises!"; when he falls in prostration, you should also fall in prostration; and when he prays as sitting, you all should pray as sitting."

1239- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the imam is made to be followed: when he magnifies (Allah) you should also magnify (Allah after him); when he bows down, you should bow down (after him); when he says: "Allah hears such as praises Him" you should reply: "O Allah our Lord! To You be All the praises!"; when he prays as standing, you should also pray as standing; and when he prays as sitting, you should pray as sitting."

1240- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became ill, he led the prayer while he was sitting, and we offered the prayer behind him. Abu Bakr was magnifying loudly so that the people (praying behind The Prophet) would listen. When he (The Prophet) turned to us, he saw us standing. He beckoned to us (to pray as sitting) and we sat and prayed following him while sitting. When he finished with the end salutation, he said: "A while ago, you were about to do the same as the Persians and the Romans used to do: i.e. to stand for their kings who were sitting. So, do not do that, and follow your imams. If he (your imam) prays while standing, then you should pray while standing; and if he prays while sitting, then you should pray while sitting."

[145] Practicing Qunut In The Fajr Prayer

1241- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Malik Al-Ashja'i: Sa'd Ibn Tariq that he said (to his father): O my father! You had (the honour to) offer prayer behind the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", then Abu Bakr, then Umar, then Uthman, and then Ali for five years here in Kufah: did all of them practice Qunut in the Fajr prayer? He said: O my son! This was in accordance with the events.

1242- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was forbidden (by Allah) to invoke (evil against anyone) in the Fajr prayer.

Comment: (It is well-known that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" kept for a month invoking evil against some tribes until Allah Almighty revealed: "Not for you, (but for Allah), is the decision: whether He turns in Mercy to them, or punishes them; for they are indeed wrong-doers." (Al Imran 128)

1243- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" practiced Qunut in the Morning prayer, according to which he invoked evil against one of the Arab tribes for a month before he left it.

1244- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised his head (from bowing) in the Morning prayer, he invoked saying: "O Allah! Save Al-Walid Ibn Al-Walid, Salamah Ibn Hisham, Ayyash Ibn Rabie'ah, and all the oppressed people in Mecca! O Allah! Be hard on (those of the tribe of) Mudar, and make them (suffer from) famine years as these (at the time) of Joseph!"

[146] Killing A Female-Snake Or A Scorpion During The Prayer

1245- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that both black (animals), the female-snake and the scorpion, should be killed even during the prayer.

1246- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that once a scorpion stung the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" during the prayer. (When he finished the prayer) he said: "Allah's Curse be upon the scorpion! It leaves neither the praying nor the non-praying person: kill it (whenever and wherever you are) within or outside the sanctuary, (whether you are or are not in the state of Ihram)."

1247- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abu Rafi' from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" killed a scorpion while he was in his prayer.

[147] It Is Forbidden To Offer Prayer After Both Fajr And Asr

1248- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (people to offer) two prayers: to pray after Fajr (prayer) until the sun rises, and after Asr (prayer) until the sun sets.

1249- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no prayer (to be offered) after the Asr (prayer) until the sun sets; and there is no prayer (to be performed)after the Fajr (prayer) until the sun rises."

1250- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Many reliable men, including Umar Ibn Al-Khattab, and the most trustworthy of them in my sight is Umar bore testimony that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no prayer (to be offered) after the Fajr (prayer) until the sun rises; and there is no prayer (to be performed) after the Asr (prayer) until the sun sets."

[148] At Which Time Offering Prayer Is Undesirable

1251- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Abasah that he said: I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Is there a time (during the day and night) much dearer to Allah than another (pertaining to prayer)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Yes: it is the middle of the night, in which (it is desirable that) you would pray as much as you like until the morning appears; and then stop until the sun rises (and keep stopping) as long as it is like a shield (whose heat is light); and when it grows, you might pray as much as you like until the pillar (seems to) stand on its shade (i.e. until the shade shrinks as possible as it could be); and then stop until the sun declines: indeed, the (fire of) Hell always goes in flames at the middle of the day. Then, you could pray as much as you like until you offer the Asr prayer; and then stop until the sun sets: indeed it (the sun) sets between both horns of the Devil, as well as it rises between both horns of the Devil."

1252- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that Safwan Ibn Al-Mu'attal asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm going to ask you about a thing, of which you have knowledge, and of which I'm ignorant." He said: "What is that?" he said: "Are there, from amongst the hours of night and day, some at which prayer is undesirable?" he said: "Yes: when you offer the Morning

Then, you could pray, since the prayer is attended (by the angels) and accepted (by Allah) until the sun comes to be vertical on your head, as straight as a spear: when it is (vertical) on your head (as straight) as a spear, you should leave the prayer, for at that time, the fire is kindled, and its gates are opened (and keep stopping from prayer) until the sun declines from the right side of your forehead: when the sun declines, the prayer comes to be attended (by the angels) and accepted (by Allah). Then, you could pray until Asr (prayer is due and you) offer it. Then, leave prayer until the sun disappears."

1253- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Abdullah As-Sunabihi that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, the sun rises between both horns of Satan (or said "The horns of Satan rise with it"); and when it is high, he departs from it; and when it is in the middle of the sky, he is attached to it; and when it declines (or said "passes the meridian"), he leaves it; and when it is about to set, he is attached to it; and when it sets (and disappears) he leaves it: so, you should not pray at those three hours (during which Satan is attached to the sun)."

[149] The Concession To Offer Prayer In Mecca All The Time

1254- It is narrated on the authority of Jubair Ibn Mut'im that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Banu Abd Manaf! Do not prevent anyone to circumambulate this House or offer prayer (within the sanctuary) whenever he likes during night and day."

[150] What About Delaying The Prayer From Its Due Time

1255- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Perhaps, you would catch up with people, whose habit is not to offer the (obligatory) prayers at their stated fixed times: so, when you catch up with them, offer the (obligatory) prayer in your houses once its time is due as you know (it is right), and then offer prayer with them, and make it supererogatory prayer (to be added to your good deeds)."

1256- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Offer the (obligatory) prayer just at its fixed stated time (whether the imam offers it at that time or not): if you catch the imam leading the prayer (just when it is due), pray then with them, and thus you will have accomplished your

1257- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There will come governors and chiefs, whose occupation in (the worldly) things will cause them to delay the (obligatory) prayers from their stated fixed time: (If it is so, offer the obligatory prayers just at their due time as you know it and) make your prayers with them voluntary (i.e. additional prayer to be recorded in your account)."

[151] The Fear Prayer

1258- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, pertaining to the Fear prayer: "It is that the imam offers prayer with a party of people behind him, who offer a single rak'ah (with him), with the other party among them standing between them and the enemy; then those who offered the rak'ah (with their imam) turn away and take the place of those who did not pray; and by then those who did not pray go forward to offer with their leader a single rak'ah; then, when their leader turns away he will have offered his prayer in full; and everyone of the two parties has to offer the remaining rak'ah (to complete) his prayer (whether together or apart). If the fear is much greater than that, let them pray even on foot or riding (as may be most convenient)."

1259- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah that he said (pertaining to the Fear prayer): "the imam stands up facing the Qiblah, and one of the two groups (into which the army is divided in order to offer the prayer) align behind him, and the other stand facing the enemy, with their eyes on the row (of the praying ones). He prays one rak'ah with those (who are with him) and they perform another (Rak'ah including) bowing and two prostrations in their place. then, they go and take the position of those (who did not pray), and those (of the other group come, with whom he prays (the remaining rak'ah including) bowing and two prostrations. In this way, he will have offered his prayer of two rak'ahs, but they will have offered only a single rak'ah. Then, they offer (the remaining rak'ah, including) bowing and two prostrations."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Salih Ibn Khawat from Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1260- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led his companions in the Fear prayer. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" bowed and they all bowed. He then fell down in prostration along with the row close to him, and the rear row kept standing (in order to face the enemy). When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood up, these (of the row close to him) offered two prostrations. Then, those of the front row went back to take the position of those (in the rear) and the rear row went forward to take the position of those (who were) in the front; and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" bowed down and they all bowed. He then fell down in prostration along with the row close to him. When they raised their heads, these (of the row close to him) offered two prostrations. In this way, all of them offered (two) bowings with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and each party offered two prostrations by themselves. The enemy at that time was at the direction of the Qiblah.

[152] The Eclipse Prayer

1261- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, both sun and moon never eclipse because of the death of anyone of the people (since they are two of Allah's Signs): so, if you see that (eclipse), you should stand and offer the prayer (of eclipse)."

Comment: (The occasion of that was that the sun eclipsed on the day Ibrahim, the son of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, thereupon some people alleged that it eclipsed because of his death. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended by that statement to refute such a claim.)

1262- It is narrated on the authority of An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir that he said: The sun eclipsed during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he came out in a hurry, dragging his garment, until he reached the mosque. He kept offering the (eclipse) prayer until it (was over and the sun) cleared. Then he said: "Some people claim that both sun and moon only eclipse because of the death of an important person; and of course, it is not so. No doubt, both sun and moon does not eclipse because of the death nor because of the life (birth) of anyone: when Allah manifests His Glory to anything of His creatures, it soon lowers down (in submission) to Him."

1263- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: In the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the sun eclipsed and he went to the Mosque and the people aligned behind him. He said the Takbir (starting the prayer) and prolonged the recitation (from the Holy Qur'an) and then said Takbir and performed a prolonged bowing; then he (raised his head and) said: "Sami'a Allahu liman hamidah: Allahumma walaka al-hamd (Allah hears such as sends praises to Him: O Allah, our Lord: to You be all the praises." He then (did not prostrate but) stood up and recited a prolonged recitation which was shorter than the first. He again said Takbir and then bowed a prolonged bowing but shorter than the first one and then said: "Sami'a Allahu liman hamidah: Allahumma walaka al-hamd (Allah hears such as sends praises to Him: O Allah, our Lord: to You be all the praises." Then he prostrated. He did the same in the second rak'ah. Thus he completed four bowings and four prostrations. The (eclipse had been over and the) sun had cleared before he finished the prayer. (After the prayer) he stood up, glorified and praised Allah as He deserved and then said: "The sun and the moon are two of Allah's signs. They do not eclipse because of death or life (birth) of anyone. When you see that, hurry to the prayer."

1264- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah Ibn Jundub that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" led us in the eclipse prayer, during which we did not hear his voice (for his recitation was in a low tone).

1265- It is narrated on the authority of Asma' Bint Abu Bakr that she said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" once offered the eclipse prayer. He stood for a long time and then did a prolonged bowing. He stood up straight again and kept on standing for a long time, then did a long bowing, then stood up straight and then offered a prolonged prostration. Then he lifted his head and offered a prolonged prostration. Then he stood up for a long time and then did a prolonged bowing and then stood up straight again and kept on standing for a long time. Then he did a long bowing, stood up straight and then offered a prolonged prostration. Then he lifted his head and went for a prolonged prostration. Then he lifted his head and finished (the prayer). Then, he (The Prophet) said: "Paradise became near to me that if I had dared, I would have plucked one of its bunches for you. Hell became so near to me that I said: O my Lord! Will I be among those people? (Nafi (a sub-narrator) said: I think he further said :) Then suddenly I saw a woman whom a cat was lacerating with its claws.

[153] The Prayer Of Istisqa' (Invoking Allah For Water)

1266- It is narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Ishaq Ibn Abdullah Ibn Kinanah that he said: One of the governors sent me to Ibn Abbas to ask him about the prayer of Istisqa' (invoking Allah for water), thereupon Ibn Abbas said: "What prevented him to ask me (by himself)? Anyway, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out (to the mosque) in the state of modesty, respect, reverence, tranquility and devoutness. He offered a two-rak'ah prayer, like that he offered in the Id (the Festival), and his sermon (he delivered) was not like yours (for it was filled with supplication, invocation, and asking for Allah's Forgiveness and seeking for His Mercy)."

1267- It is narrated on the authority of Abbad Ibn Tamim from his paternal uncle that he was present when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out (and went) to the praying place to offer the Istisqa' prayer, faced the Qiblah, turned (and put on) his garment inside out, and offered a two-rak'ah prayer.

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Abbad Ibn Tamim from his paternal uncle from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters. Sufyan narrated from Al-Mas'udi that he said: I asked Abu Bakr Ibn Muhammad Ibn Amr: Did he (the Prophet) turn it (his cloak) upside down or did he make its right side on its left side? He said: No: he made its right side on its left side.

1268- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: One day, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to offer the Istisqa' prayer. He led us in a two-rak'ah prayer, with no Adhan nor Iqamah. Then, he addressed us in a sermon, and invoked Allah while facing the Qiblah, and raising his hands. Then, he turned (and put on) his cloak inside out, placing its right side on its left side, and its left side on its right side.

[154] Invoking Allah During The Istisqa' Prayer

1269- It is narrated on the authority of Sharhabil Ibn As-Simt that he said: O Ka'b Ibn Murrah! Relate us something from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and be careful. He said: Once, a man came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Invoke Allah for water!" The

1269 ـ حدّثنا أَبُو كُرَيْبٍ. حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنِ الأَعْمَشِ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ مُرَّةَ، عَنْ سَالِمِ بْنِ أَبِي الْجَعْدِ، عَنْ شُرَحْبِيلَ بْنِ السِّمْطِ؛ أَنَّهُ قَالَ لِكَعْبٍ: يَا

Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised both his hands and said: "O Allah! Supply us with rain in abundance, that is plentiful, covering (the earth around us), as quickly and not slowly (as it could be), as advantageous and beneficial and not harmful (as it could be)!" they did not finish from the Friday prayer before they were responded to (by Allah Almighty; and the rain was so much profuse that) they came once again and complained to him saying: "The houses have been ruined (because of the great quantity of water) thereupon he said: "O Allah! (make it) around us and not upon us!" in this way, the clouds dispersed to the right and the left.

1270- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: A desert dweller came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I've come to you from a (district of a) people, who have no shepherd (to set out to the pastures in order to) graze (his animals), nor do they have a male-camel (strong enough) to strut (with his tail, because of its weakness, resulting from the shortage of water)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ascended the pulpit, praised Allah and then invoked: "O Allah! Supply us with abundant rain therewith to relieve us, that is plentiful, profuse, (so much widespread as) to cover the earth (around us), as quickly not slowly (as it could be)." Then, it rained (very abundantly) that no one came to him from any side (of the region) but that he said: "No doubt, we've been given life (because of water)."

1271- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" invoked (Allah) for rain (and he was raising his hands so much) that the whiteness of his armpits was visible. Mu'tamir said: I think this was during the Istisqa (prayer).

[155] The Prayer Of Both Ids (Of Al-Fitr And Al-Adha)

1273- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: I bear witness that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the Id prayer before delivering the sermon; and then he delivered the sermon. Seeing that the women could not listen to him well, he went to them, admonished them, gave them religious advice, and commanded them to give in charity; and Bilal was saying (i.e. spreading his garment) with the help of his hands as such, thereupon the women started throwing (in his garment whatever adornments they might have such as) earring, ring, and anything alike.

1274- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that on the Id day, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered the (Id) prayer with no Adhan nor Iqamah.

1275- It is narrated on the authority of Tariq Ibn Shihab that he said: It was Marwan (Ibn Al-Hakam) who brought the pulpit on the day of Id, and started with delivering the sermon before the prayer. A man stood up and said: "O Marwan! You've deviated from the right way (of the Prophet and his companions): you've brought out the pulpit, which was not to be brought out (on such a day), and you have started with delivering the speech before the prayer, and it was the habit (of the Prophet) not to start with it." Abu Sa'id said: "This man has done whatever (duty) is incumbent upon him. I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Whoever amongst you sees something abominable and he is able to set it right with his hand let him do that with his hand; and if he has no enough power to do that, let him do it with his tongue; and if he has no enough power to do it with his tongue, then let him (deny it) from his heart, and that is the least degree of faith."

1276- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", then Abu Bakr and then Umar used to offer the Id prayer before delivering the sermon.

[156] How Many Takbirs Should The Imam Utter In The Id Prayer

Then, he would stand on his legs, face the people while they were sitting, and say (from amongst what he would say in the sermon): "Give in charity! Give in charity!" the majority of almsgivers were women: they used to give in charity (even their ornaments such as) earring, ring and things alike. 1327- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: We observed the fasts of Ramadan with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he did not stand with us on any (night) of it until it remained only seven (nights of it), when he stood with us on the seventh night (to its conclusion, i.e. the first of those seven) till about one-third the night elapsed. Then when it was the sixth night (to its conclusion, i.e. the second of the remaining seven) he did not stand (for prayer with us); and when it was the fifth night (to its conclusion) he stood (for prayer) with us until about half the night passed. I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Would that you lead us in the supererogatory prayer for the remaining portion of this night of ours!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one stands (for supererogatory prayer) with the imam until he (finishes and) turns away, it will be equal (in reward) to standing (for prayer) for the whole night." When it was the fourth (night to the conclusion of the month), he did not stand (for prayer) on it; and when it was the third (night), he gathered his wives and family, and the people gathered (in the mosque); and he kept standing with us (for the prayer so much long) that we felt afraid we would miss the Prosperity. It was said (to Abu Dharr): What is the Prosperity? He said: It refers to the Suhur (night meal taken a short time before dawn whenever one intends to observe fast). Then, he did not stand with us (for the prayer) on any (night else) of the remaining portion of the month.

He said: Well: I heard my father saying: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made a mention of the month of Ramadan and then said: "It is a month, whose fasting has been enjoined upon you by Allah, and I set for you the standing (for prayer) in it: so, he, who observes fasts in it, and stands (for supererogatory night prayer) in it, out of sincere faith and expecting the reward (of that from Allah Almighty), he will have come out of his sins (as pure and free as he was) on the day his mother gave birth to him."

[174] What About Standing (For Prayer) At Night

1329- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: Allah's Apostle" Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Satan puts three knots at the back of the head of any of you if he is asleep. When one wakes up and remembers Allah, one knot is undone. When one performs ablution, the second knot is undone. When one stands (for prayer) all the knots are then undone and one gets up energetic with a good heart in the morning because of the goodness he has received. If he does not do so, he would get up lazy and with the mischievous heart since he received no good (with The Satan's knots remaining on his head's back)."

1330- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: Once, a mention was made to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" of a man who slept one night until morning (without standing for the supererogatory night prayer), thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is he, in whose ears Satan has urinated."

1331- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not be like so and so: he used to excessively stand (for supererogatory) prayer at night (so much that) he left standing (for prayer) at night." (This means that one should be moderate in standing for supererogatory prayer at night, in order to be able to do it constantly and regularly.)

1332- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The mother of Sulaiman (Solomon) Ibn Dawud (David) said to Sulaiman: O my son! Do not sleep at night so much (on the account of standing for supererogatory prayer), for indeed, sleeping so much at night leaves man bankrupt (of good deeds) on the Day of Judgement."

1333- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The more one offers (supererogatory) prayer at night, the more his face seems bright during the day."

1334- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Salam that he said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reached Medina, the people hastened to go to him, and it was said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has arrived in Medina." I went to him among the people in order to see him. When I sought to see clearly the face of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I came to know that his face was not the face of a liar. The first thing he said was: "O people! Spread peace (among yourselves), serve (the poor and indigent) with food, offer (supererogatory) prayers at night while the people are asleep, perchance you would be admitted to the Garden peacefully."

[175] When One Awakens His Family At Night (To Offer The Prayer)

1336- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah's Mercy be upon a man who gets up at night, offers (supererogatory) prayer, and awakens his wife and she offers prayer, and if she refuses, he sprinkles water on her face; Allah's Mercy be upon a woman who gets up at night, offers (supererogatory) prayer, and awakens her husband and he offers prayer, and if he refuses, she sprinkles water on his face."

I told him (of my identity) thereupon he said: "Welcome to the son of my brother! I was informed you've a good voice in (reciting) the Qur'an. [178] How Long Is It Desirable To Take One To Conclude The Qur'an

1345- It is narrated on the authority of Aws Ibn Hudhaifah: We came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" among the delegate of Thaqif, and the allies descended as guests in the hospitality of Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had those of Banu Malik stay in a tent belonging to him. When it was after the Isha (prayer) every night, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to come to us, in order to talk to us (by way of instructing), as standing, for a long time, that he would recline on both his legs alternately. More often, he would relate to us about whatever (trouble) he (and his followers) received from the Quraish, his own people, saying: "We were oppressed, weak and humiliated in Mecca. When we set out (as Emigrants) to Medina, the (victory in) war is shared between us in turns: once we were given victory over them, and once they were given victory over us." When it was one night, on which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" delayed from coming at the time at which he used to come to us and (when he came) we said to him: "You've delayed from coming to us that night (what is the matter)?" he said: "I was concerned with (reciting) my division of the Qur'an (I'm accustomed to read daily), and I disliked to come before completing it." Aws further said: I asked the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" how they would make the Qur'an into divisions (to be easy for them to read), and they said: "(Its first division consists of) three (Surahs, then the second of) five, then (the third of) seven, then (the fourth of) nine, then (the fifth of) eleven, then (the sixth of) thirteen, and then the independent division of Mufassal."

Comment: (Based on that, and on the exclusion of the Surah of Al-Fatihah, the three-Surah division starts from Al-Baqarah to An-Nisa; the 1346- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: I kept the Qur'an by heart and recited it entirely on one night (in the supererogatory prayer). (Being informed of that) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I'm afraid that when a long time comes upon you (and you grow old), you would be bored of reciting it (if you keep on this habit because you would be too weak and powerless to recite it entirely on one night). So, (I advise you to) recite (and conclude) it within a month." I said: "Let me get benefit of my power and youth." He said: "Then, recite (and conclude) it within ten (nights)." I said: "Let me get benefit of my power and youth." He said: "Then, recite (and conclude) it within a week." I said: "Let me get benefit of my power and youth." But he refused (to shorten the time within which I could recite the whole Qur'an)."

1347- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "One will not (be able to) receive the religious understanding (required from reciting the Qur'an) when he recites the Qur'an entirely within (a period, as short as) less than three (nights)."

1348- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I did not know that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had ever recited the Qur'an entirely (in his supererogatory prayer on one night, i.e. from the beginning of the night) till morning.

[179] Reciting In The (Supererogatory) Night Prayer

1349- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Hani' that she said: I used to hear the recitation (of the Qur'an) of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in his supererogatory prayer) at night while I was in my shed.

1350- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stood (for the supererogatory night prayer) with the help of only a single Holy Verse, which he kept repeating till morning entered upon him. It is: "If You do punish them, they are Your servants: if You do forgive them, You are the Exalted in power, the Wise." (Al-Ma'idah 118)

I said: "Allah is Greater! Praise be to Allah Who has made this matter wide-ranging."

[180] What About Supplication When One Stands (For Supererogatory Prayer) At Night

1355- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: Whenever The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up for prayer at night, offering the Tahajjud, he used to supplicate Allah as saying: "O Allah! All the praises be to You; You are the Light of the Heavens and the Earth and whatever is in them! All the praises be to You; You are the Holder of the Heavens and the Earth, and whatever is in them. (...) The same is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters.

1356- It is narrated on the authority of Asim Ibn Humaid that he said: I asked A'ishah: with which thing did the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" use to inaugurate his (supererogatory) prayer at night? She said: Verily, you've asked me about something, about which none else ever has asked me before: he used to magnify (Allah) ten times, praise (Allah) ten times, glorify (Allah) ten times, and ask for (Allah's) Forgiveness ten times, saying: "O Allah! Forgive me, guide me, sustain me, give me health (and power that enable me to serve you more)!" he further used to seek (with Allah) from being put to a critical situation on the Day of Judgement.

1357- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman that he said: I asked A'ishah: With which thing did the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" use to start (his prayer) whenever he stood (for supererogatory prayer) at night? She said: He used to say: "O Allah: the Lord of Gibra'il, Mikha'il and Israfil, the Creator of both the heavens and the earth, the Knower of the unseen and what is seen: You judge between Your servants in that about which they dispute: guide me to the truth by Your Permission about which they dispute: You always guide to the bath, which is straight!" Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Umar (a sub-narrator) said: Keep it in the same form "Gibra'il" since it is related as such from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

[181] How Many Rak'ahs Should One Offer For (Supererogatory) Prayers At Night

1358- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to offer (in the period) from the conclusion of the Isha prayer to the Fajr (prayer) eleven rak'ahs, ending each two of them with the salutation, and he used to conclude (his prayer) with a single rak'ah. (The period of) his prostrations in them was (so long) enough for anyone of you to recite fifty Verses,

Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" slept till the middle of the night, either a bit before or a bit after it and then woke up, and rubbed the traces of sleep off his face with his hands. He then recited the last ten verses of The Surah of Al Imran, got up and went to a hanging water-skin. He then performed the ablution perfectly from it, and then stood up to offer the prayer. I, too, got up and did the same he had done. Then I went and stood by his side. He placed his right hand on my head and caught my right ear and twisted it. He prayed two rak'ahs then

[182] Which Portion Of The Night Is The Best (For One To Offer The Supererogatory Prayer)

1364- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Abasah that he said: I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Which (type of people) did embrace Islam with you?" he said: "(From both types) a free as well as a slave." (Abu Bakr represented the free ones and Bilal the slaves.) I said: "Is there any time, which (is most fitting for service, and in which one engaged in religious service) is the closest to Allah?" he said: "Yes, it is the middle portion of the night."

1365- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to sleep in the first portion of the night, and give life (i.e. fill with religious service) its last portion.

1366- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Our Lord, Blessed and Exalted be He, descends (to the nearest heaven) when the last third of night remains every night, and says: "Who does ask Me (for anything) so that I would give it to him? Who does invoke Me so that I would respond to his invocation? Who does ask for My Forgiveness, so that I would forgive for him?" (He Almighty stays as such) until the rise of the dawn." For this reason, they gave preference to offering prayer at the last portion of the night over its first portion.

1367- It is narrated on the authority of Rifa'ah Al-Juhani that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, Allah defers (the following offers He raises to the people) until when half or even two-thirds the night elapses, He says: "Let My servants ask none but Me! Whoever invokes Me, I would respond to his invocation; whoever asks Me (for anything) I would give it to him; and whoever asks for My Forgiveness, I would forgive for him" (And He remains as such) until the dawn appears."

قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ عَبَّاسٍ: فَقُمْتُ فَصَنَعْتُ مِثْلَ مَا صَنَعَ. ثُمَّ ذَهَبْتُ فَقُمْتُ إِلَى جَنْبِهِ. فَوَضَعَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَدَهُ الْيُمْنَى عَلَى رَأْسِي. وَأَخَذَ أُذُنِي الْيُمْنَى يَفْتِلُهَا. فَصَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ رَكْعَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ أَوْتَرَ. ثُمَّ اضْطَجَعَ حَتَّى جَاءَهُ الْمُؤَذِّنُ. فَصَلَّى رَكْعَتَيْنِ خَفِيفَتَيْنِ. ثُمَّ خَرَجَ إِلَى الصَّلاَةِ.

[183] The Amount That Is Expected To Be Sufficient From The (Supererogatory) Prayer At Night

1368- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one recites only the last two Verses of the Surah of Al-Baqarah on a night, this (amount) would be sufficient for him." According to the narration of Hafs, Abd Ar-Rahman said: I met Abu Mas'ud while he was circumambulating (the Ka'bah), and he narrated it to me.

1369- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever recites only the last two Verses of the Surah of Al-Baqarah on a night, this (amount) would suffice him (to stand for supererogatory prayer at night)."

[184] When The Praying One Is Overtaken By Slumber

1370- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you feels drowsy (while he is praying) let him lie until slumber is over, for he does not know, while offering prayer in the state of drowsiness, that perhaps he abuses himself even though he intends to ask for forgiveness."

1371- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik: Once The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered the Mosque and saw a rope hanging in between its two pillars. He asked: "What is this rope?" The people said: "This is for Zainab to offer prayer with the help of it: whenever she feels tired, she would stick to it (to keep standing for the prayer)." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Undo it! Undo it! You should pray as long as you feel active, and when you get tired, sit down."

1372- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you stands (to offer the supererogatory prayer) at night, and finds the Qur'an difficult upon his tongue (to recite) and he does not know what he is saying (because of the traces of slumber), let him lie (until slumber is over)."

[185] Offering Prayer (In The Period) Between Maghrib And Isha

1373- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who offers twenty rak'ahs (in the period) between Maghrib and Isha, Allah constructs for him a house in the Garden."

1374- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who offers six rak'ahs (in the time) between Maghrib and Isha, and does not speak evil between them, (the reward he receives for) that will be equal to (the reward he receives for) the religious service of twelve years."

[186] Offering The Voluntary Prayers In The House

1375- It is narrated on the authority of Asim Ibn Amr that he said: A group of people from the inhabitants of Iraq set out and went to Umar (in Medina), who said to them: "From where are you?" they said: "From Iraq." He asked them: "Have you come by the leave (of your governor)?" they answered in the affirmative, and then asked him about the man's (voluntary) prayer in his house, thereupon he said: I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that and he said: "As to the man's (voluntary) prayer in his house, it is a light: so, you should give light to your houses."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Umar from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", through another chain of transmitters.

1376- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you finishes his (obligatory) prayer (in the mosque), let him assign a portion of his (prayer, i.e. the voluntary prayer) to his house, for indeed, Allah is going to make his prayer a (source of) goodness for his house."

1377- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not take your houses as graves."

Comment: (This means: do not leave the houses free from prayer, and do not let yourselves like the dead, who do not celebrate the Praises of Allah, and thus your houses become as graves for you.)

1378- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Sa'd that he said: I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Which (type of) prayer is best: the prayer in my house or the prayer in the mosque?" on that he said: "Do you not see how close is my house to the mosque? Even though, to offer prayer in my house is much dearer to me than to offer prayer in the mosque, unless it is an obligatory prayer (which should be offered in the mosque in congregation)."

[187] Concerning The Duha Prayer

1379- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Al-Harith that he said: During the lifetime of Uthman, and the greater part of the people offered the Duha prayer regularly, I asked (whether the Prophet had ever offered it), and I did not find anyone to tell me that he (the Prophet) had ever offered it barring Umm Hani' who told me that he offered eight rak'ahs for it.

1380- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who offers twelve rak'ahs for the Duha prayer, Allah builds for him a palace of gold in the Garden."

1381- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adhah Al-Adawiyyah that she said: I asked A'ishah: "Did the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offer the Duha prayer?" she said: "Yes: he offered four (rak'ahs) for it, adding to that as much as Allah willed (him to add)."

1382- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who guards strictly, the (habit of offering the) Duha prayer, his sins will be forgiven for him, even though they are (as much as) the foam of the sea."

[188] Concerning The Istikharah Prayer

(Invoking Allah to guide one to get the better choice)

1383- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to teach us how to ask Allah to guide one to get the better choice (concerning any job or deed), in all matters (Istikharah) as he taught us the Surahs of the Qur'an. He said: "When anyone of you thinks of doing any job he should offer a two-Rak'ah prayer other than the compulsory ones and say after the prayer: "O Allah! I ask guidance from Your Knowledge, And Power from Your Might and I ask for Your Great Bounty. You have power (over all things) and I have not. You know and I do not and You know the unseen. O Allah! If You know that this job (and he makes a mention of it) is good for my religion and my subsistence and in my Hereafter (or If it is better for my present and later needs) Then ordain it for me and make it easy for me to get, And then bless me in it. If You know that this job (and he mentions the same as in the former statement) is harmful to me In my religion and subsistence and in the Hereafter (or If it is worse for my present and later needs) Then keep it away from me and let me be away from it. Ordain for me whatever is good for me, and make me satisfied with it.""

[189] The Need Prayer

1384- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa Al-Aslami that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came out to us and said: "Whoever has a certain need to (be fulfilled by) Allah or anyone of His servants, let him perform ablution, and offer a two-rak'ah prayer, and then say: "There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, Most Forbearing, Most Honoured (and Generous); Glory be to Allah, the Lord of the Throne, Most Great; Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the worlds! O Allah! I ask You those (things) that assure Your Mercy (to me), and those (things) that affirm Your Forgiveness (to me). (I ask You) to give me the benefit from every (kind of) goodness, and safety from every (kind of) sin. I ask You to leave no sin for me but that you would forgive it, nor distress but that You would relieve (me of) it, nor need in which Your Good Pleasure is sought but that You would fulfill it for me." Then, let him ask Allah for whatever affairs of the world and the hereafter he wills: that (for which he asks) will be decreed (for him)."

1385- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ibn Hunaif that he said: A blind man came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Invoke Allah for me so that He would cure me (and restore my sight to me)." He said: "If you so like, I would defer (the reward of Allah's Trial to you to the hereafter), and this is much better for you; and if you so like, I would invoke Him for you." He said: "No: invoke (Him for me)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to perform ablution perfectly, offer a two-rak'ah prayer, and supplicate (Allah) with the following supplication: "O Allah! I ask You, and turn to You with (the help of) Muhammad, the Prophet of mercy! O Muhammad! I turn with (the help of) you to my Lord in this need of mine to be fulfilled. O Allah! Give him (the Prophet) the permission to intercede for me!" Abu Ishaq said: This narration is authentic.

[190] The Prayer Of Glorification

1386- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Rafi' that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Al-Abbas: "O my uncle! Should I not give you (a gift)? Should I not keep good relation with you? Should I not be a source of benefit to you?" He said: "Yes, O Messenger of Allah!" on that he said: "Then, offer a four-rak'ah prayer, in each of which, recite the Opening of the Book (Al-Fatihah) and a Surah (from the Qur'an), and when the recitation is over, say: "Glory be to Allah; praise be to Allah; there is no god but Allah; Allah is Greater" fifteen times before you bow down. Then bow down, and say it ten times (besides the glorification uttered in the bowing); then, raise your head (from bowing) and say it ten times; and then fall in prostration and say it ten times (besides these genuinely uttered in the prostration); then raise your head and say it ten times; then prostrate (once again) and say it ten times; and then raise your head and say it ten times before you stand up (for the coming rak'ah).: those are seventy-five statements to be uttered in every rak'ah, which makes (a total of) three hundred in the four rak'ahs. If your sins are (as much) as the heaped sand, they will be forgiven for you by Allah." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! If one has no power to say that everyday (what should he do)?" he said: "Say it every Friday; and if you could not do so, say it every month...until he said every year."

1387- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Al-Abbas Ibn Al-Muttalib: "O Abbas! O my uncle! Should I not give you (a gift)? Should I not grant you? Should I not be a source of advantage to you? Should I not instruct you ten things (which plot out ten types of your sins): if you do that (which I'm going to tell you), Allah will forgive you (the whole of) your sins, the first and the last, the old and the new, that which committed by mistake, and that which is committed intentionally, the minor and the major, that which is done in secrecy and that which is done in public? Those are ten things: to offer a four-rak'ah prayer, in each rak'ah, recite the Opening of the Book and a Surah (from the Qur'an), and when you finish from the recitation in the first rak'ah, say while you are standing: "Glory be to Allah; praise be to Allah; there is no god but Allah; Allah is Greater" fifteen times; then bow down, and say it ten times while you are bowing (besides those uttered in the bowing); then, raise your head from bowing, and say it ten times; then fall in prostration, and say it ten times while you are prostrating (besides those said in the prostration); then raise your head from prostration and say it ten times; then prostrate and say it ten times; and then raise your head from prostration and say it ten times: those are seventy-five (statements) to be uttered in every rak'ah, which you have to say in the four rak'ahs. If you have power to offer such a prayer everyday, do it; and if you could not do , let it be every Friday; and if you could not do, let it be every month; and if you could not do, let it be (at least) once during your lifetime."

[191] The Night Of The Middle Of Sha'ban

1388- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When

191 ـ بابُ ما جَاءَ في لَيْلَةِ النِّصْفِ مِنْ شَعْبَانَ

it is the night of the middle of Sha'ban, stand (for supererogatory prayer) at night, and observe fast during the day, for Allah descends on it (with His Glory) to the nearest heaven on the setting of the sun and says: "Isn't there anyone who asks for My Forgiveness, so that I would forgive for him? Isn't there anyone who asks for sustenance, so that I would provide him with sustenance? Isn't there anyone who is stricken by distress (of sickness or the like of that) so that I would relieve him of it? Isn't there such and such? Isn't there such and such?" (He remains as such) until the dawn rises."

1389- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: One night (and it was the night of the middle of Sha'ban), I missed the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and I went out in search for him, and behold! He was in Baqi' raising his head up towards the sky. He said: "O A'ishah! Have you felt afraid that Allah and His Messenger would be unjust to you?" (I.e. have you thought, though falsely, that I gave your turn to another one of my wives?) I said: "You have said so, even though such (an evil thought) has not come to my mind. However, I thought you went to one of your wives (as it is lawful for you to do so)." On that he said: "Verily, Allah Almighty descends (with His Glory) on the night of the middle of Sha'ban to the nearest heaven, and forgives for (as much servants as) more than the number of the hair of the sheep."

1390- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa Al-Ash'ari that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "On the night of the middle of Sha'ban, Allah manifests His Glory so that He would forgive for all of His creatures, barring a pagan or a belligerent (to the Muslim group)."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters.

[192] Offering Prayer And Prostration On Giving Thanks (To Allah)

1392- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was giving the glad news of (fulfilling) a certain need, thereupon he fell in prostration (out of giving thanks to Allah).

1392 ـ حدّثنا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ صَالِحٍ الْمِصْرِيُّ. أَنْبَأَنَا أَبِي. أَنْبَأَنَا ابْنُ لَهِيعَةَ، عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي حَبِيبٍ، عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ الْوَلِيدِ بْنِ عَبْدَةَ السَّهْمِيِّ، عَنْ أَنَسِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ؛ أَنَّ النَّبِيَّ ﷺ بُشِّرَ بِحَاجَةٍ، فَخَرَّ سَاجِداً.

1394- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakrah that whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" received the news, or was given the glad tidings of something that would please him, he would fall in prostration, out of giving thanks to Allah "Blessed and Glorified be He".

[193] The Prayer Is To Expiate (Sins)

1395- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib that he said: Whenever I heard a Hadith from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would benefit from whatever Allah willed of it, and whenever I heard a narration from someone else which he attributed to him, I should ask him to take oath (that it is really said by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"), and whenever he took oath to that, I would believe him. Abu Bakr narrated to me, and of course, Abu Bakr has told the truth, that he heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "There is no man who commits a sin, then offers ablution perfectly, performs a two-rak'ah prayer, (Mis'ar said: offers prayer) and then asks for Allah's forgiveness, but that Allah Almighty will forgive him."

1396- It is narrated on the authority of Asim Ibn Sufyan Ath-Thaqafi that they took part in the holy battle of As-Salasil; and when they fail to catch up with the fight, they took their positions as guards (on the borders of the state). When they returned to Mu'awiyah, there was with him Abu Ayyub and Uqbah Ibn Amir. Asim said: "O Abu Ayyub! We failed to catch up with the fight this year; and we were informed that whoever offered prayer in the four mosques (i.e. the Ka'bah, the Prophet's mosque, the Farthest Mosque, and the mosque of Quba), his sins will be forgiven for him." Abu Ayyub said: "O son of my brother! Should I guide you to what is easier than that? I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "He, who performs ablution (perfectly) as he was commanded (to do), and offers prayer (perfectly) as it was enjoined upon him, all of his previous sins will be forgiven for him. Isn't it so O Uqbah?" he answered in the affirmative.

1397- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said:

"Tell me: if anyone of you has a running stream in the courtyard of his house, in which he takes bath five times a day: what dirt would remain on his body?" he said: "Nothing." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, offering prayer removes the sins in the same way as water removes the dirt."

1398- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that once, a man got from a woman what is less than adultery; and I did not know to what extent he went on relation with her, but anyway, he did not have full sexual relation with her. He came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and made a mention of that to him, thereupon Allah revealed: "And establish regular prayers at the two ends of the day and at the approaches of the night: for those things that are good remove those that are evil: be that the word of remembrance to those who remember (their Lord)." (Hud 114) he said: "O Messenger of Allah! Does it apply to me?" he said: "It applies to such as acts upon it."

[194] The Enjoinment Of The Five (Obligatory) Prayers

1399- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah enjoined upon my nation fifty prayers (to be offered everyday); and when I returned with that (command) I came upon Moses, who asked: "What has your Lord enjoined upon your nation?" I said: "He has enjoined fifty prayers upon me." He said: "Return to your Lord, (and ask Him to reduce that) since (the people of) your nation have no power to endure that." I returned to my Lord (and made a mention of that to Him) and he lifted from me half of those (fifty prayers). When I returned to Moses and told him, he said to me: "Return to your Lord (and ask Him to reduce that) since (the people of) your nation have no power to bear that." I returned to my Lord (and asked Him to decrease them) thereupon He said: "Those are five (obligatory prayers to be offered everyday), and they are fifty (in reward): the word never is changed with Me." I returned to Moses (and told him) thereupon he said: "Return to your Lord (and ask Him to reduce that)." I said: "I have felt shy of my Lord."

1400- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: Your Prophet was commanded to offer fifty prayers (everyday); and he asked his Lord to reduce them (and they were reduced) to five prayers (every day and night).

1401- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon

I said: "Tell me: if I could not travel to it (what would I do)?" he said: "Then, you could present to it oil to be used in lighting up the lamps: whoever does so will (have the same reward of) the one who has come (and offered prayer in) it."

[199] What About Making The Pulpit

1414- It is narrated on the authority of Ubai Ibn Ka'b that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used (at first) to offer prayer to a trunk (of a date-palm), since the mosque was (made in the form of) a shed (of stalk leafs); and he also used to deliver his sermons to it. A man from his companions (thought to be Tamim Ad-Dari) said: "Do you like that we would make for you something on which you might stand on Friday (prayer), and thus the people would see you, and you would be able to make them hear your sermon?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered in the affirmative; and he made three steps for him, which led to the upper part of the pulpit. When they intended to put the pulpit, they put it in the place in which it was. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wanted to stand to (ascend) the pulpit, he came upon the trunk (of the date-palm), to which he used to deliver his sermons; and when he went beyond it, it trembled, collapsed and then was split. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard the sound of the trunk, he descended (from the pulpit) and passed his hand over it until it became calm, and then he returned to the pulpit. Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered prayer, he would pray to it. When the mosque was ruined and its features were changed, Ubai Ibn Ka'b took this trunk, and it remained in his house until it decayed, and the earth insects ate it up, and it changed into ruins

1415- It is narrated on the authority of both Anas and Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used (at first) to deliver his sermons to a trunk (of a date-palm); and when he took the pulpit, and he went to (ascend it) the trunk moaned, thereupon he came to the trunk, and embraced it, with the result that it became calm. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had I not embraced it, it would have kept moaning to the Day of Judgement."

1416- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hazim: Some people were different about the sort of wood from which the pulpit (of The Prophet) was made. They came to Sahl Ibn Sa'd and asked him about that; and He said: "None from the remaining people has better knowledge of that than I. It

1417- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: (At first) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to stand (while delivering his sermons) to the base of a tree (or said to a trunk), before he took a pulpit. Then, the trunk moaned. Jabir added: (Its moaning was so loud) that the people in the mosque heard it, (and it kept as such) until the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to it, and passed his hand over it, and it became quiet. One of the people said: "Had he not come to it (and passed his hand over it), it would have kept moaning to the Day of Judgement."

[200] The Long Standing In The Prayer

1418- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Wa'il from Abdullah that he said: One night I prayed behind the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he prolonged the standing so much that I intended to do something unfitting (to do in the prayer). I asked: What is it? He said: I intended to sit down and leave him (standing).

1419- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Mughirah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to prolong the standing (in the prayer) until his feet got swollen, thereupon it was said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Allah has forgiven for you your earlier and later sins!" he said: "Then, should I not be a thankful servant?"

[201] Offering More Prostrations

1422- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Fatimah that he said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Guide me to a (good) deed, to do, upon which I would be straight (in service)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I advise you to offer prostrations (so much): indeed, you never offer a prostration for Allah but that with it Allah upgrades you a degree, and plots out a sin from you."

1423- It is narrated on the authority of Ma'dan Ibn Abu Talhah Al-Ya'muri that he said: I met Thawban and said to him: Relate to me a narration (from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") perchance Allah would make it a source of advantage to me. He kept silent. I said to him the same once again and he also kept silent (and this happened) thrice. Then he said: I advise you to offer (more) prostrations for Allah Almighty: indeed, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "No servant offers a prostration for Allah but that with it Allah upgrades him a degree, and plots out a sin from him." Ma'dan added: I met Abu Ad-Darda' and asked him; and he said the same.

1424- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that he heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "No servant offers a prostration for Allah but that with it Allah writes down a good deed (in his account), plots out a sin from him, and upgrades him a degree. For this reason, you should offer prostrations so much."

[202] The First Thing For Which One Will Be Reckoned Is The Prayer

1425- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Hakim Ad-Dabbi that Abu Hurairah said to him: When you meet the people of your region, tell them that I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Verily, the first thing for which a Muslim servant will be reckoned on the Day of Judgement is the (obligatory) written prayer: if he completed it (it would be good), otherwise, it will be said: "Complete it for him from whatever voluntary (prayers he offered)." If he has voluntary (prayers), the obligatory (prayer) will be completed from his voluntary (prayers); and then, the same will apply to all the remaining (religious) services enjoined (by Allah upon the people)."

1426- It is narrated on the authority of Tamim Ad-Dari that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The first thing for which a servant will be reckoned on the Day of Judgement is his (obligatory) prayers: if he completed it, it would be written as additional (good deed) for him. But if he did not complete it, Allah Almighty would say to His angels: "Look: do you find any voluntary (prayers) to be offered by My servant therewith to complete whatever obligatory (prayers) he missed?" then, all the remaining acts will be dealt with in the same way."

[203] What About Offering The Supererogatory Prayer Wherever The Obligatory Prayer Is Offered

1427- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you finishes from his (obligatory) prayer, does he fail to go forward, backward, to the right or to the left, to offer the supererogatory prayer?"

Comment: (The significance of this Hadith is that it is better for one not to offer the supererogatory prayer just in the very location in which he has offered the obligatory prayer: but, let him move away from it, even a bit, to the front, to the back, to the right, or to the left, in order to make the place of worship more spacious.)

1428- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let not the imam offer the (supererogatory) prayer in the very station in which he has offered the (obligatory) written prayer, (but it is better for him to) move away from it (even a bit)."

[204] It Is Forbidden To Take A Certain Place In The Mosque And Does Not Offer Prayer But In It

1429- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Shibl that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade three things: (to make prostration as light and short as) the click of a crow; (to stretch out one's arms flat on the ground during prostration like) the stretching out of the wild animal; and that man should fix (for himself) a place (in the mosque) and (does not) offer prayer (but) in it like a camel that is accustomed to (its kneeling place).

1430- It is narrated on the authority of Yazid Ibn Abu Ubaid from Salamah Ibn Al-Akwa' that he used to come to offer the supererogatory prayer of Duha (in the mosque), turning to the pillar, a bit far from the

She said: "Then, it (sending peace to them) is possible."

1450- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Al-Munkadir that he said: I visited Jabir Ibn Abdullah while death was approaching him, and said to him: Salute the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on my behalf.

[5] The Believer Receives Reward While He Is Approaching Death

1451- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into her, and she had a relative of hers, whom death was constricting. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw how she suffered (because of that), he said to her: "Do not grieve for your relative, for that (which he is suffering) is a portion of his good deeds."

1452- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the faithful believer dies with the sweat of forehead."

Comment: (This might be because of the severity of death agonies he suffers to have the remaining portion of his sins plotted out from him; or because of his feeling shy of Allah Almighty when he receives the glad tidings of his being admitted to the Garden in spite of his sins; or it might be said that the sweat of forehead is a sign by which the believing dead in particular are characterized, even though its significance is unknown.)

1453- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa that he said: I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "When is a (dying) servant's awareness of people cut off (irretrievably)?" He said: "When he witnesses (the death angels, and the affairs of the hereafter)."

Thereupon he (the Prophet) closed them up and said: "No doubt, when one's soul is arrested, the sight follows it(and this is why one's eyes should be shut after death)."

1455- It is narrated on the authority of Shaddad Ibn Aws that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When you are present (at the time of the death of) your dead persons, shut their eyes, for when one's soul is arrested, his sight follows it; and you should invoke good (for him) for the angels say "Amen" in confirmation to what the inhabitants of the house say."

Then apply camphor or some of it at the end. When you finish, notify me." So when we finished it, we informed him and he gave us his waist-sheet and told us to shroud the dead body in it.

1459- The same is narrated on the authority of Umm Atiyyah, with a slight variation of words: in this narration it is reported that he ordered them to wash her an odd number of times, to start from her right side, and the parts of ablution in her body, and Umm Atiyyah said: We combed her hair, and entwined it into three braids.

1470- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The (body of the) Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was shrouded in three white Suhuliyyah pieces (of cloth made of) cotton.

1474- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Qatadah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If anyone of you is in charge of (the process of preparing the dead body of) his brother (for burial), let him make good his shroud (and let him shroud him perfectly)."

[27] The Death Of, And Offering The Funeral Prayer For The Son Of The Messenger Of Allah

1510- It is narrated on the authority of Isma'il Ibn Abu Khalid that he said: I said to Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa: Did you see Ibrahim, the son of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? He said: He died when he was a child; and had it been decreed that a Prophet should be after Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", surely, his son would have lived after him. But certainly, there is no Prophet after him (Muhammad the Seal of all the Prophets and Messengers).

1511- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: When Ibrahim, the son of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered funeral prayer for him, and then he said: "No doubt, he has a foster suckling mother in the Garden; and had he lived, he would have been a man of truth, Prophet; and had he lived, I would have emancipated his maternal uncles from amongst the Copts, and None of the Copts would have been enslaved."

1512- It is narrated on the authority of Fatimah Bint Al-Husain from his father Al-Husain Ibn Ali that he said: When Al-Qasim, the son of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, Khadijah (his mother) said: "O Messenger of Allah! The place of milk (in my breast) from which Al-Qasim used to suck is flowing with milk. Would that Allah caused him to stay alive until he would complete his sucking." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He will complete his sucking in the Garden." She said: "If I am sure to know that, O Messenger of Allah, his (departure) will be made easy for me (to bear)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you like, I will invoke Allah Almighty to cause you hear his voice (in the Garden)." She said: "O Messenger of Allah! I trust Allah and His Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

[28] Offering Funeral Prayer On And Burying Martyrs

1513- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: On the Day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, those (martyrs) were brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and he offered funeral prayers on them ten by ten, and Hamzah was kept in his place, while (every ten of) these would be lifted (for other ten to be brought to replace them), but he (Hamzah) remained in the same position (in which he was put at first).

Comment: (Thus, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered funeral prayer on Hamzah so many times, as much as the number of the martyrs for whom he offered funeral prayers by tens.)

1514- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" collected every two martyrs of Uhud in one grave (or one piece of cloth), and asked: "Which of them had more of the Qur'an?" When one of them was pointed out for him, he would put that one first in the grave and say: "I will be a witness on these (on the Day of Judgement)." He ordered that they be buried with the blood on their bodies. They were not washed nor was a funeral prayer offered for them.

1515- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the martyrs of (the holy battle of) Uhud should be deprived of their armours and the leather (they put on to save them from the scorching cold), and to be buried in their clothes with their blood.

1516- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the martyrs of (the holy battle of) Uhud should be restored to (be buried in) the places where they died (in the battlefield) after they had been taken to Medina.

[29] Offering Funeral Prayer On The Dead In The Mosque

1517- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who offers funeral prayer on a dead in the mosque will receive nothing" (of the superiority given to such as does outside the mosque, even though he will have the reward of the prayer as it is valid).

1518- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: By Allah! the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not offer the funeral prayer for Suhail Ibn Baida' but in the mosque. (Ibn Majah says: the narration of A'ishah is more reliable).

[30] Concerning The Times At Which It Is Undesirable To Offer Funeral Prayer Or Bury A Dead

1519- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir Al-Juhani that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to offer funeral prayer or bury our dead persons in three hours (of the day): before the sun rises clearly, when the shadow seems standing

[31] Offering Funeral Prayer On Those Of The Qiblah

1523- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: When Abdullah Ibn Ubai (the chief of the hypocrites in Medina) died, his son (Al-Hubab, a faithful believer) came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Give me your shirt, so that I would shroud him in it." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Notify me (when the dead body is ready)." When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" intended to offer the funeral prayer for him Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said to him: "It is not up to you (to offer funeral prayer on him since you were forbidden by Allah)." But the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered funeral prayer for him and said (to Umar): "I've been given the freedom to choose one of two things: to ask for (Allah's) Forgiveness for them or not to ask for forgiveness for them." Then, Allah Almighty revealed: " Nor do you ever pray for any of them that dies, nor stand at his grave; for they rejected Allah and His Messenger, and died in a state of perverse rebellion." (At-Tawbah 84)

1524- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The head of the hypocrites in Medina (Abdullah Ibn Ubai Ibn Salul) died, and he had recommended that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should offer funeral prayer for him, and shroud him in his (the Prophet's) shirt. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" offered funeral prayer for him, and shrouded him in his shirt, and further stood at his grave, thereupon Allah Almighty revealed: " Nor do you ever pray for any of them that dies, nor stand at his grave; for they rejected Allah and His Messenger, and died in a state of perverse rebellion." (At-Tawbah 84)

1525- It is narrated on the authority of Wathilah Ibn Al-Asqa' that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "You should offer funeral prayer for everyone (of the Muslims) and strive your utmost (with main and might in the Cause of Allah) beside every governor (whose purpose is to have Allah's Word prevail)."

1526- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Samurah that a man from amongst the companions of the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” was wounded, and when his injury harmed him, he went to some blades therewith he slew himself. [32] Offering Funeral Prayer On The Grave

1527- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that a black woman used to clean the mosque, and the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” missed her and when he asked about her many days later, he was told that she had died. On that he said: "Why did you not inform me (of her death, in order to offer funeral prayer for her)?" he then came to her grave and offered the funeral prayer for her.

1528- It is narrated on the authority of Yazid Ibn Thabit, the older brother of Zaid Ibn Thabit that he said: We set out with the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, and when he reached Baqi' he saw a new grave; and when he asked about it, it was said to him: “It is (the grave of) such and such a woman.” He recognized her and said: "Why did you not inform me of her death?" they said: "We found that you were fasting, having your siesta, and we disliked to harm you." On that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "Do not do so once again! I would not (like to) know that anyone among you died but that you should inform me of his death as long as I live among you: no doubt, my prayer for such is a source of mercy for him." Then, he came to the grave, made us align behind him, and offered (the funeral prayer with) four Takbirs on it.

1529- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amir Ibn Rabie'ah from his father that a black woman died, and the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” was not informed of her death. While the bricks were being levelled on the grave, he said: "O Allah! Save that from Satan, and from the punishment of the grave! O Allah! Make the ground (as spacious as to be) far away from his sides, make his soul ascend (peacefully to You), and bestow upon him good pleasure from Your Presence!" I said to him: "O Ibn Umar! Is it something you heard from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", or you said from your own?" he said: "(Do you think) I'm able to invent like that? Nay! It is something I heard from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

[39] The Grave Is Desirable

1554- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The grave is for us (the Muslims), and the tomb is for (those of the Scripture) other than us."

1555- It is narrated on the authority of Jarir Ibn Abdullah Al-Bajali that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The grave is for us (the Muslims), and the tomb is for (those who do not belong to us."

[40] What About The Tomb

1557- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, there was in Medina (two persons) one who used to make graves, and the other to make tombs (for the dead to be buried). They said: "Let's ask Allah to guide us to what is more right: let's send to both, and whoever of them comes first, we will leave him make it." They sent to both (to come), and the one of graves came first, thereupon they (decided to) make a grave for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1558- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, they differed whether to make a grave or a tomb (for him), and they discussed the matter so loudly that their voices rose high, thereupon Umar said: "Do not make noise in the presence of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", be he living or dying" or said something similar to that. They sent to both makers of graves and tombs, and the maker of graves came (first), and thus, they (decided to) dig a grave to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was buried.

[41] What About Digging The Grave

1559- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Adra' As-Sulami that he said: One night, I came to guard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and behold! Mu'adh Ibn Jabal, Ubai Ibn Ka'b, and Ubadah Ibn As-Samit got up with him. When we came in, the child was brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his breath was disturbed in his chest (I think he said as if it was a leather water-skin). On that the eyes of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" started shedding tears. Ubadah said: "O Allah's Apostle! What is this?" He replied: "It is mercy which Allah has lodged in the hearts of mankind, and Allah is merciful only to such of His servants as are merciful (to others)."

1589- It is narrated on the authority of Asma' Bint Yazid that she said: When Ibrahim, the son of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wept for him, thereupon the one who came to condole him, either Abu Bakr or Umar, said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! You are the greatest among those whose right Allah has appreciated (what is the reason for your weeping?)" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the eye sheds tears, and the heart grieves, and we never say what displeases the Lord. Had it not been a true Promise (from Allah), and (had it not been that death is) promised (by Allah) to gather (all the creatures), and that the latter is to follow the former (in death), we would have been more distressed for you O Ibrahim than we are now; and we are aggrieved for your (departure)."

1590- It is narrated on the authority of Hamnah Bint Jahsh that it was said to her: "Your brother was killed"; thereupon she said: "Allah's Mercy be upon him: we all are to Allah, to Whom we are going to return." When it was said to her that her husband had been killed, she said: "How sad I am!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the husband has, in (the heart of the) woman (his wife) a branch (of love to which she sticks) as none else ever has."

1591- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: (On his way from the holy battle of Uhud), the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon women belonging to Banu Abd Al-Ashhal, and they were weeping for their killed men on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "But there is none to weep for Hamzah!" some women from Al-Ansar came and wept for Hamzah. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up he said: "Woe to them! Has they not returned yet? Let them return, and not weep for any deceased afterwards."

1592- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abu Awfa that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade lamentation (in which wailing over the dead was essential as was the habit of the time of ignorance).

[54] The Dead Is Punished For (His Family's) Wailing Over Him

1593- It is narrated on the authority of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dead is punished for (his family's) wailing over him."

1594- It is narrated on the authority of Musa Ibn Abu Musa that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dead is punished because of such of the living (from amongst his clan) as wail over him, when it is said: "O who used to support us! O who used to clothe us! O you who used to help us! O who used to protect us!" and the like of that. he then is moved violently and asked (by the angels): "Are you such and such? Are you such and such (as they say about you)?"" Asid (a sub-narrator) said: I said (to the narrator): Glory be to Allah! Allah Almighty says: "And no soul of sin does bear the burden of another", thereupon he said: Woe to you! Do I tell you that Abu Musa narrated that from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and you Make such objection)? Do you see that Abu Musa told a lie about the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", or that I tell a lie about Abu Musa?

1595- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: A Jewess died, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard them (her family) weeping for her, thereupon he said: "Verily, her family are weeping for her, and she is being punished in the grave (because of such weeping)."

1598- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah: Abu Salamah told me that he heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "There is no Muslim befallen by a calamity, and he hastens to say what Allah commanded him to say: "We are to Allah, to Whom we shall return; O Allah! I expect a reward from You for (my patience on) my calamity, so, recompense me with something better in substitution for it", but that Allah would recompense him with something better, in substitution for it." When (my husband) Abu Salamah died, I remembered what he related to me from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". I said: "We all are to Allah, to Whom we shall return; O Allah! I expect a reward from You for (my patience on) my calamity", and whenever I intended to say: "so, recompense me with something better in substitution for it", I would soon say to myself: "Who could be a better recompense than Abu Salamah?" When I said it, Allah recompensed me with Muhammad (The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as a husband in substitution for Abu Salamah), and gave me reward for my (patience on my) calamity.

He then said: "O people! If anyone of the people, or of the faithful believers is befallen by a calamity, let him console himself with his calamity because of (his missing) me from the calamity that befalls him because of (missing) someone else: Verily, no one of my nation will be befallen after me by a calamity more severe upon him that his calamity of (missing) me."

(i.e. would that he was born in a land, other than Medina, and died in Medina which would be thus a strange land for him.) a man from the (present) people said: "What is the reason for that O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "If a man died in a land strange from that where he was born, the space from where he was born to the place where his footsteps ended (by death) will be calculated (to be given) to him in the Garden."

The digger took out bones of a leg or forearm, and intended to break it, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Do not break that, for your breaking the (bone of) a deceased is just like your breaking it while he is living. But, you could place it in the side of the grave.")

[64] The Ailment Of The Messenger Of Allah

1618- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah that he said: I asked A'ishah: "O mother! Tell me about the (fatal) ailment of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." She said: "He became ill and started breathing so loudly as if his breaths were like those of a raisin eater (who ejects seeds from his mouth)." It was his habit to go round his wives (i.e. visit them to spend the night with them by turns); and when he became seriously ill, he asked their permission to stay in the house of A'ishah and they would visit him by turns (and they approved). A'ishah added: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into me supported by two men, with his feet dragging on the ground; and one of those two was Al-Abbas." When I made a mention of that to Ibn Abbas he said: "Do you know who was the other man whom A'ishah did not name? he was Ali Ibn Abu Talib."

1620- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "No Prophet grows (fatally) ill but that he will be given the freedom to choose the world or the hereafter." When he grew fatally ill, his voice grew hoarse; and I heard him saying: "(Join me) with the Prophets, men of truth, martyrs and good righteous people." I came to know that he was given the freedom to choose (and that he chose the hereafter).

1620 ـ حدّثنا أَبُو مَرْوَانَ الْعُثْمَانِيُّ. حَدَّثَنَا إِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ سَعْدٍ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ عُرْوَةَ، عَنْ عَائِشَةَ؛ قَالَتْ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «مَا مِنْ نَبِيٍّ يَمْرَضُ إِلاَّ خُيِّرَ بَيْنَ الدُّنْيَا وَالآخِرَةِ». قَالَتْ: فَلَمَّا كَانَ مَرَضُهُ الَّذِي قُبِضَ فِيهِ أَخَذَتْهُ بُحَّةٌ فَسَمِعْتُهُ يَقُولُ: ﴿مَعَ ٱلَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ ٱللَّهُ عَلَيْهِم مِّنَ ٱلنَّبِيِّـۧنَ وَٱلصِّدِّيقِينَ وَٱلشُّهَدَآءِ وَٱلصَّـٰلِحِينَ﴾ [النساء: 69] فَعَلِمْتُ أَنَّهُ خُيِّرَ.

1621- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The wives of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gathered, and none of them was absent. Then, Fatimah (daughter of the Prophet) came, as if her walk was that of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said to her: "Welcome to my daughter!" he made her sit on his left side, and he told her something in secrecy, thereupon she went on weeping. A while later, he told her something in secrecy, thereupon she smiled. I asked her: "What made you weep?" she said: "I'm not to make public the secret of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I said: "I've never seen joy much closer (in time) to sadness than (I've seen) today." When she wept, I said to her: "Has the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" favoured you from amongst us with a speech and you weep?" I asked her about what he said, and she said: "I'm not to make public the secret of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, I asked her about what he said, and she said: "He told me that it was the habit of Gabriel to review the Qur'an with him once a year, and this year, he reviewed it with him twice, "and I do not think but that portends the coming of my term; and that you would be the first from amongst my family to join me: and how good predecessor I'm for you." Then I wept. Then, he said to me in secret: "Would you not be pleased to be the chief of the believing women, or the (chief of the) women of this nation?" On that I smiled."

1622- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I've never seen anyone whose pain (of fatal illness) was more severe than that of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1623- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" during his last agonies, and he had a utensil of water, in which he would place his hand, and rub his face with the water, saying: "O Allah! Help me endure the agonies of death!"

1624- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The last glimpse I caught of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on Monday, when he lifted the curtain, and I looked at his face, which was (as bright, honoured, and wonderful) as a page from the Mushaf. The people were offering prayer behind Abu Bakr, who intended to move back, but he (the Prophet) gestured to him to remain in his place,

(and carry on the prayer). Then, he drew the curtain, and died at the last portion of this day.

1625- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say during his fatal illness: "(Guard the habit of offering) the prayer, and (fulfill what is due upon you pertaining to) what your right hands possess." He kept saying that (statement) until his tongue failed to flow with it.

1626- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Aswad that they mentioned in the presence of A'ishah that Ali was made a trustee (by the Prophet), thereupon she said: "When did he entrust (anything) to him? I was supporting him against my breast or my lap when he asked for a vessel (of water), and then he inclined in my lap and died, and I did not feel (that he died): then, when did he "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" make a bequest?

[65] The Death And Burial Of The Messenger Of Allah

1627- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, Abu Bakr was with his wife the daughter of Kharijah in the Heights (of Medina), and the people started saying: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not die, but he was overtaken by such a state as would overtake him whenever he was being Divinely revealed." Abu Bakr came in, uncovered his face and kissed (the area) between his eyes and then said: "You are too dear to Allah to cause you to die twice. By Allah! the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" really died." At that time, Umar was standing in one side of the mosque, and he was saying: "By Allah! the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not die; and he will not die until he cut off the hands and legs of lots of hypocrites." Abu Bakr stood and ascended the pulpit, and then addressed the people: "Whoever worshipped Allah, Allah is alive and will never die and whoever worshipped Muhammad, then Muhammad died. Allah said: "Muhammad is no more than a Messenger: many were the Messengers that passed away before him. If he died or were slain, will you then turn back on your heels? If any do turn back on his heels, not the least harm will he do to Allah; but Allah (on the other hand) will swiftly reward those who (serve him) with gratitude." (Al Imran 144: 145) Umar said: "It seemed as if I have never recited this (Holy Statement) but at that time."

1628- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: When they intended to bury the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they sent to both Abu Ubaidah Ibn Al-Jarrah, who used to dig tombs like those of the inhabitants of Mecca, and Abu Talhah, who used to dig graves for the inhabitants of Medina. They sent two messengers to them and said: "O Allah! Choose what is better for Your Messenger!" Abu Talhah was found and he brought, and Abu Ubaidah was not found. Thus (it was Abu Talhah) who dug a grave for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". After they had finished from preparing him, he was placed on his deathbed in his dwelling place, and the people entered into the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in groups to offer funeral prayer for him, and when they finished, women were made to enter, and when they finished, boys were made to enter; and none led the funeral prayer on the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". At the same time, the Muslims differed as to where they would dig the grave of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Some said that he should be buried in the mosque; and others said that he should be buried with his companions. But Abu Bakr said: No doubt, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "No Prophet died but that he would be buried just where he died." Thus, they raised the bed of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", on which he died, and dug his grave (underneath it). Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was buried at midnight on the night before Wednesday. Ali Ibn Abu Talib, Al-Fadl Ibn Al-Abbas and his brother Qutham in addition to Shukran, the freed slave of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" descended the grave. Aws Ibn Khawli known as Abu Laila said to Ali Ibn Abu Talib: "I beseech you by Allah (to let us get) our portion from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." Ali gave him permission to descend with them. Shukran, his (the Prophet's) freed slave, took a piece of amaranth which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to wear and buried it in the grave, saying: "By Allah! None will ever wear it after you." It was buried (in the grave) with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1629- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" experienced such distress of death as he felt, Fatimah said: "How distressed is my father!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "There will be no distress upon your father after today. Your father has been overtaken by such (death) as will never leave anyone (of the creatures, after which there will be) the meeting on the Day of Judgement."

1630- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: Fatimah said to me: "O Anas! How did your souls allow you to throw (handfuls of) dust on (the body of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?"

It is narrated on the authority of Thabit from Anas that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, Fatimah said (in lamentation of him): "O my Father! To Gabriel I announce the news of his death! O my father! How close he is now to (the Presence of) his Lord! O my father! The Paradise (of Eternity) is his (final) abode! O my Father! He indeed responded to the Lord Who called him (unto His Presence)!" Hammad (a sub-narrator) said: I saw Thabit having gone on weeping when he related this narration so much that I observed the dislocation of his ribs .

1631- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: When it was the day on which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered Medina, everything therein lighted up; and when it was the day on which he died, everything therein darkened; and we had no sooner finished from (the burial ceremonies of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" than we came to reject our hearts (i.e. the state in which we came to be after his death in comparison with that in which we was during his lifetime).

1632- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: We used not to speak at ease nor (to transgress the due bounds of) pleasure with our women during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", for fear that the Divine Revelation might be sent in connection with us. But when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, we came to speak at ease (with them).

1633- It is narrated on the authority of Ubai Ibn Ka'b that he said: When we were with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (i.e. during his lifetime) we had the same face (i.e. the same objective of establishing the principles of the religion); and when he died, we came to look as such (here) and as such (there) (i.e. we dispersed and became of different aims and intentions).

1634- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah Bint Abu Umayyah, the wife of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", that she said: During the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the people were in such a state as whenever anyone of them stood to offer the prayer, his sight would not go beyond the place of his feet. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died (and Abu Bakr became the caliph), (they came to be in the state that) whenever anyone of them stood to offer the prayer, his sight would not go beyond the place of his forehead (i.e. the place of prostration). When Abu Bakr died and Umar came (to be the Commander of the Believers), (they became in the state that) whenever anyone of them stood to offer the prayer, his sight would not go beyond the direction of the Qiblah. Then, Uthman Ibn Affan came (to be the caliph), and there came the affliction, therewith the people went on turning rightward and leftward.

1635- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: After the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had died, Abu Bakr said to Umar: "Let's visit Umm Ayman as the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to visit her." When we reached her house, she went on weeping, thereupon both said to her: "What makes you weep? No doubt, what is in the Presence of Allah is much better for His Messenger." She said: "I know with certainty that what is in the Presence of Allah is much better for His Messenger. But I weep for the Divine Revelation has ceased (to be sent down as it was) from the Heaven." She prompted them to weep, and they went on weeping with her.

1636- It is narrated on the authority of Aws Ibn Aws that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The best of your days is Friday: on it Adam was created, and on it there will be the (second) sounding (of the trumpet pertaining to resurrection) and the (first sounding of the) swoon. So, invoke for (Allah's) prayer upon me so much on it, for your prayers (upon me) will be shown to me." A man asked: "O Messenger of Allah! How should our prayers be shown to you and you will have (died and become bones) decomposed?" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah has forbidden the earth to eat up the bodies of the Prophets."

1637- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ad-Darda' that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Invoke for (Allah's) Prayer upon me so much on Friday, for it is witnessed, i.e. the angels attend on it, and no one invokes for (Allah's) Prayer upon me but that his prayer will be shown to me until he finishes from it." I asked: "Will that be (also applicable) after your death?" he said: "It will be (applicable) also after my death. No doubt, Allah has forbidden earth to eat up the bodies of the Prophets' and Allah's Prophet (i.e. himself) is living, getting his sustenance (in the Presence of his Lord)."

(7) THE BOOK OF FASTING

[1] The Superiority Of Fasting

1638- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every act of the son of Adam would be multiplied, in such a way that every good deed will be recorded as ten to seven hundredfold. Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He," said: "Except fasting, which is done for My sake, for which I give rewards. He abandons his (sexual) desire and diet for My sake." No doubt, the fasting person has two pleasures: One at the time of breaking his fast, and the other at the time of meeting his Lord (on the Day of Judgement)." Verily, the unpleasant smell of his (the fasting person's) mouth is sweeter, in the sight of Allah, than the odor of musk."

1639- It is narrated on the authority of Mutarrif, from the sons of Amir Ibn Sa'sa'ah that Uthman Ibn Abu Al-As Ath-Thaqafi ordered that milk should be brought, in order to serve him with it, thereupon he said to him: "I'm fasting." Uthman said: I heard Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Fasting is a shield from the (Hell's) fire, like the shield of anyone of you from (being killed in) fighting."

1640- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "In the Garden, there is a gate called Ar-Rayyan: it will be called on the Day of Judgement, i.e. it will be said: "Where are such as used to observe fasts (in the world)?" whoever belongs to such as used to observe fasts so much will be then admitted from it; and whoever enters from it will never become thirsty."

[2] The Superiority Of The Month Of Ramadan

1641- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who observes fasts during (the month of) Ramadan, out of sincere faith, and expecting the reward (for that from Allah Almighty), will have (all of) his previous sins forgiven for him."

1642- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When it was the first night of Ramadan, Satans and the rebellious transgressors from amongst the jinns will be fastened (by chains and shackles), and the gates of the fire (of Hell) will be closed, and none of them will be opened, and the gates of the Garden will be opened, and none of them will be closed. Then, a caller will call: O one who seeks good! Come (and do good as much as you could)! O petitioner of evil! Desist (from doing evil and rather turn to doing good)! And Allah has some whom He releases from the fire (of Hell); and this happens every night."

1643- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "On (the time of) every breaking of fast, Allah has such as He releases from the fire (of Hell); and this happens every night."

1644- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: When (the month of) Ramadan came, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Verily, this month (of Ramadan) has come upon you, and in it there is a night, which is much better (in value and significance) than one thousand months: whoever is forbidden (to stand in service of Allah on) it, has indeed been forbidden the entire good; and none would be forbidden its good but one shut out (of happiness)."

[3] What About Fasting On The Day About Which There Is Suspicion

1645- It is narrated on the authority of Silah Ibn Zufar that he said: We were in the house of Ammar on the day about which there was suspicion (whether it was the first day of Ramadan or the concluding day of Sha'ban), and a goat was served, but some people moved aside (as they were fasting), thereupon Ammar said: "He, who fasts this day (about which there is suspicion) has, indeed, disobeyed Abu Al-Qasim (the Messenger of Allah) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

1646- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade to hasten to observe fast a day before seeing (the new moon of Ramadan).

1647- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'awiyah Ibn Abu Sufyan that he said from over the pulpit: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to say from over the pulpit before the coming of the month of Ramadan: "Observing fasts (of Ramadan) starts on such and such a day; and we are going to observe fasts (some days) in advance (as it was his habit to observe a lot of fasts during the month of Sha'ban): so, if anyone wants to fast in advance, let him do so, and if anyone wants to delay (until the coming of Ramadan) let him do so."

[4] Making No Break (of Fasting) Between Sha'ban And Ramadan

1648- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (so many times) made no break (of fasting) between Sha'ban and Ramadan.

1652- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that once, a desert dweller came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I've seen the new moon tonight." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you bear testimony that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah?" he answered in the affirmative, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Bilal! Stand and pronounce a call to the people to observe fast tomorrow." Abu Ali said: This is the narration of both Al-Walid Ibn Abu Thawr and Al-Hasan Ibn Ali; but the narration of Hammad Ibn Salamah has no mention of Ibn Abbas, and according to which he made a called to them to stand (for the supererogatory prayer at that night) and observe fast (on the coming day).

1653- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umair Ibn Anas Ibn Malik that he said: One of my paternal uncles from the Ansar, and he was a companion of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told me: Once, it was cloudy (and we failed to see) the new moon of (the month of) Shawwal, and thus when it was (the coming) day, we became fasting. At the last portion of the day, some riders came and bore witness in the presence of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that they had seen the new moon the previous night, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered them (his companions) to break their fast, and set out to celebrate their Id on the coming day.

[7] Observe Fast On Seeing It (The New Moon Of Ramadan) And Break Fast On Seeing It (The New Moon Of Shawwal)

1654- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Observe fast when you see the new moon (of the month of Ramadan), and break fast when you see the new moon (of the month of Shawwal); and if it (the sky) is overcast (and you fail to see the new moon) calculate it (as thirty days)." Ibn Umar used to fast a day before seeing the new moon.

1655- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Observe fast when you see the new moon (of Ramadan), and break fast when you see the new moon (of Shawwal); and if it (the sky) is overcast (and you fail to see the new moon) then observe thirty fasts."

[8] The (Lunar) Month Might Be Twenty-Nine (Days)

1656- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "How many (days) have elapsed from the month?" we said: "Twenty-two days, and eight days remain (to its conclusion)." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (lunar) month might be thus, the month might be thus, and the month might be thus" (making two tens with both his hands) and in the third time, he withdrew one (i.e. the thumb, in reference to the possibility of being twenty-nine days).

1657- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The (lunar) month might be thus, thus, and thus", and he showed in the third time that it might be twenty-nine (days, by withdrawing his thumb).

1658- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: During the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the twenty-nine-day (months of Ramadan that came upon us) which we fasted were more than the thirty-day (months) we fasted.

1662- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Hamzah Al-Aslami asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "It is my habit to observe fasts (regularly): should I observe fasts on journey?" 1663- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ad-Darda' that he said: I saw us in the company of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in one of his journeys, and it was very hot, to the extent that a man would put his hand over his head out of the scorching heat, and none observed fast (on that day) barring the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Abdullah Ibn Rawahah.

Comment: (The important point here is that one's fasting on journey gives him no superiority as he might expect.)

[12] Leaving Fast (Is Better) For The Pregnant And Suckling Woman

1667- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik, a man from sons of Abd Al-Ashhal, but Ali Ibn Muhammad says from the sons of Abdullah Ibn Ka'b, that he said: The horsemen of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raided us, and I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he was taking his lunch, thereupon he invited me to come closer (to share food with him), and I told him that I was fasting. He then said: "Sit down, so that I would tell you about fasting: Verily, Allah Almighty relieved such as on journey of half the prayer, (i.e. reduced the four-rak'ah prayer to only two), and exempted the one on journey, the pregnant and the suckling woman from fasting." By Allah! the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said either both or (at least) one of them, and how regretful I have been, since I did not get from the food of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1668- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave concession to the pregnant who fears (fasting) on herself to leave fasting, and also to the suckling woman, who fears on her babe.

[13] Observing Fasts In Lieu Of These Missing Of Ramadan

1669- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Sometimes I missed some days of Ramadan, but could not fast in lieu of them except in the month of Sha'ban.

Comment: (That's because she was in the state of being ready all the time, the same as were all of his wives, for receiving the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to take pleasure from her whenever he liked.)

1689 ـ حدّثنا عَمْرُو بْنُ رَافِعٍ. حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ، عَنِ ابْنِ أَبِي ذِئْبٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدٍ الْمَقْبُرِيِّ، عَنْ أَبِيهِ، عَنْ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ؛ قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «مَنْ لَمْ يَدَعْ قَوْلَ الزُّورِ، وَالْجَهْلَ، وَالْعَمَلَ بِهِ، فَلاَ حَاجَةَ لِلَّهِ فِي أَنْ يَدَعَ طَعَامَهُ وَشَرَابَهُ».

1690- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A fasting person might have nothing from his fasts other than hunger; and a standing (person for offering the supererogatory night prayer) might have nothing from his prayer barring insomnia."

1691- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When it is the day on which anyone of you observes fast, let him commit no obscenity, nor ignorance; and if anyone quarrels with him, let him say (in reply to his quarrel): "I'm fasting.""

[22] What About Suhur

(The night meal taken a short while before the dawn by such as intends to observe fast)

1692- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Have Suhur (if you intend to observe fast), for there is blessing in Suhur."

1693- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Seek help from the food you have a short while before the dawn for your fasting during the day; and (seek help) from siesta for standing (for supererogatory prayer) at night."

[23] Delaying The Time Of Suhur

1694- It is narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Thabit that he said: WE had our Suhur with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and then we stood for the (Fajr) prayer. I (the sub-narrator) asked him: How long was it between both? He said: as much enough to recite fifty Holy Verses (from the Qur'an).

1695- It is narrated on the authority of Hudhaifah that he said: I had Suhur (the night meal taken before fasting) with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and it was the day even though the dawn had not yet risen.

1696- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let not the Adhan pronounced by Bilal prevent anyone of you to have his Suhur: this (Adhan) is just to have the one who is asleep among you wake up, and the one who is standing (for the supererogatory night prayer) among you desist (from the prayer). Verily, the dawn (with which fasting starts) is not as such (the streaks of whose light are vertical), but it is as such (the streaks of whose light are) horizontal in the sky."

[24] Hastening To Break Fast

1697- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "People are still good as long as they hasten to (have their food at the time of sunset therewith they) break their fast."

1698- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "People are still good as long as they hasten to (have their food at the time of sunset therewith they) break their fast. So, you should hasten to break your fast (as early as it is due), for the Jews delay it."

[25] Which Food Is Desirable To Break One's Fast With

1699- It is narrated on the authority of Salman Ibn Amir that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you breaks his fast, let him break it with dates; and in case he does not find that, let him break his fast with water, for it is pure (and more fitting to be used for breaking fast)."

[26] The Intention Of Fasting Should Be Made At Night

1700- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar from Hafsah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No fasting is (valid) for such as does not intend it at night."

1701- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: (Sometimes) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into my house, and asked: "Do you have anything (to eat)?" we said: "No." thus, he would say: "Then, I'm fasting." And he would keep fasting until when something was given to us as gift, he would break his fast. She further said: Perhaps he kept fasting (for a portion of the day) and then he broke his fast. I (the sub-narrator) asked: How is that? She said: The example of that is like the example of such as comes out with charity, and gives some and withholds some of it.

Comment: (It goes without saying that this applies only to the voluntary fasts)

[27] When One Intends To Observe Fast, And Morning Comes Upon Him While He Is In The State Of Ceremonial Impurity

break his fast (if he has intended to observe fast). It was Muhammad (the Prophet) "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said that.

1703- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" spent the night in the state of ceremonial impurity because of (having sexual relation with anyone of) his wives, and Bilal came to inform him of the time of the (dawn) prayer, he would get up, take bath, and I would see water dribbling from his head. Then, he would come out, and I would hear his voice (while leading) the Fajr prayer. Mutarrif (a sub-narrator) said: I asked Amir (Ash-Sha'bi who related this narration to him): Is that (applicable) in Ramadan? He said: It is the same whether in Ramadan or at any time else.

1704- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi that he said: I asked Umm Salamah about the man who intends to observe fast and then morning comes upon him while being in the state of ceremonial impurity, thereupon she said: (Sometimes) morning came upon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while being in the state of ceremonial impurity, because of having sexual relations (with his wives) and not because of a wet-dream; and, he would take a bath and complete his fast.

[28] Observing Fasts All The Time

1705- It is narrated on the authority of Mutarrif Ibn Abdullah Ibn Ash-Shakhir from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who observes fasts all the time has, indeed, no (reward of) fasting, nor does he break his fast (because of hunger and thirst which he suffers)."

1706- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let him, who observes fasts all the time, have no (reward of) fasting."

[29] Observing Three Fasts Monthly

1707- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Al-Minhal from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" prompted (Muslims) to observe fasts on the white days of every (lunar) month: from thirteen to fifteen, and he said: "this is like fasting all the time (in reward and superiority)."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Qatadah Ibn Milhan Al-Qaisi from his father from the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" through another chain of transmitters.

Ibn Majah says: Shu'bah (who said Abd Al-Malik Ibn Al-Minhal) is mistaken, and Hammam (who said Abd Al-Malik Ibn Qatadah) is right.

1708- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who observes three fasts monthly will have (the reward of) fasting all the time." Allah Almighty revealed the confirmation of that in His Book: "He that does good shall have ten times as much to his credit." (Al-An'am 160) The day (one fasts) then is accounted as ten days (in reward).

1709- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to observe three fasts monthly. I (Mu'adhah) said to her: From which portion of it (the month did he use to fast)? She said: It was the same to him (to observe fasts) from any portion of it.

[30] The Fasting Of The Messenger Of Allah

1710- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah that he said: I asked A'ishah about the fasting of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon she said: He used to fast (so many days successively) till we said that he would never stop fasting, and he would abandon fasting (so many days successively) till we said that he would never fast. I never saw Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having fasted in any month more than he fasted in (the month of) Sha'ban: he used to fast most of (the month of) Sha'ban; i.e. he used to fast (the month of) Sha'ban barring a few (days).

1711- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (sometimes) observed successive fasts that we said: He would not leave fasting; and (sometimes) he left fasting (for many successive days) that we said: He would not fast; and he never observed fasts for a whole month since he reached Medina except (the month of) Ramadan.

[31] The Fasting Of (The Prophet) David

1712- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The dearest fasts to Allah Almighty are those of (the Prophet) David: he used to observe fasts (on alternate days, i.e. to fast) a day and leaving fasting on the next day. The dearest prayer to Allah is that of David: he used to sleep half the night, then offer prayer for its third, and sleep for the (remaining) sixth."

1774- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Whenever the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" practiced I'tikaf, his couch would be placed, or his bed would be put behind the pillar of Repentance (to which one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", i.e. Abu Lubabah, fastened himself when he did a mistake, until Allah turned to him in repentance).

[62] Practicing I'tikaf In A Tent In The Mosque

1775- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" stayed the period of I'tikaf in a Turkish tent, on the front opening of which (he placed) a piece of mat (so that none could peep into him). Then, he took hold of the mat with his hand, and moved it away to the side of the tent, and then brought out his head (from the opening of the tent) and talked to the people.

[63] The One In The State Of I'tikaf Could Visit The Patient And Attend The Funeral Procession

1776- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: (While being in the state of I'tikaf) I would enter the house in order to answer the call of nature, and even though a patient might be therein, I would not enquire about health except as coming upon him (with no particular stop for that). She further said: Whenever they were in the state of I'tikaf, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not enter the house but to answer the call of nature.

1779- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Al-Husain: Safiyyah, daughter of Huyai, , the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told him that she had gone to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to visit him in the mosque while he was in I'tikaf in the last ten days of Ramadan. She had a talk with him for a while, and then she got up in order to return home. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" accompanied her. When they reached the gate of the mosque, opposite to the door of Umm Salamah, two Ansari men were passing by and they greeted Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He told them: "Do not run away! She is (my wife) Safiyyah Bint Huyai." Both of them said: "Glory be to Allah! How dare we think of any evil O Allah's Apostle!" They felt it. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to them): "Satan reaches everywhere in the human body as blood reaches everywhere in one's body. I was afraid that Satan might put an evil thought in your minds."

[66] The Woman Suffering From Persistent Bleeding From The Uterus Practices I'tikaf

1780- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: One of the wives of the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" practiced I'tikaf with him (in the mosque), and on detecting the redness (of the blood) and yellowish discharge (so much that) she put a vessel underneath her.

[67] The Reward Of Practicing I'tikaf

1781- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said pertaining to the one in the state of I'tikaf: "He holds back sins, and receives good deeds (he would have done had he been outside I'tikaf) just like the one who really does them."

[68] When One Stands (For Supererogatory Night Prayer) On The Nights Of Both Ids

1782- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever stands (for supererogatory prayers) on the nights of both Ids, expecting the reward for that from Allah, his heart would not die when the hearts die (because of the numerous sins)."

(8) THE BOOK OF OBLIGATORY CHARITY

[1] The Enjoinment Of Obligatory Charity

1783- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Mu'adh Ibn Jabal when he sent him to Yemen: "You will go to a people of the Scripture. So, when you reach there, invite them to testify that there is no God but Allah, and that Mohammad is His Apostle. If they obey you in that, tell them that Allah has enjoined on them five prayers in each day and night. If they obey you in that, tell them that Allah has enjoined upon them to pay alms, which will be taken from the rich among them, and given to the poor among them. If they obey you in that, then avoid taking the best of their possessions, and be afraid of the curse of an oppressed person because there is no screen between his invocation and Allah."

[2] What About Withholding Obligatory Charity

1784- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no one who does not fulfill whatever obligatory charity is due upon his property but that it will appear to him on the Day of Judgement in the form of a bald-headed snake, (and he will keep fleeing from it) until it will encircle his neck (like a collar)." Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited to us the confirmation of that from Allah's Book: "And let not those who covetously withhold of the gifts which Allah has given them of His Grace, think that it is good for them: nay, it will be the worse for them; soon shall the things which they covetously withheld be tied to their necks like a twisted collar, on the Day of Judgment. To Allah belongs the heritage of the heavens and the earth; and Allah is well-acquainted with all that you do." (Al Imran 180)

1785- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Dharr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no owner of camels, sheep or cows who does not fulfill whatever obligatory charity is due upon them but that on the Day of Judgement, they will come, while being the greatest and the fattest, so that they would gore him with their horns, and trample him with their hoofs; and the more the last of them will come upon him, the more the first of them will return (to trample) him once again (and they will remain so) until all the people will be judged."

I'm your treasure!" when he will (try to) avert it with his hand, it will bite it."

[3] That Whose Obligatory Charity Is Paid Is Not Regarded As Heaped-Up Treasure

1787- It is narrated on the authority of Khalid Ibn Aslam, the freed slave of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab that he said: I came out with Abdullah Ibn Umar and a desert dweller caught up with him and said: (Tell me of the significance of) the statement of Allah Almighty: "And there are those who bury gold and silver and spend it not in the Way of Allah" (At-Tawbah 34)on that Ibn Umar said: "Woe to such as buries them, and does not fulfill whatever obligatory charity is due upon them (from the Fire of Hell)! This (commandment) was applicable before the obligatory charity was enjoined by Allah Almighty; and when it was enjoined, Allah Almighty made it a (means of) purifying property." Then, he turned to him and said: "I do not care to have as much gold as (the mountain of) Uhud, provided that I know well its estimate, pay whatever obligatory charity is due upon it, and act in it according to (the obligations of my) obedience to Allah."

1788- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you give the obligatory charity of your property, (including the charity of Al-Fitr, and the other sides of spending on your dependents), you will have fulfilled all (rights and obligations pertaining to property) due upon you."

1789- It is narrated on the authority of Fatimah Bint Qais that she heard him, i.e. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Nothing is due upon one's property other than the obligatory charity."

Comment: (One should not understand from this narration that there is no right in the property other than the obligatory charity: that's because the rights pertaining to property are more than that. But, the only one from

[11] What Should The Charity Collector Take From The Camels

1801- It is narrated on the authority of Suwaid Ibn Ghafalah that he said: The charity collector sent by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to us (to take our obligatory charity), and I took hold of his hand, and read in the covenant made to him (by the Prophet) that no separate possessions (of two persons) should be combined (to get the obligatory charity from them altogether), nor should a joint property be separated (to get the obligatory charity from each of them solely) for fear of (increasing or decreasing) the obligatory charity. Then, a man brought to him a huge fat she-camel (as the obligatory charity due upon him), but he refused to take it from him. He brought to him another (she-camel) lesser in size and he took it from him, saying: "Which (region of) land could carry me (on its surface) and which sky could shade me if I came back to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with the best camels of a Muslim person (as obligatory charity)?"

1802- It is narrated on the authority of Jarir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The charity collector should not come back (to take the obligatory charity) unless there is satisfaction (from the part of the almsgivers)."

[12] The Almsgiving Due Upon The Cows

1803- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adh Ibn Jabal that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me to Yemen, and commanded me to take whatever obligatory charity is due upon the cows: a three-year-old female cow out of every forty; and a two-year-old female or male cow out of every thirty.

1804- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Out of thirty cows, a two-year old female or male cow should be given; and out of forty cows, a three-year old female-cow should be given (as obligatory charity)."

[13] The Almsgiving Due Upon The Sheep

1805- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab from Salim from his father (Ibn Umar) from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and he (Ibn Shihab) said: Salim made me read a document pertaining to the obligatory charity, written by (the command of) the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" before he died, in which I read: Out of the (property consisting of) forty to one hundred and twenty sheep, a single female goat should be given (as obligatory charity); and if it is even one more than that up to two hundred, two female goats should be given; and if it is even one more than that up to three hundred, three female goats should be given; and if it is more than that, a female goat should be given out of one hundred." I also read in it that no separate possessions (of different persons) should be combined (to get the obligatory charity upon both altogether as if one property), nor should a joint property be separated (to get the obligatory charity upon each solely). I further read in it that no male goat, nor old aged sheep, nor defective one should be included as objects of the obligatory charity.

1806- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The obligatory charity due upon (the property of) the Muslims should be taken while being on (the places of) their water."

Comment: (The significance here is that the charity collector should not make it difficult upon the payers, by getting them come to him with their objects of charity: on the contrary, he should go to the place where they water their animals in order to make it easy for them.)

1807- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that "Out of the (property consisting of) forty to one hundred and twenty sheep, a single female goat should be given (as obligatory charity); and if it is even one more than that up to two hundred, two female goats should be given; and if it is even one more than that up to three hundred, three female goats should be given; and if it is more than that, a female goat should be given out of one hundred. No separate possessions (of different persons) should be combined (to get the obligatory charity upon both altogether as if one property), nor should a joint property be separated (to get the obligatory charity upon each solely) for fear of (increasing or decreasing the objects of) charity; and let (the surplus value of each item of) the mixture consisting of two (different kinds of objects) be brought back (to its owner) in order to deal with (the objects of both) on equitable terms. Furthermore, no male goat, nor old aged sheep, nor defective one should be included by the almsgiver, unless the charity collector accepts that."

1807 ـ حدّثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ عُثْمَانَ بْنِ حَكِيمٍ الأَوْدِيُّ. حَدَّثَنَا أَبُو نُعَيْمٍ. حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ السَّلاَمِ بْنُ حَرْبٍ، عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمٰنِ، عَنْ أَبِي هِنْدٍ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ: «فِي أَرْبَعِينَ شَاةً، شَاةٌ، إِلَى عِشْرِينَ وَمِائَةٍ. فَإِذَا زَادَتْ وَاحِدَةً، فَفِيهَا شَاتَانِ، إِلَى مِائَتَيْنِ. فَإِنْ زَادَتْ وَاحِدَةً، فَفِيهَا ثَلَاثُ شِيَاهٍ، إِلَى ثَلَاثِمِائَةٍ. فَإِنْ زَادَتْ، فَفِي كُلِّ مِائَةٍ شَاةٌ. لاَ يُفَرَّقُ بَيْنَ مُجْتَمِعٍ، وَلاَ يُجْمَعُ بَيْنَ مُتَفَرِّقٍ، خَشْيَةَ الصَّدَقَةِ. وَكُلُّ خَلِيطَيْنِ يَتَرَاجَعَانِ بِالسَّوِيَّةِ. وَلَيْسَ لِلْمُصَدِّقِ هَرِمَةٌ وَلاَ ذَاتُ عَوَارٍ وَلاَ تَيْسٌ، إِلاَّ أَنْ يَشَاءَ الْمُصَدِّقُ».

[14] What About Those Employed In The Charity Collection

1808- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The one (employed in the charity collection) who deals wrongfully (with the almsgivers) is like him, who withholds it."

Comment: (That's because by such injustice towards the almsgivers, as he permits himself to take from them more than what is due, he causes them to withhold their objects of charity in the coming year once he comes to take their alms; and in this way, he shares the sin of withholding.)

1809- It is narrated on the authority of Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "The one who deals justly (with the almsgivers) as far as the objects of charity are concerned, is like the fighter in the Cause of Allah until he returns to his house."

1810- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Unais that he and Umar discussed the matter of almsgiving, thereupon Umar said to him: "Have you not heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having told, when he made a mention of the misappropriation in almsgiving, that whoever misappropriated a camel or a goat from it, it will be brought to him to carry on the Day of Judgement?" Abdullah Ibn Unais answered in the affirmative.

1811- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Al-Husain that he was employed to collect alms and when he returned, he was asked (by the governor): "Where is the money (you have collected)?" he said: "Have you sent me to bring you money? No doubt, we've taken it from wherever we used to take it during the lifetime of Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and placed it wherever we used to place it."

[15] The Almsgiving Due Upon Both Horses And Slaves

1812- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are no alms due upon a Muslim concerning his slave and horse."

1813- It is narrated on the authority of Ali that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've relieved you of the alms concerning both horses and slaves."

[16] From Which Property Should The Obligatory Charity Be Taken

1814- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adh Ibn Jabal that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent him to Yemen, he said to him: "Take (the obligatory charity from the same kind of property upon which it is due: if it is) grains (you should take it) from grains; (if it is) sheep (you should take it) from sheep; (if it is) camels (you should take it) from camels (provided that they are more than twenty-four); and (if it is) cows (you should take it) from cows."

1815- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" laid the foundation of the obligatory charity in those five (crops which were prevalent at that time): the wheat, the parley, the dates, the raisin, and the maize.

[17] The Almsgiving Due Upon Plants And Fruits

1816- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Out of whatever (plants) are watered with the help of the sky (i.e. the precipitation) and the springs, one-tenth (should be given as obligatory charity); and out of whatever (plants) are watered with the help of irrigation, one-twentieth (should be given)."

1817- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Out of whatever (plants) are watered with the help of the sky (i.e. the rainfall), the rivers or springs, or that which fixes its roots in the ground, and gets water from under the land (such as date-palms which are cultivated near wells, springs, streams etc), one-tenth (should be given as obligatory charity); and out of whatever (plants) are watered with the help of the she-camels used for agricultural purposes, one-twentieth (should be given)."

1818- It is narrated on the authority of Mu'adh Ibn Jabal that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me to Yemen, and ordered me to take (as obligatory charity) one-tenth whatever (plants) are watered with the help of the sky, and that which fixes its roots in the ground, and gets its water from under the land (with no need of the rainfall); and one-twentieth whatever (plants) are watered with the help of buckets.

[18] Estimating Date-Palms And Vines

1819- It is narrated on the authority of Itab Ibn Asid that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to send to people those who would estimate their vines and fruits (in order to make it easy to take whatever obligatory charity is due upon them at the time of plucking).

1820- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" conquered Khaibar, he put the condition that he should have (the possession of) the land, and whatever yellow and white (metals) it contains, i.e. both gold and silver. The inhabitants of Khaibar said to him: "We are more acquainted with the land: so, give it to us, in order to cultivate it, on the condition that we would have half the yields, and you the other half." He pretended that he gave it to them on that condition. When it was (a short time before) the dates would be plucked, he sent Abdullah Ibn Rawahah, who guessed (the amount of) the date-palms, i.e. estimated them according to the dialect of the inhabitants of Medina. He said: "They are such and such (in number)." They said: "You've put (the number you guessed of) it so much more upon us O Ibn Rawahah!" he said: "I guess the (number of the) date-palms, and give you half of what I've said." On that they said: "This is then the truth, upon which both the heaven and the earth stand." They further said: "We've been satisfied to depend upon what you've said."

[19] It Is Forbidden To Give The Alms Out Of The Worst Of Property

1821- It is narrated on the authority of Awf Ibn Malik Al-Ashja'i that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" set out and a man had hung branches or a branch of dates (in the pillar of the mosque, so that the indigent among the people would eat of it); and he (the Prophet) had a stick in his hand, with which he hastened to poke the branch, while saying: "Had the giver of this (object of) charity willed, surely, he would have given in charity something better than that. No doubt, the giver of this (object of) charity will eat the (reward of such) dry rotten dates on the Day of Judgement."

1822- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Bara Ibn Azib that he said pertaining to Allah's saying: "O you who believe! Give of the good things which you have (honourably) earned, and of the fruits of the earth which We have produced for you, and do not even aim at getting anything which is bad, in order that out of it you may give away something, when you yourselves would not receive it except with closed eyes. And know that Allah is free of all wants, and worthy of all praise" (Al-Baqarah 267) It

1821 ـ حدّثنا أَبُو بِشْرٍ، بَكْرُ بْنُ خَلَفٍ. حَدَّثَنَا يَحْيَىٰ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ، عَنْ عَبْدِ الْحَمِيدِ بْنِ جَعْفَرٍ. حَدَّثَنِي صَالِحُ بْنُ أَبِي عَرِيبٍ، عَنْ كَثِيرِ بْنِ مُرَّةَ الْحَضْرَمِيِّ، عَنْ عَوْفِ بْنِ مَالِكٍ الأَشْجَعِيِّ؛ قَالَ: خَرَجَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ، وَقَدْ عَلَّقَ رَجُلٌ أَقْنَاءً أَوْ قِنْواً. وَبِيَدِهِ عَصاً. فَجَعَلَ يَطْعَنُ يُدَقْدِقُ فِي ذٰلِكَ الْقِنْوِ وَيَقُولُ: «لَوْ شَاءَ رَبُّ هٰذِهِ الصَّدَقَةِ تَصَدَّقَ بِأَطْيَبَ مِنْهَا. إِنَّ رَبَّ هٰذِهِ الصَّدَقَةِ يَأْكُلُ الْحَشَفَ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ».

1822 ـ حدّثنا أَحْمَدُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ يَحْيَىٰ بْنِ سَعِيدٍ الْقَطَّانُ. حَدَّثَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ الْعَنْقَزِيُّ. حَدَّثَنَا أَسْبَاطُ بْنُ نَصْرٍ. عَنِ السُّدِّيِّ، عَنْ عَدِيِّ بْنِ ثَابِتٍ، عَنِ الْبَرَاءِ بْنِ عَازِبٍ، فِي قَوْلِهِ سُبْحَانَهُ: ﴿وَمِمَّآ أَخْرَجْنَا لَكُم مِّنَ ٱلْأَرْضِ وَلَا تَيَمَّمُوا۟ ٱلْخَبِيثَ مِنْهُ تُنفِقُونَ﴾ [البقرة: 267] قَالَ: نَزَلَتْ فِي الأَنْصَارِ. كَانَتِ الأَنْصَارُ تُخْرِجُ،

was revealed in regard to some people from the Ansar, who used, at the time of plucking dates, to take out the unripe dates, which they would hang on a rope between two pillars of the mosque of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", from which the poor from amongst the Emigrants would eat. Some of them would aim at the bad remnants and put them with the unripe dates, thinking it was lawful to do so, (seeing they would not be evidently visible in view of their being mixed up with) the numerous branches of dates hanging (in the mosque). Thus, Allah Almighty revealed in connection with those who did so from among them: "and do not even aim at getting anything which is bad, in order to give out of it. "He means: do not aim at the dry rotten fruits from amongst the dates, in order to give it (in charity out of your property), "when you yourselves would not receive it except with closed eyes" i.e. If anyone of you is given the same he gives to others, he will not accept it, except with shyness out of rage because of the one who sends to him such as he has no need of it; and you should know that Allah is not in need of (such objects of) charity as given by you.

[20] The Obligatory Charity Due Upon Honey

1823- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sayyarah Al-Muta'i that he said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have got bees (which produce honey: what is the obligatory charity due upon that?)" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Give one-tenth (the honey produced by them)." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Make them under your protection for me (so that none would be covetouṣ of them)." He made them under his protection.

1824- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather: Abdullah Ibn Amr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took one-tenth the honey (produced by the bees of such as had bees as obligatory charity).

[21] The Almsgiving Of (Id) Al-Fitr

1825- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that the almsgiving of (Id) Al-Fitr should be a Sa' of dates or parley; but (later) the people gave two Mudds of wheat in substitution for that.

1826- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" enjoined upon everyone of Muslims, free or slave, male or female, to give a Sa' of parley or a Sa' of dates as the alms of (Id) Al-Fitr.

قَالَ عَبْدُ اللَّهِ: فَجَعَلَ النَّاسُ عِدْلَهُ مُدَّيْنِ مِنْ حِنْطَةٍ.

1826 ـ حدّثنا حَفْصُ بْنُ عُمَرَ. حَدَّثَنَا عَبْدُ الرَّحْمٰنِ بْنُ مَهْدِيٍّ. حَدَّثَنَا مَالِكُ بْنُ أَنَسٍ، عَنْ نَافِعٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عُمَرَ؛ قَالَ: فَرَضَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ صَدَقَةَ الْفِطْرِ صَاعاً مِنْ شَعِيرٍ، أَوْ صَاعاً مِنْ تَمْرٍ عَلَى كُلِّ حُرٍّ، أَوْ عَبْدٍ، ذَكَرٍ أَوْ أُنْثَىٰ، مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ.

1827- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" enjoined the alms of (Id) Al-Fitr therewith to purify the fasting person from whatever useless talks and obscenity (he might have committed), and feed the indigent (among the people): so, whoever fulfills it before the (Id) prayer, it is then an almsgiving accepted (by Allah); and whoever fulfills it after the (Id) prayer, it is no more than an object of charity.

1828- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Sa'd that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded us to give the alms of (Id) Al-Fitr before the obligatory charity was enjoined. But when the obligatory charity was enjoined, he neither commanded us (to give the alms of Id Al-Fitr), nor did he forbid us to do so; even though we practice it.

1829- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: As long as the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was living among us, we gave the alms of (Id) Al-Fitr in the form of a Sa' of food, (such as) a Sa' of dates, a Sa' of parley, a Sa' of yogurt, or a Sa' of raisin; and we remained as such until Mu'awiyah came to Medina, and spoke to the people, and said to them, from among the things that he told them: "I do not think but that two Mudds of wheat (cultivated in) Sham are equal to a Sa' of (anyone of those four)." The people then adopted this opinion. Abu Sa'id commented: As for me, I still give it out in the same way as I used to do during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; (and I will keep as such) as long as I live.

1830- It is narrated on the authority of Ammar Ibn Sa'd, the Mu'adhdhin of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered to give out the alms of (Id) Al-Fitr in the form of a Sa' of dates, a Sa' of parley, or a Sa' of Sult (a kind of parley similar to wheat in shape).

[22] What About The One-Tenth And The Income Tax

1831- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Ala' Ibn Al-Hadrami that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent me to Bahrain or to Hajar, and whenever I came upon the garden that was jointly owned by two brothers, one of whom embraced Islam, I would take only one-tenth (the yields) from him, and take the income tax from the infidel.

[23] The Wasaq Consists Of Sixty Sa's

1832- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri, tracing it up to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "The Wasaq consists of sixty Sa's."

1833- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Wasaq consists of sixty Sa's."

[24] Giving The Alms To One's Kith And Kin

1834- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab, the wife of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) that she said: I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "Is it sufficient for me (as far as almsgiving is concerned) to spend on my husband and some orphans under my guardianship?" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You will receive a double reward for that: that of almsgiving, and that of (keeping good relation with your) kith and kin."

(...) The same is narrated on the authority of Zainab, the wife of Abdullah from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

1835- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab Bint Umm Salamah from Umm Salamah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded us to give in charity, thereupon Zainab, the wife of Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) said: "Is it out of my almsgiving to give in charity to my husband, and he is poor, and my nephews, and they are orphans, upon whom I spend as such and as such, and in whichever state (I spend)?" he answered in the affirmative. She was a woman of a handy craft (from which she had a good income).

[25] It Is Undesirable To Beg Others

1836- It is narrated on the authority of Hisham Ibn Urwah from his father from his grandfather that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It would be better for anyone of you to take his rope, go to the mountain, bring (and then tie) a bundle of fire wood on his back, in order to sell it, and become, with the help of its price, independent (from begging others) than to ask the people who might give him or might withhold (their money) from him."

1837- It is narrated on the authority of Thawban that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who does guarantee to do only one thing, therewith I would guarantee the Garden to him?" I said: "I do." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's

However, Thawban (kept on practicing this habit to the extent that whenever) his whip fell down to the ground, while he was riding, he would not ask anyone to bring it back to him, and rather he would dismount and bring it (by himself).

[26] When One Begs Others While He Is Not In Want

1838- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever begs others so much pressingly (to give him) from their property in order to increase his wealth, has, indeed, asked for pieces of the fire of Hell: let him then ask for less (if he so likes) or more of it (if he so likes)!"

1839- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Taking) charity is unlawful for him who is rich, nor is it for a person of power and good health."

1840- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who begs others (to give him) and he has what makes him independent, his begging would come on the Day of Judgement in the form of slashes, scores , or wounds in his face." It was said: "O Messenger of Allah! How much (money) could make one independent?" he said: "Fifty Dirhams, or gold of equal value." A man said to Sufyan: Shu'bah does not relate that from Hakim Ibn Jubair. Sufyan replied: Zubaid related it to us from Muhammad Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Yazid.

[27] For Whom Could The Alms Be Lawful

1841- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The almsgiving is unlawful for an independent person (to take it) except in five cases: for him who works to administer it, for him who fights in the Cause of Allah, for a rich one who buys it with his own property, for a (companion of a) poor one, who is given it as charity, and he, in turn, gives it to (his companion who is) independent, and for him who is in debt."

[28] The Excellence Of Almsgiving

1842- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No person gives anything in charity from what is good and lawful, and Allah never accepts but what is good and lawful, except that (Allah) Most

1843- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no one of you but that his Lord will speak to him (on the Day of Judgement), with no interpreter between them: he will look in front of him where the fire will face him; and he will look to his right, and find but a thing he has sent forward before him; and he will look to his left and find but a thing he has sent forward before him: so, if anyone of you could safeguard himself (from the fire of Hell) with (giving in charity even as little as) half a date, let him do!"

(9) THE BOOK OF MARRIAGE

[1] The Excellence Of Marriage

1845- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Qais that he said: I was in the company of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud at Mina when Uthman sat alone with him, and I sat close to him. Uthman said to him: "Do you like that I would make you marry a virgin so that she would remind you of some of your (youth and power that) have elapsed?" When Abdullah saw that he (Uthman) had no need (from sitting with him alone) other than that (which he offered to him), he beckoned to me with his hand; and I came while he was saying (to Uthman): "No doubt, you've said what the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had said: "O community of young men! Whoever of you could have the therewithal, let him get married: verily, it is much more ready to make one lower his sight (from looking at women), and safeguard his private parts (from committing fornication); and whoever could not, let him observe fasts, for it (fasting) diminishes his sexual power.""

1846- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Marriage is out of my sunnah: so, whoever does not act upon my sunnah does not belong to me. You should get yourselves married, for I'm going to vie in glory of your great number with the other nations (on the Day of Judgement); and whoever has the therewithal, let him marry; and whoever has not, let him observe fasts, for fasting diminishes his sexual power."

1847- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "We do not think there is anything but marriage (to make lawful and permanent the love) for such (male and female) as love one another."

[2] It Is Forbidden To Live In Celibacy

1848- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'd that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade Uthman Ibn Maz'un to live in celibacy, and had he given him permission (to do so), surely, we would have got ourselves castrated.

1849- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade to live in celibacy. Zaid Ibn Akhzam added in his narration: Qatadah recited (in confirmation to that): "We did send Messengers before you, and appointed for them wives and children." (Ar-Ra'd 38)

[3] The Woman's Right Upon Her Husband

1850- It is narrated on the authority of Hakim Ibn Mu'awiyah from his father that a man asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "What is the right of a woman upon her husband?" he said: "It is that he should feed her once he eats, bring her clothes once he gets clothes, and he should not slap her face, nor should he attribute to ugliness her words and deeds, nor should he abandon her except inside the house."

1851- It is narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Amr Ibn Al-Ahwas from his father that he attended the Farewell Hajj with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", (in whose sermon) he praised and lauded Allah Almighty, reminded (the people of their duties towards Allah) and admonished (them), and then he said: "You should accept my advice to deal kindly with women: they are as captives in your houses; and you have nothing to do with them other than that (marriage therewith they become lawful for you to have sexual intercourse with them) except in case they commit an evident shameful deed: if they do that, abandon them in the bed, and strike them but not severely; and if they obey you, you should not transgress the due bounds in harming them. You have a right upon your women, as well as your women have a right upon you: as for your right upon your women, it is that they should not make such as you dislike sleep in your beds (i.e. they should not commit fornication), nor should they admit in your houses such as you dislike; and as for their right upon you, it is that you should be kind to them as far as providing them with clothes and food is concerned."

[4] The Husband's Right Upon His Wife

1852- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had I to order a person to fall in prostration to anyone else (other than Allah), surely, I would have ordered the woman to fall in prostration to her husband; and if a man orders his wife to move (stones and sand) from a red mountain (or sandhill) to a black mountain (or sandhill), or from a black mountain (or sandhill) to a red mountain (or sandhill), she should be completely sure to do so."

1853- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Abu Awfa that he said: When Mu'adh Ibn Jabal came from Sham, he fell in prostration to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "What is that O Mu'adh?" he said: "I went to Sham, and found them (on the habit of) falling in prostration to their bishops and rulers. So, I hoped in myself that we should do the same with you." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do so: indeed, were I to order a person to fall in prostration to anyone other than Allah, I would have ordered the woman to fall in prostration to her husband. By Him, in Whose Hand is the soul of Muhammad! The woman will not fulfill the right of her Lord (perfectly) unless she fulfills the right of her husband (upon her); and if her husband asks her for herself (i.e. to have sexual relation with her in whichever state she is, even though) while sitting on a saddle (of a mount), she should not prevent him (to do so, no matter troublesome for her it might be)."

1854- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "If a woman died, while her husband is well-pleased with her, she would be admitted to the Garden."

[5] The Most Excellent Women

1855- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the (life of this) world is (not) but goods and chattels; and there is nothing from amongst the goods and chattels of this world more excellent than the good pious woman (wife)."

1856- It is narrated on the authority of Thawban that he said: When it was revealed in connection with silver and gold that which was revealed (i.e. Allah's saying: "And there are those who bury gold and silver and spend it not in the Way of Allah: announce unto them a most grievous penalty" (At-Tawbah 34)) the people wondered: "Then, which property should we take?" Umar said: "Let me investigate the matter for you." He made quick (the pace of) his camel until he joined the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while I was following him, and said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Which property should we take?" He said: "Let anyone of you take a heart therewith to give thanks (to Allah), a tongue that is (running with the) celebration (of Allah), and a believing wife that helps anyone of you carry on the affairs of the hereafter!"

1857- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The faithful believer never benefits from anything after god-fearingness much more

1857 ـ حدّثنا هِشَامُ بْنُ عَمَّارٍ. حَدَّثَنَا صَدَقَةُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ. حَدَّثَنَا عُثْمَانُ بْنُ أَبِي الْعَاتِكَةِ، عَنْ عَلِيِّ بْنِ يَزِيدَ، عَنِ الْقَاسِمِ، عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ، عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ أَنَّهُ كَانَ يَقُولُ: «مَا اسْتَفَادَ الْمُؤْمِنُ، بَعْدَ تَقْوَى اللَّهِ، خَيْراً لَهُ مِنْ زَوْجَةٍ صَالِحَةٍ. إِنْ أَمَرَهَا أَطَاعَتْهُ. وَإِنْ نَظَرَ إِلَيْهَا سَرَّتْهُ. وَإِنْ أَقْسَمَ عَلَيْهَا أَبَرَّتْهُ. وَإِنْ غَابَ عَنْهَا نَصَحَتْهُ فِي نَفْسِهَا وَمَالِهِ».

[6] Marrying The Women Of Religion

1858- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A woman is married for four things: her wealth, her family status, her beauty and her religion. You should marry the religious woman (lest) your hand be covered with dust (i.e. you will be a loser)."

1859- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: "Do not marry women only for their beauty: it may be that their beauty would lead to their perdition, nor should you marry them only for their property: perchance their property would cause them to be arrogant: but you should marry women only for their religion; and indeed, perhaps a slave-girl, with her nose cut off partially, and ears matched is better (for you than a girl whose prettiness or richness might appeal you)."

Comment: (This is the interpretation of Allah's saying: "Do not marry unbelieving women until they believe: a slave woman who believes is better than an unbelieving woman. Even though she allure you. Nor marry (your girls) to Unbelievers until they believe: a slave man who believes is better than an Unbeliever even though he allure you." (Al-Baqarah 221))

[7] Marrying The Virgins

1860- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I got married to a (previously married) woman, and when I met the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he asked: "Have you got married O Jabir?" I answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said: "A virgin or a matron?" I said: "A matron." He said: "Have you not got married to a virgin so that she would play with you (and you with her)?" I said: "I have many sisters, and I feared she would (sow hatred and resentment) between me and them." On that he said: "It is for that purpose then (that you've married a matron)!"

1861- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Salim Ibn Utbah Ibn Uwain Ibn Sa'idah Al-Ansari from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I advise you to marry the virgins, for they are sweeter in speech (and saliva), more fertile (and fitting for giving birth), and more ready to be satisfied with the least (requirements of living)."

[9] Catching A Glimpse Of The Woman Whom One Likes To Marry

1864- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Salamah that he said: I engaged a woman, and I tried to hide myself for (being able to see) her, until I could have managed to catch a glimpse of her in a (garden of) date-palms belonging to her. It was said to him: Do you do so, even though you are one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? He said: No doubt, I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "If Allah places in the heart of a man (the desire for) engaging a woman, there is no harm on him to catch a glimpse of her."

1865- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah wanted to get engaged to a woman, and he made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to him: "Go and have a glimpse of her, for this is more fitting to place affection between you." He did accordingly, and he got married to her, and mentioned her agreement (in appearance and character with him).

1866- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Mughirah Ibn Shu'bah that he said: I went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and made a mention to him of a woman whom I liked to betroth, thereupon he said to me: "Go and have a glimpse of her, for this is more (fitting) to place affection between you." I went to the house of a woman from amongst the Ansar, and demanded her hand from her parents, and told them of the statement of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", but they seemed as if they disliked that. The woman heard that while being in her screen, and she said: "If the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" has ordered you to do so, then, you could have a glimpse (of me) otherwise, I beseech you (by Allah

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for Mu'awiyah, he is a poor man, who has no property(therewith to comfort you). As for Abu Jahm, he has the habit of striking women. But (I commend for you) Usamah." On that she said (pointing) with her hand as such: "Let it be Usamah! Let it be Usamah!" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "No doubt, the obedience of Allah and His Messenger is much better for you." She further said: I got married to him, and became well-pleased with him.

It was said: "O Messenger of Allah! The virgin feels shy of speaking (to announce her agreement)." On that he said: "Her silence refers to her consent."

So, she went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and made a mention of that to him, thereupon he cancelled that marriage made by her father, and she rather got married to Abu Lubabah Ibn Abd Al-Mundhir. Yahya (a sub-narrator) mentioned that she was previously married woman.

1874- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: A girl came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My father gave me in marriage to a son of his brother, perchance, with the help of (his marriage from) me, he would get rid of his low status." He (the Prophet) made the matter (of agreement or rejection) up to her, thereupon she said: "I have accepted what my brother did. But I just want that women should know that it is not up to the fathers (to give their daughters in marriage without seeking their consent)."

1875- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that a young virgin came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned to him that her father gave her in marriage against her will. So, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the freedom to choose (whether to carry on or cancel the marriage).

She caught me by the hand and made me stand at the door of the house. I was breathless then, and when my breathing became all right, she took some water with which she rubbed my face and head. Then she took me into the house, wherein I saw some Ansari women who said: "Best wishes and Allah's Blessing and a good luck." Then she entrusted me to them and they prepared me (for the marriage). Unexpectedly, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to me in the forenoon to whom my mother handed me over. At that time I was a girl of nine years of age.

1880- It is narrated on the authority of both A'ishah and Ibn Abbas that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no marriage (to be regarded as valid) without the (permission of the) guardian." In the narration of A'ishah, there is the following addition: "And the ruler is the guardian of such as has no guardian."

1887- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Ajfa' As-Sulami that he said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: "Do not exceed the due limit of the dower given to women: if it is a good deed in the world, and a (cause of) piety in the Sight of Allah, then, Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would have been the most fitting and right from amongst you all to do so: he never gave a dower to anyone of his wives (more than twelve ounces), nor was anyone of his daughters given a dower more than twelve ounces. A man might make heavy the dower he gives to his wife so much that it leads to an enmity he has towards her, saying: "I've been put to 1888- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amir Ibn Rabie'ah from his father that a man from Banu Fazarah married (a woman with a dower) of a pair of sandals, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" approved of his marriage.

1889- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd that he said: A woman came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and offered herself to him in marriage), thereupon he asked: "Who of you (likes to) marry her?" a man said: "I (like to marry her)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Give her (a dower) even though (as little as) a ring of iron." The man said: "I do not have." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, I've given her to you in marriage for whatever (portion of the) Qur'an you have (and keep by heart)."

[18] When A Man Marries Without Fixing A Dower And Then Dies

1891- It is narrated on the authority of Masruq from Abdullah (Ibn Mas'ud) that he was asked about a man who married a woman, without fixing a dower for her, and then he died before he consummated marriage with her, thereupon Abdullah said: "She should have the dower and the heritage (in case he has left property to be inherited), and the term of Iddat is binding upon her." On that Ma'qil Ibn Sinan Al-Ashja'i said: I witnessed the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having passed a similar judgement in favour of Biru' Bint Washiq."

(...) The like of that is narrated on the authority of Alqamah from Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud, through a different chain of transmitters.

As to the sermon of need, it goes as follows: "Praise be to Allah: we praise Him, seek His Aid, and ask for His Forgiveness. We seek refuge with Allah from the evil of our souls, and from the bad deeds of ours: whomever Allah guides aright, none could lead him astray, and whomever Allah leaves to go astray, none could guide him aright. said: "The distinction between what is lawful and what is unlawful pertaining to marriage is (to make it public with the help of beating) the tambourine and chanting."

[21] What About Singing And Beating The Tambourine

1897- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Husain: Khalid Al-Madani that he said: We were in Medina on the day of Ashura, and the girls were beating the tambourine and singing. We visited Ar-Rubai Bint Mu'awwidh, and made a mention of that to her, thereupon she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" visited me in the morning of consummating my marriage, and there were two girls in my house, singing and lamenting my fathers who were killed on the day of (the holy battle of) Badr, and they were saying from amongst what they said: "And among us is a Prophet, who knows what is to come in the morrow." On that he said: "As for that, do not say it, for none but Allah knows what is to come in the morrow."

1898- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Abu Bakr came to my home while two small Ansari girls were singing beside me the stories of the Ansar concerning the Day of Bu'ath. They were not (professional) singers. Abu Bakr said protestingly: "Musical instruments of Satan are in the home of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"!" It happened on the day of (Id) Al-Fitr and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Abu Bakr! Every nation has their festival; and this is our festival."

1899- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came upon some place in Medina and behold! There were some girls beating the tambourine and singing: "We are girls belonging to the sons of An-Najjar: it'd better for us to have Muhammad as our neighbour!" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Allah knows that I like you (as well as you like me)."

1900- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: A'ishah supervised the (affairs of the) marriage of a girl from her kinship belonging to the Ansar. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came and asked: "Have you sent the girl (to the house of her husband)?" She answered in the affirmative. He asked: "Have you sent with her some (girls) to sing for her?" she answered in the negative, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Ansar are a people who have (a tendency towards) words of love:

Which of our private parts would we screen, and which of them would we leave (uncovered)?" he said: "Screen your privates from all the people barring your wife and that which your right (hand) possesses (i.e. your slave-girl that is lawful for you)." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Tell me: when the people are mixed (and gathered in one place where nothing could be hidden: what should I do?)" he said: "If you could let none see your (privates), you should let none see that." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! When anyone of us is in privacy (should he also screen his privates?)" he said: "No doubt, Allah has more right to feel shy of Him (by screening your privates)than the people."

1921- It is narrated on the authority of Utbah Ibn Abd As-Sulami that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When anyone of you has sexual relation with his wife, let him screen himself, and let not him become as naked as both asses."

[32] When One Divorces His Wife Thrice And She Marries Another, Who Divorces Her Before Consummating Marriage With Her: Is It Lawful For Her To Return To The Former In Marriage?

1932- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The (previously) wife of Rifa'ah Al-Qarzi came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I was the wife of Rifa'ah and he divorced me irrevocably, thereupon I got married to Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Az-Zabir, and he is (so much sexually impotent that his penis is as weak as) the edge of the garment." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "Perhaps you like to return to Rifa'ah (in marriage)! No (you could not do so) unless you and he (your husband have and) get pleasure from sexual relation between you."

Comment: (It is not necessary that her husband should be Abd Ar-Rahman, because Abd Ar-Rahman was sexually impotent, and thus she would not be able to have full sexual relation with him. But the significance here is that in order to return to Rifa'ah in marriage, she might be divorced from Abd Ar-Rahman and get married to another one, with whom she should have sexual relation; and if he divorced her, in this case she would return to Rifa'ah in marriage.)

1933- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", concerning a man who divorces his wife (irrevocably) and she gets married to another one, who divorces her before consummating marriage with her: is it lawful for her to return to the former (in marriage)? That he said: "No (she could not return) unless he (the latter) gets pleasure from the sexual relation with her."

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "But that is not lawful for me." I said: "We are discussing that you want to marry Durrah, daughter of Abu Salamah." He said: "(You mean) the daughter of Umm Salamah?" I said: "Yes." He said: "Even if she were not my step-daughter, she would be unlawful for me to marry since she is my foster niece. Suckling once or twice, nor a suck or two forbids (anything forbidden by blood relation)."

1941- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "A suck or even two never forbids (anything forbidden by blood relation)."

1942- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: From amongst what Allah revealed in the Qur'an, which was abrogated later: "Only ten sucklings or certain five (sucklings) could forbid (what is forbidden by the blood relation)."

[36] Giving Suck To The Young Man

1943- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Sahlah, daughter of Suhail came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I observe on the face of Abu Hudhaifah (my husband) some (traces of) disgust because of Salim's entering upon me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Give suck to him (so that he would be unlawful for you to marry)." She said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should I give suck to him, and he is a young man?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" smiled and said: "No doubt, I know that he is a young man." Then, she gave suck to him, and came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I've no longer seen on the face of Abu Hudhaifah (any traces of) disgust." He (Salim was of those who) attended (the holy battle of) Badr.

Comment: (The public of religious scholars and learnt men, their former and latter, in the earlier and the later times, unanimously agree on the fact that this is a uniquely special commandment, particular only to this case in issue, for the suckling which forbids what is forbidden by the blood relation should be given to a babe of no more than two years; and if the child became over two years, suckling becomes of no effect in that respect. It is well-known that adoption was practiced by the Arabs, as well as by others; and it remained as such among the Arabs for a long time until it was abrogated by Allah in the Qur'an. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself adopted Zaid Ibn Harithah before his Prophetic Mission, and called him Zaid Ibn Muhammad. Salim also was adopted by Abu Hudhaifah. But when it was revealed: "nor has He made your adopted sons your sons. Such is (only) your (manner of) speech by your mouths. But Allah tells (you) the Truth, and He shows the (right) Way: Call them by (the names of) their fathers: that is juster in the sight of Allah. But if you know not their father's (names, call them) your Brothers in Faith, or your Mawlas. But there is no blame on you if you make a mistake therein: (what counts is) the intention of your hearts: and Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful" (Al-Ahzab 4:5) this habit was abrogated. Before abrogating the adoption, Salim lived in the same residence of Abu Hudhaifah, and thus he used to come in and out of the house whenever he liked. According to adoption, it was lawful for him to enter upon Sahlah, as a son enters upon his mother. But when this was abrogated, it became unlawful for him to see her except in the way a strange one would see her. Abu Hudhaifah was disturbed by that, and he was not to accept that a strange one should see his wife; and this was why the traces of disgust were visible on his face. And, since it was much more difficult for Salim to get an independent residence, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commanded her to give suck to him in order to become unlawful for him to marry, even though lawful for him to see, as it is lawful for a foster-son to see his mother. But, how could she give suck to him and he is a young man? How could she show her breast to him, and he became strange to her, and it was unlawful for him to see anything from her? The solution is very simple: let her get milk from her breast into a cup, and give it to him. But, as well as the adoption has been abrogated, this commandment should, by no means, be put to practice under any circumstances.)

1944- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Holy Verse pertaining to stoning (the adulterers to death), and suckling the young man ten times (in order to make him a foster-son) was revealed (and then it was abrogated), even though it remained written in a document underneath my bed. But, when the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died, and we were busy by (the affairs of) his death (and burial ceremonies), a domestic goat entered and ate it.

[37] There Is No Suckling (Effective) After Weaning

1945- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" entered into her, and found a man sitting with her. He asked: "Who is that?" she said: "He is my foster-brother." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Consider such as you admit to your houses! No doubt, the suckling (which forbids what is forbidden by the blood relation) is that, which satisfies hunger" (and this is not so unless it is given to a babe of no more than two years).

1946- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no suckling (that is effective in forbidding what is forbidden by blood relations) but that which opens the intestines (of a babe and satisfies his hunger)."

1947- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab, daughter of Abu Salamah, that she told that all the wives of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (barring A'ishah) differed from A'ishah, and rejected to admit anyone who received suckling similar to that given to Salim, the freed slave of Abu Hudhaifah (i.e. to be suckled during his youth), and said in this respect: "What does make us know (that this commandment is effective)? Perhaps, this was a concession given only to Salim (in particular)."

[38] The Foster-Father

1948- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: My foster-uncle Aflah Ibn Abu Qu'ais came to me, and asked my permission to be admitted after veiling had been practiced, and I did not give him permission until the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to visit me, (and I told him of that), thereupon he said: "He is your foster-uncle: so, admit him!" I said: "But it is the woman (i.e. the wife of his brother) and not the man that gave suck to me." He said: "(He is your foster-uncle) let your hands (or your right hand) be covered with dust!"

1949- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: My foster-uncle came and asked permission to be admitted to me, and I did not admit him. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let your foster-uncle visit you!" I said: "But it is the woman (his brother's wife) and not the man that gave suck to me." He said: "He is your foster-uncle: let him visit you!"

[39] When One Embraces Islam And He Has Two Sisters In Wedlock

1950- It is narrated on the authority of Ad-Dailami that he said: I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and I combined two sisters in wedlock during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance. On that he said: "When you return, you should divorce one (of them, since it is unlawful to combine two sisters in wedlock)."

1951- It is narrated on the authority of Ad-Dahhak Ibn Fairuz Ad-Dailami from his father that he said: I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of

1953- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Ghailan Ibn Salamah embraced Islam, and he has ten wives, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Take only four of them (as your wives, and leave the others)."

Salih (a sub-narrator) said: Ash-Sha'bi said: I've given you this (narration) with no trouble even though one might ride (his mount on journey) to Medina to get what is less than it.

Celibacy has become hard upon us." On that he said: "(There is no harm on you if) you enjoy of those women (through contracting temporary marriage with them)." We went to them, but they refused to get married to us unless we should fix a deadline between us (at which the marriage would come to an end). They made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "Fix a term between you and them." I set out in the company of a cousin of mine, and both of us had a cloak, and his was better than mine, but I was younger (and healthier) than him. We came upon a woman who (considered our cloaks and then) said: "Both are cloaks." I got married to her, and spent the night with her. When it was the

I had (earlier) given you permission to benefit from (the privilege of contracting temporary marriage with) women. But, indeed, Allah has forbidden that to the Day of Judgement. So, whoever has anyone of them should let her off, and do not take anything from what you had given to them (as dower)."

1963- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: When Umar Ibn Al-Khattab became the caliph, he addressed the people saying: "No doubt, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had given us permission to enjoy (of women through temporary marriage) thrice (or for three days) after which he forbade it. By Allah! I do not know that anyone practices such enjoyment (of women through temporary marriage) while he is married but that I will stone him to death, unless he brings four (witnesses) to bear testimony that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" made it lawful after he had forbidden it."

(On that night) many from amongst the women visited the wives of Muhammad (the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"); and when it was morning, he said: "Seventy women visited tonight the wives of Muhammad, each of whom complained of her husband. [55] What About Good And Evil Omen

1993- It is narrated on the authority of Mikhmar Ibn Mu'awiyah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There is no evil omen (at all), and the good omen might be in three things: the woman (one's wife), the horse, and the house."

1993 ـ حدّثنا هِشَامُ بْنُ عَمَّارٍ. حَدَّثَنَا إِسْمَاعِيلُ بْنُ عَيَّاشٍ. حَدَّثَنِي سُلَيْمَانُ بْنُ سُلَيْمٍ الْكَلْبِيُّ، عَنْ يَحْيَىٰ بْنِ جَابِرٍ، عَنْ حَكِيمِ بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ، عَنْ عَمِّهِ مِخْمَرِ بْنِ مُعَاوِيَةَ؛ قَالَ: سَمِعْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَقُولُ: «لاَ شُؤْمَ. وَقَدْ يَكُونُ الْيُمْنُ فِي ثَلاَثَةٍ: فِي الْمَرْأَةِ وَالْفَرَسِ وَالدَّارِ».

1994- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had such a thing been, i.e. the evil omen, it would have been in the horse, the woman, and the residence."

1995- It is narrated on the authority of Salim from his father that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The evil omen might be in three (things): the horse, the woman and the house." Umm Salamah used to add the sword to those three.

[56] What About Jealousy

1996- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Out of (the kinds of) jealousy there is such as Allah likes, and such as Allah dislikes: as to that which He likes, it is the jealousy caused by (portents of) suspicion; and as to that which He dislikes, it is the jealousy caused by no suspicion."

1997- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I've never felt jealous of any woman (from the wives of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him") as I've felt of Khadijah (even though she died), because the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" so often made a mention of her (good characteristics and manners), and his Lord commanded him to give her (when she was alive) the glad news of having a house of pipes of precious stones and pearls in the Garden. (Ibn Majah says of gold.)

1998- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Miswar Ibn Makhramah that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said while being on the pulpit: "The sons of Hisham Ibn Al-Mughirah asked for my permission to give their daughter to Ali (Ibn Abu Talib) in marriage; and I'm not to give them permission! I'm not to give them permission! I'm not to give them permission, unless Ali Ibn Abu Talib likes to divorce my daughter (Fatimah first) and then marry their daughter: she (Fatimah) is a part of me: that which troubles her troubles me, and that which harms her also harms me."

1999- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Miswar Ibn Makhramah: Ali demanded the hand of the daughter of Abu Jahl, and he had Fatimah (the daughter of the Prophet) with him (as his wife). Fatimah heard of this and went to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying: "Your people think that you do not become angry for the sake of your daughters; and this is Ali: he is now going to marry the daughter of Abu

Jahl. "On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" got up and after reciting: "There is no God but Allah, and that Mohammad is his messenger", I heard him saying: "To go further! I married one of my daughters to Abu Al-As Ibn Ar-Rabie (the husband of Zainab, the daughter of The Prophet before Islam) and he proved truthful in whatever he said to me. No doubt, Fatimah is a part of me; I hate to see her being put to trial. By Allah, the daughter of Allah's Apostle and the daughter of Allah's Enemy cannot be wives of one man." So Ali gave up that engagement.

[57] What About Such As Granted Herself To The Messenger Of Allah

2000- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she used to say: "Should a woman not feel shy of giving herself to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" But when Allah revealed: "You may defer (the turn of) any of them that you pleasest, and you may receive any you please" (Al-Ahzab 51) I said (to The Prophet): "Your lord seems to hasten to fulfill your desires."

2001- It is narrated on the authority of Thabit that he said: We were sitting in the house of Anas and he had a daughter of him (near the gathering). Anas said: "A lady came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and presented herself to him (to take her in marriage) saying: "O Messenger of Allah! Do you have a desire for me?"" his (Anas's) daughter said: "How far she is from shyness!" on that Anas said: "No doubt, she is much better than you: she had a desire for (the nearness of) the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and thus presented herself to him."

[58] When A Man Has Doubt About His Son

2002- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: Once, a man from (the tribe of) Banu Fazarah came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My wife has delivered a black child." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have (a herd of) camels?" he said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) asked: "What is their colour?" he said: "They are red." He said: "Is there any dusky one among them?" He said: "Yes, there are many dusky ones among them." He said: "How has that come?" He said: "Perhaps, it is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which it was attracted." He (The Prophet) said: "Perhaps, this (black complexion of your child) is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which he was attracted."

2003- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Once, a desert dweller came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace

57 ـ بابُ الَّتي وَهَبَتْ نَفْسَهَا للنبيِّ ﷺ

be upon him" and said: "My wife has delivered a black child on my bed, and we belong to a house, that never has a black one." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have (a herd of) camels?" he said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) asked: "What is their colour?" he said: "They are red." He asked: "Is there any black one among them?" he answered in the negative. He said: "Is there any dusky one among them?" He said: "Yes." He said: "How has that come?" He said: "Perhaps, it is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which it was attracted." He (The Prophet) said: "Perhaps, (the black complexion of) your child is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which he was attracted."

[59] The Child Goes To The (Owner Of The) Bed (On Which He Is Born), And The Stones (Depravation And Disappointment) Are The Portion Of The Adulteress (Who Gives Birth To Him From Adultery)

2004- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that Abd Ibn Zam'ah and Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas carried before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the case of their claim for the (ownership of) the son of a slave-girl of Zam'ah. Sa'd said: "O Allah's Apostle! My brother (before his death) told me that on my return to Mecca, I should search for the son of the slave-girl of Zam'ah and take him into my custody as he was his son." Abd Ibn Zam'ah said: "He is my brother and the son of the slave-girl of my father, and was born or my father's bed." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" noticed a resemblance between Utbah and the boy. But he said: "O Abd Ibn Zam'ah! Take this boy, as the son goes to the (owner of the) bed (on which he is born). O Sawdah! Screen yourself from the boy."

2005- It is narrated on the authority of Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed his judgement that the boy (born from adultery) should go to the (owner of the) bed (on which he is born).

2006- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The child goes to the (owner of the) bed (on which he is born), and the stones (depravation and disappointment) are the portion of the adulteress (who gives birth to him from adultery)."

2007- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah Al-Bahili that he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "The child goes to the (owner of the) bed (on which he is born), and the stones (depravation and disappointment) are the portion of the adulteress (who gives birth to him from adultery)."

[7] When A Pregnant Whose Husband Died Delivers Her Child, She Becomes Lawful For Men To Marry

2027- It is narrated on the authority of Abu As-Sanabil that he said: Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah Bint Al-Harith delivered her burden over twenty nights after the death of her husband. When she finished from her postpartum period of confinement, she (made up herself and) looked forward (to men to demand her hand). She was blamed for that, and when a mention of her matter was made to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he said: "If she does so (it is permissible) since she finished her term (of Iddat)."

2028- It is narrated on the authority of both Masruq and Amir Ibn Utbah that they wrote a letter to Subai'ah asking her about her story, and she wrote to them that she delivered her burden twenty-five nights after the death of her husband, and (when the period of postpartum passed) she got ready, looking forward to good (i.e. to be married). Abu As-Sanabil Ibn Ba'kak came upon her and said: "You were hasty (when you got ready for men to demand your hand): make your Iddat (at the conclusion of) the longer of both terms, i.e. four months and ten days." I went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Ask for (Allah's) Forgiveness for me!" he asked: "What is the matter?" I told him, thereupon he said: "If you find a good man (fitting for you), you might marry him (if you so like)."

2029- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Miswar Ibn Makhramah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told Subai'ah to get married (if she so liked) once she finished from the postpartum period of her confinement.

If anyone likes, let him come to take part in the operation of sending (Allah's) Curses (upon such as gives lie to the fact that the) smaller (Surah pertaining to) Women (in which Allah says: "for those who carry (life within their wombs), their period is until they deliver their burdens" (At-Talaq 4)) was revealed after (Allah's saying): "If any of you die and leave widows behind, they shall wait concerning themselves four months and ten days" (Al-Baqarah 234)

[8] Where Could A Woman, Whose Husband Died, Spend The Period Of Her Iddat

2031- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab Bint Ka'b Ibn Ujrah, the wife of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that his sister Al-Furai'ah Bint Malik Ibn Sinan said: My husband had gone out in search of some of his slaves who had fled away, and when he caught up with them near Al-Qudum they killed him; and the news of his death came while I was in one of the houses of the Ansar, far from the dwelling places of my family. I went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The news of the death of my husband came while I was in a house vary far from the dwelling places of my family and brothers; and he (my husband) has left no maintenance to spend on myself, nor has I inherited property, nor has he left an independent house owned by him. So, if you see it better to give me permission to join the house of my family and my brothers, it would be more fitting for me." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You could do if you so like." I came out, so much pleased with Allah's Judgement in my favour on the tongue of Allah's Messenger "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and when I was in the courtyard of the mosque or in some place of the chamber, he called me, and said: "What did you say?" I related to him the story. Upon this he said: "Stay in your house where you received the death news of your husband until the term (of Iddat) is fulfilled." I fulfilled the Iddat of four months and ten days in the house.

Marwan said: "Then, she commanded them to do so (and they do)." Urwah said: "But A'ishah criticized that and said that Fatimah was in a lonely house, and there was fear for her (to stay there), and it is for this that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her concession (to leave the house)."

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(Do you swear) by Allah that you've intended only one (divorce) by that?" he said: "(I swear) by Allah that I've intended only one (divorce)." On that he brought her back to him. Muhammad Ibn Majah said: I heard Abu Al-Hasan Ali Ibn Muhammad At-Tanafisi having said: How honourable this narration is!

I am going to tell you something to which there is no harm on you if you give no hasty reply before consulting your parents", though he knows that my parents were not to order me to depart from him." A'ishah added: "He (The Prophet) recited to me: "O Prophet say to your Consorts: if it be that you desire the life of this world, and its glitter, then come I will provide for your enjoyment and set free in a handsome manner." I said: "What is that on which I should take my parents' opinion? Of course I want Allah and His Messenger.""

The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked her: "Should you bring back to him his garden (he gave you as dower)?" she answered in the affirmative, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to (divorce her and) take back his garden from her, with nothing more.

[24] Taking An Oath To Abstain From One's Wives

2059- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took an oath not to visit his wives for a month. He spent twenty-nine days, and when it was the evening before the thirtieth, he entered upon me, and I said: "You took an oath not to visit us for a month (and now only twenty-nine days have passed)." On that he said: "The (lunar) month might be as such (sending his (ten) fingers thrice), and the (lunar) month might be as such" and in the third time, he sent all of his fingers, and withdrew one of them (indicating that it might be twenty-nine days).

2060- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took an oath to abstain from his wives when Zainab gave him back his present, which led A'ishah to say: "No doubt, she have dealt with you slightly." On that he "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became angry, and took an oath to keep himself away from all of them (in order that none of them would do the same once again).

2061- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took an oath to abstain from some of his wives for a month. When twenty-nine (days) elapsed, he came to them either in the evening or in the morning, thereupon it was said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! Only twenty-nine (days) have passed." On that he said: "The (lunar) month might be twenty-nine (days)."

[25] The Zihar

(It is to make one's wife unlawful to him as far as sexual relation is concerned, the same as is the back of his mother to him.)

2062- It is narrated on the authority of Salamah Ibn Sakhr Al-Bayadi: I was a man, who was endowed with (such power and desire for) having sexual relations with women as none has ever been given. When Ramadan entered upon us, I made my wife unlawful for me by Zihar until it would elapse, (in the narration of the grand imam Ahmad, for fear that I might have sexual relation with her on one night, and (the operation) would continue until morning without being able to finish it). While she was talking to me one night, something of her body was uncovered to me, thereupon I jumped over her, and had sexual relation with her. When it was morning, I went to my people and told them the story, and asked them to enquire (the verdict of) the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". They said: "By Allah! We are not to do so, lest something

(of Revelation) would be sent concerning us, or lest the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would say something concerning us, whose shame would pursue us afterwards. But, we should leave you to your sin: go yourself, and make a mention of your story to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." I set out and came direct to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and told him my story, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Have you really done so?" I said: "I've really done so; and here I'm, O Messenger of Allah, constantly patient on the Commandment of Allah concerning me." he said to me: "Emancipate a slave!" I said: "Nay, by Him, Who has sent you with the truth! I now no longer have got but myself." He ordered me to observe two-month fasts consecutively, thereupon I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Has I not received such (misfortune) as has befallen me but during the fasts (of no more than a month successively)?" he ordered me to give in charity, or feed sixty indigent persons, thereupon I said to him: "By Him Who has sent you with the truth! We spent this night of ours, with even no supper to have." He then said: "Go to the collector of the (objects of) charity of Banyu Zuraiq, and tell him to give it to you thereof feed sixty indigent ones, and sustain yourself (and your dependents) with the remaining portion of it."

2063- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: "Blessed be Allah, Whose Hearing encompasses all things. I was hearing the speech of Khawlah Bint Tha'labah, some of which was hidden from me, while she was complaining her husband to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", saying: "O Messenger of Allah! He consumed my youth, and I gave birth to many children for him, and when I grew old, and unable to give birth, he made me unlawful for him by way of Zihar. O Allah! I complain to You (of my husband).!" She did not leave until Gabriel came with this Verse: "Allah has indeed heard (and accepted) the statement of the woman who pleads with you concerning her husband." (Al-Mujadilah 1)

[26] Can Such As Makes His Wife Unlawful For Him By Way Of Zihar Have Sexual Relation With Her Before Expiation

2065- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that a man made his wife unlawful for him by way of Zihar; and then he had sexual intercourse with her before making expiation. He came to the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and made a mention of that to him, thereupon he said: “What led you to do so?” he said: “I saw her bangle in the moonlight (which stimulated in me the desire for her).” On that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” smiled and ordered him not to approach her until he would make expiation.

[27] What About Li’an

2066- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa’d As-Sa’idi: Uwaimer came to Asim Ibn Adi and said: "Ask on my behalf the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” about a man who has found another man with his wife? Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (The husband), or what should he do? Asim asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, but Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked the question and considered it as shameful. Then, Uwaimer asked him: “What have you done?” Asim replied: “What I’ve done is that you brought to me no good. I asked Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that, and he disliked such questions and considered them as shameful." Uwaimer then said: "By Allah, I will come to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and ask him about it." When he came to The Prophet “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” he found out that the Divine revelation had been sent in connection with their (case) thereupon, he (the Prophet) carried out the (measures of) invoking Allah’s Curse upon the liar of both (he and his wife). Uwaimer said: "O Allah's Apostle! If I kept her I would be a liar." So Uwaimer divorced her thrice before being ordered by The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”. In this way, divorce became a tradition afterwards for those who happened to be involved in a case of invoking Allah’s curse upon the liar of the couple (husband and wife) when she is accused of committing adultery. Then, the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “Watch her: if she gives birth to a child of black complexion, large black eyes, huge thighs, I do not think but he (her husband) has told the truth about her; and if she gives birth to a child of red complexion as if he is a Wahrah (a land red insect), I do not think but he has told a lie." Then, she gave birth to a child having features in agreement with what is hateful (i.e. which referred to her committing fornication).

2067- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: Hilal Ibn Umayyah accused his wife of committing adultery with Sharik Ibn Sahma and filed the case before The Prophet. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to Hilal): "Either you bring forth a proof (four witnesses) or you will receive the legal punishment (lashes) on your back." Hilal said: "By Him, Who sent you with the Truth, I am telling the truth and Allah will reveal to you what will save my back from legal punishment." Then Allah revealed to him: "And for those who launch a charge against their spouses, and have (in support) no evidence but their own, their solitary evidence (can be received) if they bear witness four times (with an oath) by Allah that they are solemnly telling the truth; And the fifth (oath) (should be) that they solemnly invoke the curse of Allah on themselves if they tell a lie. But it would avert the punishment from the wife, if she bears witness four times (with an oath) by Allah, that (her husband) is telling a lie; And the fifth (oath) should be that she solemnly invokes the wrath of Allah on herself if (her accuser) is telling the truth." (An-Nur 6 :8) Then The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left and sent for both. They came, and Hilal stood up and took the oaths (first confirming the claim), while the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was saying: "Allah knows that one of you is a liar, so will any of you repent?" Then the woman got up and took the oaths and when she was going to take the fifth one, that she solemnly invokes the wrath of Allah on herself if (her accuser) is telling the truth, the people stopped her and said: "It (the fifth oath) will definitely bring Allah's curse on you (if you are guilty)." So she hesitated and shrank back (from taking the oath) so much that we thought that she would withdraw her denial. But then she said: "I will not dishonour my family all through these days," and carried on (the process of taking oaths). The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said: "Watch her: if she delivers a black-eyed child with big hips and fat shins then it is Sharik Ibn Sahma's child." Later she delivered a child of such a description. So The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Had the case not been settled by Allah's Law, I would have punished her severely."

2068- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: While we were sitting in the mosque on the night prior to Friday, a man said: "If a man found another man (committing adultery) with his wife and he killed him, you would kill him (in implementation of the law of equality); and if he spoke (that his wife committed adultery) you would lash him (in implementation of the legal punishment of false charge against women): by Allah: I'm going to make a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." He made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon Allah revealed the Holy Verse of Li'an (being engaged in the measures of invoking Allah's curse upon the liar of the couple when the husband accuses his wife of committing adultery). Afterwards, the man came and launched a charge against his wife (of committing adultery), thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" carried out the measures of invoking Allah's Curse against the liar of both. He said: "Perhaps, she would deliver a black child." Accordingly, she delivered a child of black complexion and curly hair.

2070- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: A man from the Ansar got married to a woman from Ajlan and after he had consummated marriage and spent the night with her, he came to claim in the morning that he found her as deflowered. Her case was filed before the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who summoned the woman and asked her, and she said: "Nay! I was virgin." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" carried out the measures of having them engaged in invoking Allah's Curse upon the liar of both, and (parted them and) gave her the dower.

2071- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There are four (types of) women, between whom (and their husbands in case they accuse them of committing adultery) the measures of invoking Allah's Curse upon the liar of both should not be carried out: a Christian woman who is the wife of a Muslim; a Jewess who is the wife of a Muslim; a free woman who is the wife of a slave; and a slave-girl who is the wife of a free man."

2070 ـ حدّثنا عَلِيُّ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ النَّيْسَابُورِيُّ. حَدَّثَنَا يَعْقُوبُ بْنُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ. حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنِ ابْنِ إِسْحَاقَ. قَالَ: ذَكَرَ طَلْحَةُ بْنُ نَافِعٍ، عَنْ سَعِيدِ بْنِ جُبَيْرٍ، عَنِ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ؛ قَالَ: تَزَوَّجَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الأَنْصَارِ امْرَأَةً مِنْ بَلْعِجْلاَنَ. فَدَخَلَ بِهَا. فَبَاتَ عِنْدَهَا. فَلَمَّا أَصْبَحَ قَالَ: مَا وَجَدْتُهَا عَذْرَاءَ. فَرُفِعَ شَأْنُهَا إِلَى النَّبِيِّ ﷺ. فَدَعَا الْجَارِيَةَ فَسَأَلَهَا. فَقَالَتْ: بَلَىٰ. قَدْ كُنْتُ عَذْرَاءَ. فَأَمَرَ بِهِمَا فَتَلاَعَنَا. وَأَعْطَاهَا الْمَهْرَ.

[28] Forbidding What Is Lawful For Oneself

2072- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took an oath to keep away from his wives (for a month); and he made (them) unlawful for him (during that month); and he further made unlawful what was lawful for him (when he forbade Mariyyah, his Coptic slave-girl to him by an oath; and then he made lawful what became unlawful for him by such an oath when he approached her); and he made expiation (to dissolve) the oath.

2073- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said as to (suspend) forbidding what is lawful for one, is (to make expiation like that of) an oath. He used to say: "No doubt, you have in the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a beautiful pattern (to follow)."

[29] Giving The Freedom Of Choice To The Slave-Girl When She Is Emancipated (Whether To Stay With Her Slave Husband Or Leave Him)

2075- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas: Barirah's husband was a slave called Mughith, as if I am seeing him now, going behind Barirah and weeping with his tears flowing on his cheeks. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abbas: "O Abbas! Are you not astonished at the love of Mughith for Barirah and the hatred of Barirah for Mughith?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then said to Barirah: "Why Don't you return to him? He is the father of your child!" She said: "O Allah's Apostle! Do you order me to do so?" He said: "No, I only intercede for him." She said: "I am not in need of him."

2076- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah: Three traditions were set for Barirah: When Barirah was manumitted she was given the option (whether to remain with her slave husband). Her husband was a slave. When they gave her in charity, she gave out of that as a gift to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who said: "It is an object of charity for her, and a present for us." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The allegiance (of the slave) is for the manumitter."

What is the matter with anyone of you, who marries his slave to his slave-girl and then intends to part them: No doubt, the (right of) divorce is due to such as (has the claim to) take (the woman) by her chin" (i.e. due to the husband, who has more claim over her).

He answered in the affirmative. It was said to him: "Upon which (do you rely in that verdict)?" he said: "A similar judgement was passed by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." [36] When A Man Is Ordered By His Father To Divorce His Wife 2088- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: I had a wife, for whom I had love, though my father had aversion towards her. Umar made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who commanded me to divorce her; and I did accordingly.

2089- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Abd Ar-Rahman that a man was ordered by his father or his mother, Shu'bah (a sub-narrator) was in doubt, to divorce his wife, thereupon (to make it difficult upon himself, so that his father or mother would retract) he made it binding upon himself to manumit one hundred (slaves if he divorced his wife). He went to Abu Ad-Darda' (to seek his religious verdict), and behold! He was offering the Duha prayer, which he was prolonging. Then, he offered (the sunnah) prayer between Zhuhr an Asr (and after he had finished) the man asked him, thereupon Abu Ad-Darda' said: "Fulfill your vow and be dutiful (and kind) to your parents." Abu Ad-Darda' further said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "One's (kindness to his) father (leads one to) the best of the gates of the Garden: so, it is up to You to guard strictly your parents (by being kind and dutiful to them), or leave that."

2100- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "When one says: "I'm free from Islam (if this is not as what I say)", then, if he tells a lie, he is the same as he says (describing himself); and if he tells the truth, he will never return to Islam as free from faults (and sins)."

He said: "By Allah, I will not provide you with any means of conveyance; and I have nothing to make you ride on." We stayed as long as Allah wished. Then some camels (as booty) were brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he ordered that we should be given three camels with white humps. When we set out we said to one another: "We came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him to provide us with means of conveyance, but he took an oath not to provide us with any means of conveyance. Let's go (and remind) him." We returned and told him. He replied: "By Allah! I have not provided you with means of conveyance, but Allah has provided you with that, and by Allah, Allah willing, if I take an oath to do something, and later on I find out that it is more beneficial to do something different, I will do the thing which is better, and give expiation for my oath (or he said: I will give expiation for my oath, and do the thing which is better)."

2110- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who takes an oath for something therewith to sever the relation with his kith and kin, or do what is unfitting: it is fulfilled if he does not carry on that (for which he takes such an oath, with no necessity for making expiation)."
